

Book Template for Call for Chapters: Language, Literature, and Technology in Contemporary Education

Page Size: 15.5 cm × 23 cm

Title of the Chapter

Author Name(s)

Institutional Affiliation(s)

Email Address(es)

Introduction

- Provide background information on the topic.
- Explain the significance and relevance to language, literature, and technology in education.
- Clearly state the objectives and research questions.
- Briefly outline the structure of the chapter.

Discussion

- Present the main analysis, findings, and discussion.
- Use headings and subheadings to organize different aspects of the topic.
- Support arguments with relevant literature, theories, and case studies.
- Include figures, tables, and examples where applicable.

- Discuss practical implications and applications in contemporary education.

Conclusion

- Summarize key findings and insights.
- Highlight the contributions of the chapter.
- Suggest future research directions or practical recommendations.

References

- Follow APA (7th edition) referencing style.
- List all sources cited in alphabetical order.

Biography

Dr. Laba is a distinguished scholar and consultant with expertise in applied linguistics, professional development, and tourism. His academic background includes scholarship-funded studies at Sprachacademie Hanover in Germany, Udayana University, and Jade University of Applied Sciences in Germany. His contributions to the field have been recognized through research grants and textbook development awards from the Ministry of Education and Culture, highlighting his commitment to advancing linguistic scholarship and promoting educational innovation.

Currently, Dr. Laba serves as a faculty member at Dhyana Pura University, where he teaches courses in Applied Linguistics, English for Tourism, English for Tour and Travel, English for Travel Agents, Tour Guiding English, Business Communication, English for Marketing & Advertising, and Research on Language & Literature. He is also a guest lecturer at Jade University of Applied Sciences, Germany, and provides freelance tutoring on practical tourism courses at Denpasar Institute. His academic standing is further reinforced by his position as an Associate Professor with a credit score of 781.50.

Dr. Laba is an active member of the Linguistic Society of Indonesia (MLI) and the Indonesian Scientific Publication Forum, where he engages in personal development and maintains strong academic networking. He holds nationally recognized certifications, including the National Consultant NIB Reg. Nr. 2012220031568 and BNSP Assessor Certification Reg. Nr. MET.00000 1945 2008. From 2022 to 2024, Dr. Laba served as the Lead Consultant at the Education Quality Assurance Agency (BPMP) of Bali Province, where he played a key role in shaping educational quality standards and driving policy implementation.

Dr. Laba has built a strong international academic profile, acquiring extensive global experience through various academic and professional engagements. He has been invited as a speaker at prestigious conferences and seminars, including those at Waseda University in Tokyo and Universität Hamburg, Germany. He received training in international marketing management at Kymenlaakso University of Applied Sciences, Finland and participated in the Global Leaders Course at the University of Oregon, United States. These international experiences have enriched Dr. Laba's perspective, enabling him to integrate best global practices into his teaching, research, and consultancy.

Formatting Guidelines

- Font: Cambria, 12 pt
- Line Spacing: 1.5
- Margins: Mirror margins, inside 3 cm, outside, top, bottom 2 cm.
- Paragraph Alignment: Justified
- Headings: Bold
- Subheadings: Italicized
- Page Numbers: Bottom center
- Figures/Tables: Numbered consecutively (e.g., Table 1, Figure 1) with captions

Please download and use this template.

