

LINCOLN. Julia E. (Vitkus) Lincoln, 70, widow of Adam Z. Lincoln, of 461 Washington St., Hartford, died Sunday (June 14) at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center. Born in Hartford, she was a lifelong resident and had been employed by Interstate United Food Service for many years at CBT, Hartford. She was a member of Holy Trinity Church, Hartford. Mrs. Lincoln leaves her beloved children, James A. Lincoln of Enfield, Mrs. Aldrita T. Ferguson of East Hartford and Miss Paulette V. Lincoln of Santa Anna, Calif.; a brother, Joseph Vitkus of Hartford; two sisters, Mrs. Veronica Dura and Miss Albina Vitkus, both of Hartford; and six grandchildren, Adam, Elena, Nathaniel, Shana, Ashlee and Royce. Funeral will be Wednesday, 9:15 a.m., from the South Green Memorial Home, 43 Wethersfield Ave., Hartford, with a mass of Christian burial, 10 a.m., in Holy Trinity Church, Hartford. Burial will be in Mount St. Benedict Cemetery. Her family will receive friends Tuesday, 2-4 and 7-9 p.m., at the South Green Memorial Home. Contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association, 40 South St., West Hartford.