

Community News
Sunday, March 24h 2019

Please Scroll Down for all of the Community News!

Read to a Dog at Larkspur Library Share a story with a specially trained dog from the Marin Humane Society! Monday, March 25, 4:00-5:00pm.

Wildfire Preparedness Please join Central Marin Fire Department, Fire Marshal Ruben Martin and the Mariner Cove NRG leaders for a meeting to discuss how you and your family can prepare for the next emergency, with an emphasis on wildfire awareness and preparedness. Wednesday, April 3rd, in the Cove Gallery, 7:00pm-8:30pm. For more information, click here.

Kinder Readiness Camp Corte Madera Parks and Recreation is offering a Kindergarten Readiness Camp at Neil Cummins. All entering kindergartners (from Cove and Neil Cummins) are welcome! This camp is designed to acclimate the incoming kindergarteners to the Neil Cummins campus and kindergarten playground. They practice kindergarten skills and provide an opportunity to form friendships with future classmates. Kindergarten teachers will prepare the students for routines and tasks of a kindergarten environment. For more information, or to register, click here

Spring Forward with Clay and Kiki In this spring themed class children will connect with nature. We will make a bird and nest & eggs, bird house, nature textured- picture frame, bee hive and sculpey bees, & more. We will use the on site kiln and complete the ceramic cycle. We will glaze and paint. The last day is a finger food pot luck celebration. Send a snack to share. All work goes home the last day send a bag. $40 Lab fee paid to Kiki the first day. Wednesdays, 1:15pm, April 17th- June 5th. $120, Register via Parks and Rec

Corte Madera Library Kids' Book Club will meet on Wednesday, April 24, 7:00-8:00pm, for grades 4 and up. The Book Club is reading The Watsons Go to Birmingham, by Christopher Paul Curtis.

Call 415.924.3515 to sign up and reserve a copy of the book!

Email Disclaimer: <https://www.marincounty.org/main/disclaimers>