

Guided Notes: William Shakespeare

Comedy

Tragedy

History

--	--	--

Words to Remember:

afear'd - afraid, frightened

anon - until later

attend - to await

aye - yes

belike - maybe

brave - fine, handsome

e'en - evening

enow - enough

fain - gladly, willingly

fare thee well - goodbye

forbear - stop, cease

got - begot

haply - perhaps, with luck,

maybe

heavy - sorrowful

impeach - dishonor

knave - scoundrel, rascal

list - listen

mark - listen, pay attention mayhap - maybe

mess - meal, food

morrow - day, morning

nay - no

ne'er - never

oft - often

ope - open

passing - surprisingly,

exceedingly

perchance - maybe

post - messenger

power - army

prithee - I pray thee

(please)

recreant - coward

resolve - to answer; reply to

soundly

troth - belief

verily - truly

want - lack

wherefore - why

yea - yes