	SOAL	Read the following text for question number 25-28 The Story Of Toba Lake Once upon a time, there was a man who was living in North Sumatra. He lived in a simple hut in a farming field. They did some gardening and fishing for his daily life. One day, while the man was doing fishing, he caught a big golden fish in his trap. It was the biggest catch which he ever had in his life. Surprisingly, this fish turned into a beautiful princess. He fell in love with her and proposed her to be his wife. She said; "Yes, but you have to promise not to tell anyone about the secret that I was once a fish, otherwise there will be a huge disaster". The man made the deal and they got married, lived happily and had a daughter. Few years later, this daughter would help bringing lunch to her father out in the fields. One day, his daughter was so hungry and she ate his father's lunch. Unfortunately, he found out and got furious, and shouted; "You damned daughter of a fish". The daughter ran home and asked her mother. The mother started crying, felt sad that her husband had broken his promise. Then she told her daughter to run up the hills because a huge disaster was about to come. When her daughter left, she prayed. Soon there was a big earthquake followed by non-stop

29		The hippopotamus (Hippopotamus amphibius) or hippo in the ancient Greek means "river horse". This is a large, herbivorous mammal in sub-Saharan Africa, and one of only two extant species in the family Hippopotamidae (the other is the Pygmy Hippopotamus). After the elephant, hippopotamus the third largest land mammal and the heaviest extant Artiodactyl. Hippos are semi-aquatic. They inhabit rivers, lakes and mangrove swamps, and live in groups of 5 to 30 females and young. During the day they remain cool by staying in the water or mud. Reproduction and childbirth both occur in water. They emerge at dusk to graze on grass.
