

Teacher Welcome for 2025-2026

Teacher Name: Amy Ramponi
Room Number: 0015
Department: Social Studies

This school year (2025-2026) marks my 23rd year in education, and my 18th at Kimberly High School. I currently teach Advanced Placement (AP) Psychology and Sociology.

I am a University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point and University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee graduate with a BA in History and Sociology and a teacher certification in Social Studies, History, Sociology, Psychology, and Geography. I am currently earning my Masters in Reading/Reading Interventionist from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater and will graduate from the program in 2027.

In my spare time I enjoy the outdoors - hiking, biking, running and general exploring. I love to walk and also love a good Peloton spin class. I enjoy reading and my book club, cooking, and spending time with family and friends. I love to travel with my partner-in-crime, Mr. Ramponi, an English teacher at Appleton North. I am mom to sons George (9) and Gus (5) who adore shipwrecks, the NFL, snacks and swimming at the YMCA.

For my AP Psychology or Sociology course I recommend a large binder - I give a lot of handouts. Review books are provided by KHS for the national AP exam, if you want to write in or highlight a review book, I recommend you buy your own.

Feel free to contact me at school with any questions you may have. My email is aramponi@kimberly.k12.wi.us
