WDFW Reports Outbreak of Deer Diseases in Eastern Washington September 9, 2025 Source ONE News

... Eastern Washington wildlife officials are warning hunters and landowners about an outbreak of Epizootic Hemorrhagic Disease (EHD) and Bluetongue ... Stevens and Spokane counties appear to be hit hardest ..,

EHD, State reduces limit for bagging white-tailed deer in four counties following disease outbreak November 18, 2025 Washington, The Athens Messenger

... the new limits are a direct response to the outbreak of Epizootic Hemorrhagic Disease (EHD), a virus that causes internal bleeding and eventual death in grazing animals such as deer ... Since the outbreak in July, 9,243 deer have died from EHD across the state, the ODNR reported on Nov. 6, according to their interactive map tracking EHD....