

Saint Andrew's United Methodist Day School is currently accepting applications for a Fourth Grade Lead Teacher position for the 2026-2027 school year.

Located just outside Annapolis, Maryland, Saint Andrew's enrolls students in preschool through eighth grade. Founded in the Methodist tradition and affiliated with Saint Andrew's United Methodist Church, we are a welcoming community that invites families of all religious traditions to join us in the important work of helping young people grow into responsible, caring young adults.

Our rich academic program promotes in students the development of productive work habits and the mastery of essential academic content and skills. Interdisciplinary lessons are commonly employed throughout the curriculum. Teachers design lessons that encourage our students to think creatively and work collaboratively.

Our 20 acre campus includes a small farm, garden, and outdoor learning spaces. With an academic program rich in the arts and sciences, our teachers understand the importance of teaching to the needs of each individual child.

The Fourth Grade lead teacher, in addition to homeroom responsibilities, provides instruction across multiple subjects—math, social studies, and language arts—allowing for an integrated and consistent learning experience within one classroom. All students also participate in a robust weekly schedule of special area classes that enrich and complement their core academic learning.

Candidate Profile:

- Demonstrates a love for teaching and working with children of all ages
- Expertise in best instructional practices
- Exhibits excellent written and oral communications skills
- Collaborates well with colleagues to promote an integrated and hands-on educational experience
- Models a growth mindset and pursues life-long learning

Qualifications/Experience:

- Minimum Bachelor's degree in education or a related field (Master's preferred)
- 2+ years of classroom teaching or experience in academic field (preferred)
- Maryland teacher certification preferred, but not required

- Training, certification and/or experience in Responsive Classroom, Orton-Gillingham, Handwriting Without Tears, Singapore Math, and Understanding By Design principles and practices highly preferred
- Applicants must be authorized to work in the United States. Visa sponsorship is not available for this position.

Salary range for full-time teaching positions is $40,000-65,000, commensurate with experience and education. Benefits offered include health insurance (including medical, dental, and vision), 80 hours of paid time off, paid holidays during the school year, professional development opportunities, and tuition remission for staff children enrolled in Saint Andrew's.

Saint Andrew's United Methodist Day School is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Saint Andrew's welcomes and celebrates diversity, and we are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all members of the community.

Talented teaching candidates are invited to contact the school to learn more about employment opportunities at Saint Andrew's. In a single PDF file, candidates may submit a resume and a brief letter of interest outlining their qualifications and experience to:

Eric Danowski
Assistant Head of School
Saint Andrew's United Methodist Day School employment@standrewsum.org