

The Energy Foundation of San Francisco, CA

Selected Transportation Grants to Minnesota and Midwest 2008-2011

Izaak Walton League of America, Inc. (St. Paul, MN) $35,000, Grant Period: Jan, 2008 – Dec, 2008, To study and promote Minnesota-oriented low carbon fuels standard.

University of Minnesota Foundation (Minneapolis, MN) $40,000, Grant Period: Jun, 2008 – May, 2009, To analyze the potential for a low-carbon fuels standard in Minnesota.

Izaak Walton League of America, Inc. (St. Paul, MN) $160,000, Grant Period: Dec, 2008 – Nov, 2009, To advance a low carbon fuel standard in Minnesota.

Fresh Energy (St. Paul, MN) $250,000, Grant Period: Jan, 2009 – Jun, 2010, To advance clean cars in Minnesota

Minnesota Environmental Partnership, (St. Paul, MN) $30,000, Grant Period: Mar, 2009 – Jun, 2009, To engage the ag sector in advancing clean cars in Minnesota.

Great Plains Institute for Sustainable Development (Minneapolis, MN), $25,000, Grant Period: Mar, 2009 – May, 2009, To advance low-carbon fuels in the Midwest

Great Plains Institute for Sustainable Development, (Minneapolis) $365,000, Grant Period: Jun, 2009 – May, 2010, To advance low-carbon fuels and renewable power in the Midwest.

The Council of State Governments (Lexington, KY) $150,000, Grant Period: Nov, 2009 – Nov, 2010, To support the Midwest Governors' Association's development of Low Carbon Fuels Standards policy.

Institute for Agriculture and Trade Policy, (Minneapolis, MN) $80,000, Grant Period: Dec, 2009 – Nov, 2010, To promote low-carbon fuels in Minnesota.

Izaak Walton League of America, Inc. (St. Paul, MN) $80,000, Grant Period: Dec, 2009 – Nov, 2010, To promote low-carbon fuels in Minnesota.

Great Plains Institute for Sustainable Development (Minneapolis, MN) $200,000, Grant Period: Jun, 2010 – May, 2011, To develop a pathway toward low carbon fuels for the Midwest.