12:10:18 From Jessica, TCEA to Everyone:

How would you use a template in your content/context area or how would you help your teachers?

12:10:36 From Erin Beckett to Everyone:

The history teacher wants me to teach our students to make an infographic tomorrow. Eep.

12:10:46 From Debra Yocum to Everyone:

In the library, I could use a template for ELA poetry creation using a certain style.

12:10:48 From rlee to Everyone:

Canva Newbie: I didn't realize canva can make websites

12:13:33 From Kara McFarlin to Everyone:

I played around with the website option in Canva before and it reminded me of a hyperlinked deck of slides. I haven't explored the option in a while so it may have changed

12:13:36 From Peggy Reimers (she/her) to Everyone:

I think a portfolio is a good idea. My only question is how easy is your stuff to transfer from a school acct to a personal acc.?

12:13:54 From Lacy Goedeke to Everyone:

Websites are easy to create in Canva! Simple and easy

12:13:59 From Miguel Guhlin (he/him/his) to Everyone:

Magic Switch?

12:14:08 From Dani Filas to Everyone:

Replying to "My 5th grade social ..."

Thanks! Eventually I want him to be able to do more than substitute worksheets and free him to do more augmentation, modification, and redefinition of his former lessons.

Go to RESIZE->Transform into a Doc->Outline/Blog post, etc.

12:15:32 From Peggy Reimers (she/her) to Everyone:

That transform into a doc - is clear at the bottom. SCROLL DOWN but SO COOL!

12:15:57 From Rachel Blust to Everyone:

Where do we find the videos?

12:15:59 From Debra Yocum to Everyone:

Did Peggy's question get answered about transferring school stuff to personal account?

12:16:41 From Peggy Reimers (she/her) to Everyone:

I don't think it is very easy right now - but I bet it will get better in the future. Fingers crossed.

12:16:58 From AguilarL to Everyone:

Apps are great - try the translation or equation tool

12:17:08 From Kara McFarlin to Everyone:

I love the "check accessibility design" feature!

12:17:19 From Candace Tickle to Everyone:

the ease of background remover and download transparent image

12:17:28 From Kara McFarlin to Everyone:

The PDF upload to edit PDFs is amazing!!

12:17:37 From Meg Havens to Everyone:

I love to use the magic media buttons to play with images

12:17:57 From Peggy Reimers (she/her) to Everyone:

My other concern about the transfer - if you are using a pro and then taking it to a free account - what happens to the content that has the pro images, features, etc.

12:17:59 From Julia Tamez to Everyone:

You also need to be sure you set them to be the actual background or else it will not let other elements work or be clicked on.

12:18:16 From Nicole Lakusta, PSD to Everyone:

Fantastic session! Need to head out to a school. Cheers :)

12:18:22 From Malynda Childress to Everyone:

Canva Educator was just refreshed/updated!

12:19:01 From Jessica, TCEA to Everyone:

Canva Educator - <https://tcea.org/courses/canva-educator/> -

This online, self-paced course presents an introduction to the design tool called Canva. Canva is not to be confused with the Canvas learning management system (LMS). Canva provides you with a powerful toolkit to easily and quickly create spectacular resources even if you are not a designer or an artist. If you are an artist or designer, you have a huge repository of tools all in one place to bring new creations to life at no charge. Yes, Canva is free to all K-12 educators. Plus, when you take any of our courses you'll receive a free 1-year membership to TCEA so you can keep the learning going all year long with our exclusive livestreams and events. And if you're not satisfied for any reason, just reach out to us so we can make it right.

Self-Paced, Online Course Canva Educator is a self-paced, online program. Participants can begin anytime and go at their own speed throughout the program.
