

Wednesday, October 22, 2025

Working Agreements:

- Ensure all voices are heard, inviting those who have not yet shared for each topic
- Assume positive intent & address impact – in everything we do!
- Be respectful of the time of others – start on time, end on time
- Be present and engage in active listening

• Welcome and introductions

- Our Mission: At Jessie Whaley Maxwell Elementary, we, as an inclusive community and in partnership with parents and community, develop our students' independence, critical thought, and enduring love for learning.

Participants:

- Elizabeth Yates, Gladys Gonzalez, Gemma Aguayo, Yoselin Gracia, Maria Covarrubias, Aidan Cox, Rocio Cazares

Things CSC would like to discuss:

(Please add things that you hope can be discussed during CSC.)

-

Principal Business:

(Things Beth needs to bring to CSC)

- Saturday School update
- Fall Adjustment ($105,000)
- SPF - Waiting for final in Nov.
- Parent Involvement - Fall Festival
- Bond Money - Still waiting on renderings to share with all

Agenda based on above mentioned ideas:

Time	Topic	Resources	Notes
3:20	Saturday School/ Tutoring		100 students are attending. At each grade level, we have one ELA-S and one ELA-E class.
3:24	Fall Adjustment and Current Numbers		-18 students from projection of 587 Cost actual ($105,000) • Use reserve funds discussed and used to pay back for -18 students • Hiring - keep current status • No staff reductions • Can't request budget assistance because not reducing ECE - 59 K - 68 1st - 93

			2nd - 97 3rd - 93 4th - 99 5th - 120 Total with ECE 629 Total w/o ECE 571
3:30	SPF		-Share Preliminary SPF & what that means for us - low student achievement. ELA - 13% proficient, math 6% proficient. Low MGPs - 34.5 in literacy, 46 in math Early Literacy Growth - moved 20% of students out of red/yellow to green and blue.
3:35	Parent Involvement		-Parent Ambassadors Events coming up: October 30th- Fall Festival and Día de los muertos, November 20th - Thanksgiving lunch, December 11th 1st music concert
3:50	Bond Money		$320,000 for Focus Learning Environments - New playground structure; Waiting for renderings to bring to all stakeholders to decide structure
4:00	Ballet		December 5th Ballet K-5 - The Nutcracker at the DCPA

Wednesday, September 10th

Working Agreements:

- Ensure all voices are heard, inviting those who have not yet shared for each topic
- Assume positive intent & address impact – in everything we do!
- Be respectful of the time of others – start on time, end on time
- Be present and engage in active listening

• Welcome and introductions

- Our Mission: At Jessie Whaley Maxwell Elementary, we, as an inclusive community and in partnership with parents and community, develop our students' independence, critical thought, and enduring love for learning.

Participants:

- Elizabeth Yates, Gladys Gonzalez, Gemma Aguayo, Yoselin Gracia, Amanda Gruebel, Maria Covarrubias, Aidan Cox, Rocio Cazares

Things CSC would like to discuss:

(Please add things that you hope can be discussed during CSC.)

•

Principal Business:

(Things Beth needs to bring to CSC)

- Saturday School
- Fall Adjustment
- SPF
- Parent Involvement
- Bond Money

Agenda based on above mentioned ideas:

Time	Topic	Resources	Notes
3:20	Saturday School/ Tutoring		- Shared information with families - flyers and ThrillShare - Will have 12 teachers, 1 ELA-S and 1 ELA-E per grade - Sign up goes live Friday - First day of Saturday school will be 9/27
3:25	Fall Adjustment		-Review current numbers of students per class and grade - link -Look at options to cover -17 students from projection of 587 Cost = $113,645 actual ($105,000) • Use reserve funds discussed and used to pay back for -17 students • Hiring - keep current status • No staff reductions • Can't request budget assistance because not reducing All CSC members voted to use the reserves to cover the current deficit (3:47pm)
3:45	SPF		-Share Preliminary SPF & what that means for us - low student achievement. ELA - 13% proficient, math 6% proficient. Low MGPs - 34.5 in literacy, 46 in math
4:00	Parent Involvement		-Parent Ambassadors Events coming up: September 16th - Parade for Hispanic Heritage Month, October 2nd Literacy Night 5:00 - 6:00, October Fall Festival TBD, November 3rd - Dias de los muertos, November - Thanksgiving lunch, December - 2 music concerts
4:10	Bond Money		$320,000 for Focus Learning Environments - New playground structure

[illegible]