

Cuck Co-Write Story

The morning sun beamed in the window painting golden patterns on the white walls outlined by rainbow refraction patterns signaling that morning had arrived; soon emphasised by the shrill-tone of the alarm clock displaying '07:00' in bold red square writing.

Kai was the first to emerge from his light slumber, tossing and turning for thirty seconds before sitting up and rubbing the sleep out of his almond-shaped puppy brown eyes. He ceased the alarm sound with one good smack to the top of it before swinging his short legs over the side of the bed to stand up and stretch.

He winced a little as his morning wood strained against the confines of his chastity cage, pulsing a little inside. But he'd gotten used to the feeling and simply moved on.

After pulling on a suitable outfit for the day, he woke up Lily and prompted her to do the same. They were expecting a visit from her old friend in the afternoon and they both had a list of things to go through first, including the spare room.

Lily's old friend, Jason, was a tall and handsome man she'd met in college who looked to be sculpted from marble stone by the gods. His body was tanned golden and chiselled from years of exercise and health training.

Kai had grown jealous of him when he first started dating Lily, but as their relationship matured, he became comfortable with the man's presence and even entertained the idea of including him in their sex life at some point. Little did he know that time would be sooner rather than later...

—time skip—

Lily's outfit was a stunning little black dress, ornamented with her trademark big hoop earrings. Her makeup was ever on point, and she helped Kai with his makeup, too, a little blusher, some lip gloss, and wing tips for his pretty eyes. Around her neck, his key dangled on a perilously thin gold chain, hypnotising him with promise as it bobbed back and forth.

It wasn't long until the rhythmic musical sound of the doorbell echoed throughout the home sending Lily's heart into overdrive as she knew what was coming.

She and Kai opened the door to the tall, tanned man standing there with a bold smile on his face; flashing those pearly whites. "Lily! My god, it's been so long. How are you?" He chuckled happily as he leant down to pull her into a hug.

“Oh you know, just plodding along, it’s good to see you, Jason” she smirked up at him.

“And Kai, my man! Are you taking care of my girl? Huh” he smirked, shaking his hand whilst looking directly into his eyes in a somewhat friendly but mildly intimidating way.

Kai chuckled awkwardly before responding, “you know it, Jason”. His heart rate quickened as the man stared into his soul before walking past them and dropping his bags at the coat rack before dropping himself onto the couch with his legs spread apart, patting the spots next to him. “Sit, guys. It’s been too long, don’t go sitting far away now, huh?” He smirked once more, winking at Lily suggestively as she sat down deliberately slowly next to him, Kai sitting down also.

He wrapped his arms around each of their shoulders and smiled at them both before exclaiming; “I think we’re going to have some fun this visit”.

Jason wasted no time going in for what he wanted, biting his lip with a smile as he began to grope Lily’s breast, feeling the warm and plump masses in his large hands. The sudden feeling caused her to let out a breathy noise and decline in her chair to melt into the touch.

Meanwhile, Kai licked his lips as he watched, feeling his desperate cock strain against the confines of his cage.

“Have a look, Kai. Her whole tit fits in my hand perfectly” he chuckled as he gave it a jiggle.

Lily, whilst having her breasts played with, began to palm Jason through his shorts; feeling his massive length in her hands and licking her lower lip seductively. “God! It’s so girthy” she moaned lightly, giggling as she stroked it through his shorts and watching as he lay his head back in pleasure.

Kai, at this moment, sat and watched eagerly as his girlfriend and friend pleased each other as if he wasn’t even there. He couldn’t bring himself to move, to look away, nothing. He was entranced, fascinated, mesmerised.

“Go on then, my cock’s big enough for two hands” Jason teased, grasping Kai’s hand and moving it onto his bulge alongside Lily’s.

“Now this is a good size for a cock” Lily teased, looking at Kai as she said it, “just feel how big it is, how girthy it is. You can really do something with a weapon like this” she explained in vivid detail, putting her hand over Kai’s and forcing him to grasp and stroke Jason’s huge member; watching as his face turned a rosy red round his cheeks from how flustered he was. The humiliation was shown not only in his face, however, but it was also made visible by the tent in his pants.
