1. INTRODUCTION

The introduction should be clear and provide for the issue to be discussed in the manuscript. Before the objective, authors should provide an adequate background, and very short literature survey in order to record the existing conditions, to show which is the best of previous researches, to show the main limitation of the previous researches, to show what you want to achieve (to solve the limitation), and to show the scientific merit or novelties of the paper. At the end of the paragraph, the author/s should end with a comment on the significance concerning identification of the issue and objective of the research.

The manuscript written by the author whose English is the second language needs to be proofread. Ignore to this requirement results in the rejection of the manuscript. For this part to reference, please use Garamond, 12, with 1.15 spaces. The Articles section must have length of 4000-6000 words with a minimum of 25 references and 50 footnotes (each of them 80% from journal articles).

2. METHOD

The method is optional for original research articles. This method is written in descriptive and should provide a statement regarding the methodology of the research. This method is as much as possible give an idea to the reader.

3. MAIN HEADING OF THE FIRST ANALYSIS OR DISCUSSION¹

This section is the most important section of your article. The analysis or results of the research should be clear and concise. The results should summarize (scientific) findings rather than providing data in great detail. Please highlight differences between your results or findings and the previous publications by other researchers.

3.1 Sub-heading of the discussion²

Following main headings should be provided in the manuscript while preparing. The separation between main headings, sub-headings and sub-sub headings should be numbered in the manuscript with following example:

3.2 Sub-heading of the discussion

3.3 Sub-heading of the discussion

4. MAIN HEADING OF THE SECOND ANALYSIS OR DISCUSSION ETC.

Tables And Figures Are Presented Center And Cited In The Manuscript. The Figures Should Be Clearly Readable And At Least Have A Resolution Of 300 Dpi (Dots Per Inch) For Good Printing Quality. Table Made With The Open Model (Without The Vertical Lines) As Shown Below :
