

Forte Series.

Subject line: Over 4 years!

For over four years I've been following you on YouTube!

At that time, you still have been living in that apartment of yours in LA.

I've seen you grow all your businesses from the Forte Series, to the latest one - Aetos!

And now I am contacting you to finally be able to help you with your first ever brand - Forte Series.

Alex, what do you say if I help you to increase your sales with an email sequence that I could do for you for free, so that you could see my abilities and provide testimonials for me so we could eventually become partners?

Let's have a call or a chat via email/whatsapp whenever it's convenient to you, to discuss further details.

P.S. I wouldn't like to be just a copywriter. But more of a strategic partner. I have skills at copywriting and digital marketing that can help businesses increase their sales, launch high-ticket products.
