

SL: SELNA KIM - THE face of dating.

Hi Selna.

Hearing about how you became a positive role model for thousands of men resonated with me. Your products truly help them from what I've seen.

And I have some ways you could increase your sales that I have picked up from competitors in your sphere such as Casey Zander and Stirling Cooper.

1. A persuasive email sequence that will scale your clients up your product ladder and take them from your newsletter to your EROS program in the fastest time possible.
2. A free training that will eradicate potential buyers' negative beliefs and remove any excuse viewers have not to purchase EROS.

The benefits of you implementing these strategies will include:

Potentially higher conversions as a result of new perspectives your subscribers haven't heard or thought of yet.

If this happens, you will have more testimonials to leverage for your premium mentorship on all platforms.

What would it mean if this happened for you?

Would it change everything?

If so, reply to this email or let's book a call and discuss it in more detail.

Horatio.
