Theme: From a Lover, Sealed With All My Love

Evidenced through the empty spaces between our fingers, humans were born to be lovers. We are all created to connect as pieces of a larger whole and love is the guiding force that allows us all to have a connection with one another.

The focus of our issue is simply this: love

We are looking for pieces that capture love in all its simplest and most complex forms. So whether it's an unsent love letter, a story of two people falling under Cupid's spell, a simple yet heartfelt photograph, or a poem of an unrequited love. We want to showcase it all! Our goal is to make this collection a gallery of love's many forms and faces. And we are happy to have you take part with this!

Deadline: June 11th 2025

What you can submit:

- Literary pieces- poems, prose, short stories, & novel excerpts
 - Art pieces- we accept both digital and traditional works
 - Letters
 - Photography
 - Original song lyrics

General Rules

Guidelines for...

1. Literary pieces:

- You may submit in PDF, Word document, or Google Doc format.
- Word count: MAX 2000 words
- Font: Times New Roman, Size 14

This is to ensure readability and clarity.

- We accept non-english submissions. For this, an english translation or a short summary of your work is needed. Although we have a language team, our translating services are only limited to Tagalog and Hindi.

2. Letters

- Naming names is not allowed or disclosing any personal information (address, age, last or full name, personal pictures, etc.) as that is an invasion of privacy.

3. Artworks

- For traditional art pieces, please take a clear photo of your work.

4. Song lyrics

- Submissions can be in audio format if you wish to show us the full song. You may submit in Google doc or PDF format if you wish to emphasize the lyrics themselves.

5. Photography

- No strict format to be followed, just be sure to take a clear picture of your work. Any piece that contains any explicit content or hate speech will be discarded.
