READING COMPREHENSION

A. Read and decide if each statement is true (T) or false (F).

I've got two brothers, and we're all pretty creative. My older brother Steve is the most hard-working of us three brothers. He's a producer and makes documentary films for television. It sounds exciting, but he works until very late at night, and is always tired. I'm a musician and I sometimes write background music for Steve's films. I love it, I've got the best job in the world. Steve and I both went to university but I didn't spend as much time studying as he did. I was always too busy playing in my band. Tim's the youngest in the family, though he's actually taller than either Steve or me. And we're certainly not as good-looking as he is. He was the most popular boy in the school. He never seemed to work very hard but he's not as lazy as I was. He's at art college now, and works as a waiter in his spare time. He's an absolutely brilliant artist and his drawings are really amazing. I think he'll be more successful than either of us in the future.

1. Steve works as a producer for documentary movies. _____
2. The writer never creates music for his brother's film. _____
3. The write spend a little time playing in his band. _____
4. Tim is liked by many people at school. _____
5. In Tim's spare time, he serves in a restaurant. _____

B. Choose the letter A, B, C or D to answer these questions.

Internet sites like MySpace, Bebo and Facebook are a great way for young people to keep in touch with friends, but there are things you should do to stay safe. On some sites you don't have to use your real name if you don't want to, so invent a name for yourself. On most sites it's a rule that you have to give an email address, but this doesn't have to be normal one – you can use an address. You can write lots of interesting things on your online page, but something you must never do is to put your house address or phone number. In fact, you shouldn't give any information that could let strangers know your identity, because on the Internet you never know who is looking. Remember, too, that you mustn't put your friends' personal details on your page, or you could put them in danger. So the message is: have fun, but take care.

1. From the text, what do some internet sites use for?

A. contact friends B. make films C. make friends D. listen to music

2. Do you have to use your real name when you use Internet sites?

A. Yes B. No C. Not sure D. Not given

3. What should not you put on the Internet sites?

A. your school B. nickname C. house address D. your lesson

4. Why should not you put your friends' personal details on your page?

A. They are easy to be in danger

B. They will like it

C. They will hate you

D. They will leave you

5. What does the writer want to advise you?

A. make friends on social network

B. give all your details

C. change your phone number

D. be careful when using Internet sites
