

World of Relics Interactions and Fanart Boundaries

Back to World of Relics Pitch Carrd

Intro

Hi, my name is Penwrythe and I am the creator of WOR, World of Relics, a worldbuilding project I started writing in late 2019 after I was inspired by Objectshows on YouTube. This boundaries and interactions doc is for future and current followers and fans who want to create fandom content inspired by WOR.

Thank you for reading! Let me know if you have any questions or concerns about this doc!

WOR is a SFW project written for an older audience (target 18-25+ and older, within the New Adult range). Since I'm targeting this to an adult audience, WOR will have mature and dark themes. This will likely affect how people create fan content for it.

What's okay:

Fanart, fanfiction, AUs, shipping, gijnka/humanizations, and crossovers are fine! For tagging, WOR exclusive fanart should be #worldofrelics #riseofrelics #themundanerealm, and #objectxenofiction! For OSC crossovers, it's fine to tag with #objectshowcommunity.

I'm fine with people having comfort or kinned characters. I only ask not to kin or use my objectsona, Menathrenna, as a comfort character.

Headcanons and theories are fine as long as they are respectful, but please don't harass me if WOR's story does not live up to them.

I'm a bit okay with askblogs, public RPs, and AUs with some limitations: Please be clear that they are not a part of WOR's cannon. Don't use my objectsona Menathrenna for RP or askblogs.

Please don't create content farm media off of anything World of Relics.

Quick note on my objectsona, Menathrenna:

Menathrenna (she/they) is my objectsona representing me in WOR's worldbuilding. She is a living cloak from the kingdom of Jornod who lives in the "current era" of The Mundane Realm's setting. Her lore is open-ended to allow for more flexibility in the stories and situations I place her in. Menathrenna also shares a few of my traits, one of which is my autosexuality. This is represented by Menathrenna's living reflection, Mirror!Mena, an entity created by the Mirrorfolk. Mirror!Mena has a similar personality and mannerisms as the original Menathrenna.

I'm fine with fanart and fanfiction of Menathrenna and her adventures, but please don't create shipping art of her with other characters or create 18+ art of her.

Shipping

[8/24/2025] - I know I can't control how adults in fandoms create or explore sexual themes in their fan creations, all I ask is that you tag responsibly whatever your interests and kinks are for others to either mute or block these same tags.

This update is to make sure my concerns about "problematic content" is not taken advantage of by certain censorship-happy political groups. Censorship does not protect children and victims, it only suppresses all content endlessly. Groups like Collective Shout have allowed the censorship of completely legal content in both SFW and NSFW spaces on Itch.io and Steam. Yes, some have "problematic content". However, such content was created consensually by adults who acknowledge the distinction between fictional/fantasy concepts and real world harm. To equate these two only confuses and endangers those who have faced IRL harm or who use these works as a space to cope with what they have gone through. While I disagree with pro-ship content, I do not support any censorship of this content as censorship will only grow and take and destroy even works I don't find problematic. Even squeaky clean works with no dark or sexual elements are at risk of censorship.

Please for anyone, call your payment processors to stop censoring NSFW content.

Amasui/Selfcest ships (ships with mirrored/clone/alternate universe versions of themselves) are fine.

Toxic, messy, complicated characters and relationships: fine as long as the characters are adults. Remember, no relationship out there is perfect, and problematic behavior between flawed people is inevitable!

18+ NSFW fanworks

Please see this guide on setting filters for 18+ content.

If people do work on 18+ fanart, don't harass them! Just let them know if they have things improperly tagged or if they don't have sensitivity filters on their posts. Block if you don't want to see 18+ fanart and mute alt tags.

Please do not send or tag me any 18+ fanwork to me. I do not consent to unsolicited advances. Please don't create 18+ art of my fanart or object ocs owned by other artists. This will earn you a permanent block. Should this happen, I will warn the other artist so that they will protect themselves, too.
