

Hello there
It's me
Your lovely host
Sangria
And I feel like it's time
We relax a bit
Take a dip
In some nice water
Pull out a good pooltoy
Or perhaps
You would like to be the pooltoy
I'm sure we can work something out
But for now
Relax for me

(Induction)

Breath in for me
Deeper and deeper
As you do
You feel
Lighter
Almost like you could float around
Just keep breathing for me for now
Though if one were to feel
One might notice their skin is
Softer then usual
Smoother then usual
You also don't remember your hands being this, round
This nubby
As you breath
You feel every breath
Build up
Inside you
You feel yourself
Puffing up
Bigger and bigger
Your smooth skin becoming
Tighter and tighter
It feels good
This feels right
You wanna just lay back
Like your floating in a nice pool

On a nice sunny day
The sound of the water lapping against your soft squeaky latex form
Your limbs
So round and soft
Not a sharp angle in sight
So non threatening
So harmless
Your skin starts to change
Change color
It can be anything you want
Any kind of pattern
Any kind of design
Be what you want to be
Be a cute squeaky pooltoy
Bobbing gently
Up and down
In the small waves
Of the water
Floating care free
In the Crystal blue pool
Your face starts to smooth out
Your features
Becoming simpler
More basic
A painted on grin is what becomes of your mouth
Always happy
Always ready to play
You feel as happy as you look
So soft
And safe
And inviting
As you Bob
Gently in the water
Pooltoys have no cares
Pooltoys have no worries
Pooltoys are always their happiest
In the pool
You feel something start to poke from your side
It pops out with a small thump
It seems to be some kind of plastic valve
Afterall you are a pool toy
And we have to be able to put a little more air in you
The valve pops open

Each breath
Taking in more and more air
We need to be a little bigger
The bigger the better
The more fun you will be
So let's breath
In
And out
In
And out
In and out
Each breath making you
Just a little bigger
But not too big
This is perfect
Your so large
So fun
People will adore such a large toy
As you Bob
Care free
In the blue water
In this lovely sunny day
The sound of moving water
Soothe you
And you can feel like this
Anytime you want
For about an hour or so
All you have to do
Is say
"It's pool time"
To yourself
Do that and then start to breath.
Fill yourself with air
Until your full
And content
But for now
We need to wake up
I'm going to count from 5 to 1
And when you wake you will feel calm and content
5
Such a big soft friend you are 4
Pooltoys don't have cares
