

Now Hiring: 4-H Summer Interns

Youth Development

What is the role of the Summer Intern?

Summer Intern positions are designed to provide hands-on experience for the intern and at the same time provide local and regional Extension Educators with extra needed help during the busy summer season. Positions are contingent on local funding, may be part-time or full-time, vary from 8 to 13 weeks in length, and begin in late-May or early-June. An intern will be assigned one or more projects or focus areas depending on the local need. A sampling of possible project assignments includes and is not limited to:

- Assisting with day and/or resident camps
- Assisting with coordinating county and/or State Fair programs, activities and events
- Assisting regional extension educators and 4-H program coordinators with State Fair registration and planning meetings
- Working with other summer 4-H programs and activities coordinated through a regional center

Who is right for the job?

Candidates must be currently enrolled as an undergraduate college student, may not have completed their undergraduate program, and may not have graduated in the spring of 2023. The completion of at least two years of college is preferred.

Application Information:

The online application process, job description, and list of locations is available at z.umn.edu/4hsummerintern. Positions will remain open until filled, with preference given to candidates who apply by December 20.
