

Class E Class Contract
Norms	Supportive Student Behaviors	Supportive Teacher Behaviors
Listen Respectfully	Listen and focus on the speaker No side conversations Avoid distractions Turn towards speaker	Avoid side conversations Focus on student voices Give gentle reminders
Take responsibility for your actions	Admitting mistakes Apologizing Be genuine It's never too late to fix a mistake	Accept apologies Move on after mistakes Give students time before confronting them Explain their mistakes
Celebrate success	Say good job Give a pat on the back Be supportive	Use rewards for good work Let the class know when they do well
Discuss ideas respectfully	One person talks at at time Everyone listens Don't shut down ideas immediately Listen to everyone	Support and consider all ideas Listen to everyone
Be enthusiastic	Participate in class Smile Compliment your classmates Have a good attitude	Express your own positive attitude Be a role model
Have a sense of humor	Have appropriate jokes Laugh along Don't be uptight	Make jokes while teaching Laugh with your students
Not knowing is okay	Raise your hand Be curious Ask questions Don't give up Don't judge others if they don't know something	Offer help Slow down when needed Observe students carefully Don't embarrass students Answer all questions
Use evidence when you agree or disagree	Be supportive even when you disagree Make sure your evidence is from a good source Speak kindly Explain yourself clearly	Listen Avoid condescension Be supportive even if you disagree Give a chance for everyone to share their ideas

The above norms, chosen by us, represent the classroom community that we want to create and will facilitate the best teaching and learning environment for everyone. In signing we agree to follow these expected behaviors to the best of our ability.