

Stony Zine: FAQs

Before reading, please check out our Project Details post for an overview of the project as well as information about hosting and contributors.

1. What's a zine?

A collection of works united by a common theme and printed together in a book/booklet.

2. What is this zine about?

The popular Marvel/Avengers ship, Steve Rogers and Tony Stark, also known as Stony or SteveTony. The zine will be centered on art and writing, with artists and writers collaborating on their creations (big-bang and reverse-bang style). There will also be some standalone pieces and comics.

3. Is there a theme?

Steve and Tony across the multiverse. No matter what universe they live in, they always find their way back to each other. The zine will be open to works in many Marvel universes as well as alternate universes such as domestic, college, soulmate, etc.

4. What about crossovers?

Unfortunately, we won't be allowing crossovers (such as Marvel x Harry Potter or Marvel x Star Wars) as they usually need more space to be fleshed out and might convolute the theme.

5. Can we include other ships in our pieces?

Other side ships will be completely fine as long as Steve and Tony remain the focus!

6. Will this zine be physical or digital?

A physical zine, with a digital PDF also available.

7. What are the specs for the zine?

Specifications are still being discussed and will be shared at a later time!

8. Who are the organizers/moderators?

Introductions and social media information of all the mods can be found at: <https://stevetonyzine.tumblr.com/post/188533506513/moderators>

9. How many contributors will be accepted?

We are hoping to accept a total of: 20-25 writers, 27-32 artists, 5 merch artists, and 20 pinch-hitters. Contributors will be organized in physical and digital-only content. For more information, check out our Project Details post.

10. When do applications open?

Applications will run from October 25th to ~~December 1st~~ December 15th.

11. Where will sales be hosted?

We are planning on using kickstarter to produce and sell the zine.

12. Is this a for-profit or nonprofit project?

All profits will go towards producing the book and merch, with additional funds possibly producing extra copies for charity. For more info, check out Project Details.

13. Will contributors be compensated in any way?

Yes! All contributors will receive a free copy of the zine. Merch artists will be provided one free copy of their merch item. Beyond that. All merch will be offered to contributors at a discounted/manufacturing cost. We might be able to provide free merch copies for all contributors if a specified stretch goal is met. Specific info will be provided to contributors upon acceptance.

14. Will NSFW works be allowed?

NSFW works will not be included in the main zine so that it's inclusive to all audiences. However, if contributors are interested, we might create a NSFW booklet as an add-on item for those who are over 18.

15. What is the schedule for the zine?
