

October and November 2024: Opportunities to Connect With in Your Community

October 11: Yom Kippur – The Jewish Day of Atonement, emphasizing the importance of repentance and forgiveness, sparking conversations about these universal themes across different faiths.

October 11: National Coming Out Day – A day to celebrate coming out as LGBTQ+, encouraging discussions about the varying challenges and triumphs experienced in different cultural settings.

October 16: Bosses' Day – A day to acknowledge leadership in the workplace, serving as an entry point to discuss power dynamics and equitable management styles.

November 2024 Diversity Calendar 2024

November 1: Diwali – The Hindu Festival of Lights, a celebration of good over evil that offers a vibrant lens into the richness of Indian culture while inspiring conversations about the universal theme of hope.

November 2: Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) – A Mexican tradition celebrating deceased loved ones, sparking conversations about how different cultures approach death and remembrance.

November 20: Transgender Day of Remembrance – A solemn day to memorialize those lost to anti-transgender violence, advocating for safer and more inclusive environments.

November 25: International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women – A global day to combat gender-based violence, emphasizing the pressing need for collective action and intersectional feminism.