Welcome to Trade With Anna

Your Free Futures Trading Starter Guide

🙏🏾

Hey! I'm so glad you're here. This guide will get you set up and ready before we dive into the free course. Read this in full — it'll take less than 5 minutes and will save you a lot of confusion later.

Step 1 — Join the Daily Live Trading VIP community

This is where we go live together and trade NY session Monday-Friday.

👉🏾 Join the VIP community here

Step 2 — Set Up Your Trading Platform

Sign up for your trading account here:

👉🏾 Sign Up and Receive a BONUS

Important: You do NOT need to deposit any money right now. There is a free demo account funded with $50,000 virtual money so you can practice everything we cover in the course risk free.

When setting up your demo account — make sure you set the amount to $50,000 and your leverage 1:100.

Step 3 — Set Up TradingView

This is the charting platform we use in every single session. It's completely free.

👉🏾 Sign up for TradingView here

Step 4 — Join the Free Discord Community

This is where we connect, share trades, ask questions, and grow together.

Step 5 — Bookmark Your News Calendar

Before you ever open a chart — check the news first. This tells you what economic events are happening that could move the market.

Bookmark this link right now. Check it every single day before you trade.

A Few Important Reminders

• How much should you deposit when you're ready? That is completely up to you. A good starting point is $500 — but only money you can afford to lose.

• Trading is risky. You will lose trades. That is part of the process. Please do not trade with bill money or money you cannot afford to lose. There are no guarantees of profit — anyone who tells you otherwise is lying.

• Use wise, Godly, biblical money principles. Be smart. Be patient. Trust the process. 🙏🏾

Quick Tips to Remember

• Always check the news calendar BEFORE you open a chart
• Always double check the amount you're trading before placing a trade
• Always double check your timeframe before placing a trade
• More tips are covered every Sunday in the free course — make sure you're subscribed
