

Aries teams love Florida

We arrived here early to the Awesome Aries, lost Wildcats and Dangerous teams gym a couple of weeks following the latest UCC event from Florida which proved to be a pretty successful for the Awesome Aries team while the Hot and the Dangerous and Lost Wildcats team both had pretty good events but not what they wanted. We arrived here after getting word that the three stables took a few extra days for some sun and some needed rest time before they got back into some serious competition. We understand that there is the unsanctioned Baby oil competition and the next UCC event which will be another Tournament Series event that should be a really good event. Because we are so early, we have only seen a couple of girls show up, mainly Laura Marano and her training partners Mallory James Mahoney and Lauren Donzis. For at least the first hour or so, they have been the only ones who have shown up early but we hope the rest show up soon so that we can get an update of some sort or another.

Inside the facility, the three training partners had changed into gym shorts and tank tops and were in the gym warming up.

Laura: Mallory you know what you are going to work on, give me a minute with Lauren and we will join you.

Mallory headed off to do some light lifting work and left Laura with Lauren.

Lauren: So what's up Laura. I thought we would all get to work on some weights.

Laura: Sorry Lauren, I have other thoughts for you, I want you to take three laps around the track and then you can join us

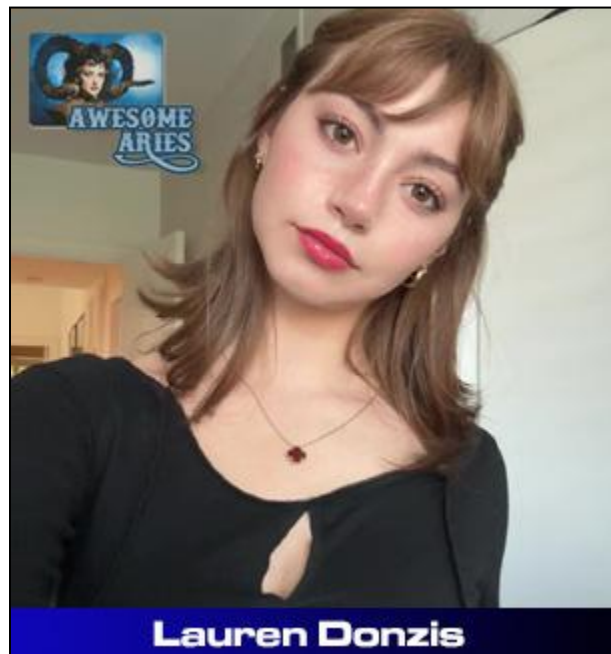

Lauren: What's this for, are you trying to discipline me for something or are you afraid that I am catching up to you in talent and you know that I can beat you.

Laura: Just do it Lauren, It doesn't matter what my intentions are. Our leaders wanted me to train you so I have been doing that. If you have a problem with that, then you should find someone else to train you.

Lauren: I knew it, you are afraid of me, we both know now that I can beat you,

Laura: I am not afraid of you Lauren, You are unprofessional and with limited skills and we both know that you don't have the experience or skills to beat me.

Lauren got up in Laura's face and the two glared nails at one another as the tension rose.

Lauren: You know Laura there is just you and me here, why don't we just settle this woman to woman and then we will know who is better.

Laura: I have to work with Mallory. Just do what I told you to do.

Laura turned to head over to Mallory and Lauren decided it was time to settle it. Lauren leaped at Laura and punched her boldly in the back. Laura stumbled forward a step but caught her balance and turned on Lauren throwing a lightning quick slap at Miss Donzis. Lauren threw a slap at Laura and the two latched onto one another clawing violently at one another's hair. The two stumbled a bit before they both unloaded a couple of punches and toppled against some lockers. Lauren brought up a knee into Laura's midsection and slammed her head into the lockers. Laura stumbled more and Lauren caught her by the hair and began dragging her back towards the locker room. Mallory finally saw what was happening but didn't really understand so she stayed working but didn't see Lauren throw Laura head first towards the locker room door.

The door burst open on contact and Lauren followed Laura into the locker room. Laura had a brief second to recover and drove into Lauren, tackling her around the midsection. Lauren fell back into one of the toilets where Laura hammered Lauren with a series of punches to Lauren's upper body. Lauren fought back with her feet kicking Laura in the thighs, forcing Laura to stagger back out of the toilet. Lauren followed her and the two latched onto one another's hair. Laura redirected her hands into Lauren's top and promptly yanked it off as she used the top to throw Lauren through another room.

Lauren, wearing just her sports bra, fell back against the sinks and managed to turn the water on as Laura charged back in attempting to choke Lauren with her tank top. Lauren held onto Laura's wrists and the two struggled briefly before Lauren drove another knee into Laura's midsection and pulled her by the hair into the sink. Laura flailed and struggled sending water in all directions.

Mallory, after hearing screams of rage and violence rushed to see what was going on and had to duck out of the way to keep from being jammed against the door to the showers. Mallory wisely backed away realizing she could not separate her two friends and watched as the two fell back into the shower room where the brawl continued and a couple of the showers got turned on. Both girls were quickly drenched to the bone but neither was done fighting as they fell to the shower floor and began twisting and rolling around. Both girls with little to grab onto used their fingers to claw at one another and deliver several bloody scratches.

By this time Mallory had run out of the gym to the parking lot where Daniela Hantuchova had just arrived and Mallory motioned for her to come help. Daniela, not sure what was happening but knew it wasn't good motioned for the interviewers to stay back and she rushed in following Mallory. By the time Daniela had found the two, Laura had wrestled on top of Lauren and landed a couple of vicious backhand slaps to Lauren's face and chest. Daniela motioned for Mallory to help and Mallory grabbed Laura and tried to pull her off of Lauren.

Before Daniela could grab Lauren. Miss Donzis suddenly lunged at Laura and tackled Laura into Mallory, sending all three to the now soaked floor. Daniela was calling for help as the wild fight continued but there was no one else out there. Laura and Lauren, already soaked from the shower, were hard to handle and Mallory and Daniela became soaked as they tried to separate the two Aries fighters.

This went on for another 5 minutes before help finally arrived in the form of Katharine McPhee and Michelle Yeoh and the two fighters were finally separated. Daniela was not happy and ordered Laura and Lauren to get cleaned up and dried off along with Mallory and with Michelle watching over the three they cleaned up without a word between the girls. Katharine helped Daniela and they got the water turned off and had a couple of the other girls who came in to help clean up and get the water mopped up.

Luckily for Lauren and Laura, the Boss was not supposed to arrive for another hour or so and Daniela was able to get settled down and talked with Katharine, Michelle Stafford and Michelle Yeoh who in return took Mallory, Lauren and Laura into separate offices to discuss what had happened.

Back outside the other team members had arrived and were making their way into the building which by then had been cleaned up and wiped down.

Vanessa Marano: Does anyone know where my sister is? She is supposed to be here, she told me that she was coming in early to work with Lauren and Mallory.

Kelsey Chow: I don't know Vanessa let's go find one of our leaders maybe they know.

About that time Daniela came out of her office and she motioned for Vanessa and Kelsey into her office.

Daniela: Vanessa do you have any idea what your sister has been doing or planning.

Vanessa: All I know is that she has been training for her Oil match with Dove and that is all I know. Has something happened to her?

Daniela: No not in that aspect of things

Kelsey: What is going on Dani, we are confused and a little concerned.

Daniela: You are about to find out, head to the conference room. We have some things to discuss before the Boss gets here.

Ten minutes later the three stables have gathered in the conference room with the exception of Laura, Lauren, and Mallory

Katharine: Okay ladies, it's time for some brass tax. We have a situation that is out of control and we need to hang together. We are at war with the Barbies and the Wannabees and probably other teams that have not stepped into the battle but they soon might. We are tired of all of this fighting among ourselves, it's over. From here on if you have a squabble with a teammate, bring it to us and we will discuss what to do and how to settle it.

Kelsey: Come on. We need more than that.

Vanessa: And where is Laura?

Daniela: Don't worry about them. They are now in talks with the Boss.

Vanessa got up to walk away,

Daniela: Vanessa, sit down now. We are not going to discuss this right now. All you need to know is there was a situation and when the Boss is done you can talk to him if you need to.

Vanessa: Daniela, she is my sister. I need more than that because she is talking to the Boss. Is she okay? Is she hurt? Is she fired?

Daniela: She is fine Vanessa Not fired yet but after the Boss is done, well who knows. For now we need to put on good faces and get our TKO representatives in here so we can talk to them. Nothing is to be said about anything. It will all come out eventually but now we need to show solidarity among our ranks.

With that the press is let in and all put on their best faces.

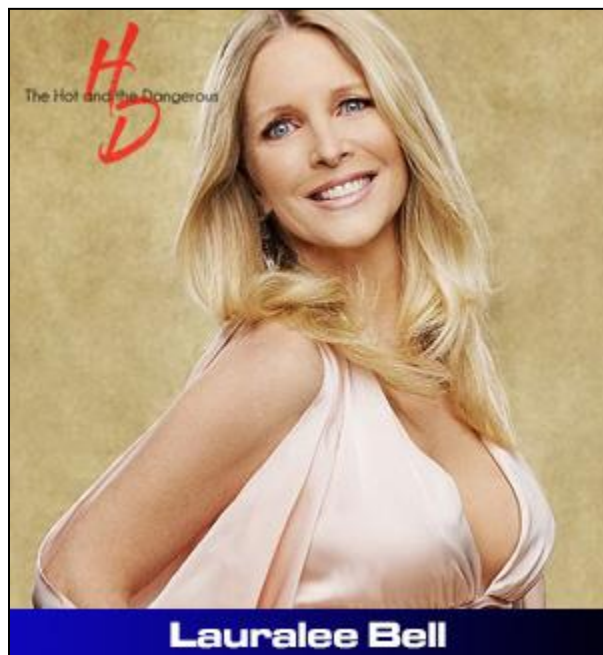

Michelle Stafford is first up.

Michelle: Hello our fans we had an interesting night in Florida and took some time off for some sun before getting back to the grind. There are a couple still taking some time off before our next couple of events. My team had a pretty good record coming out of that event with a record of 10-8.

We had a lot of stars step up at this event and we want to recognize their efforts. Cait Fairbanks, Emme Rylan, Kelli Goss, Laura Wright, Lauralee Bell, Sasha Calle, Sharon Case, Tracey Bregman and Vail Bloom all had victories at Florida. I think that without a doubt in my mind, Cait Fairbanks' win over Dakota Fanning might have been one of the best matches for our team.

Those two fought incredibly hard and it was touch and go before Cait just waylaid Dakota with a brutal series of punches in the 4th round. I will now turn it over to my colleague Daniela for her report from the Aries stable.

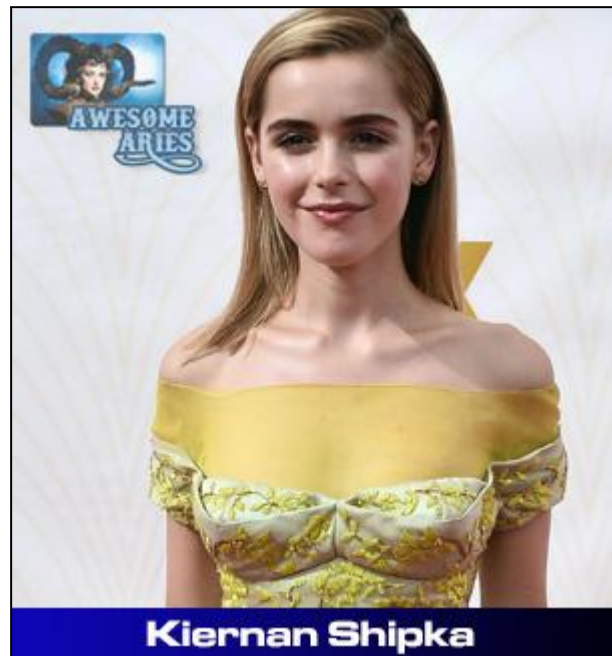

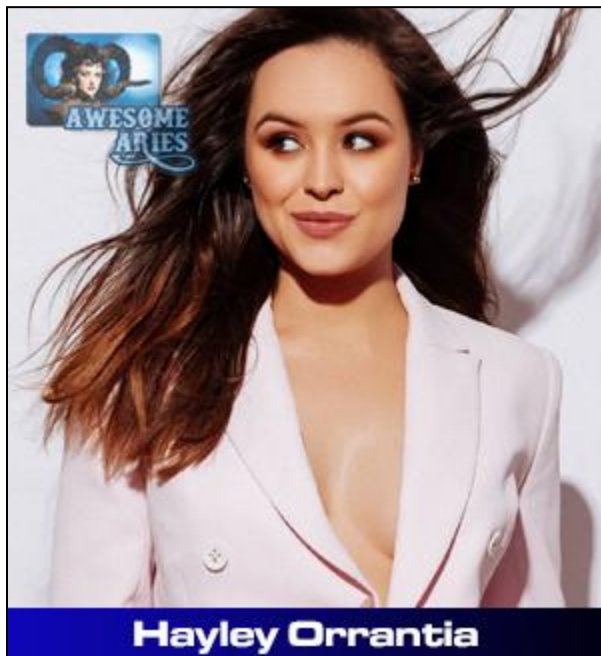

Daniela: Thank you Michelle, you failed to mention that you had a pretty good win yourself. Anyway this may have been our best event in a long time, we scored 19 out of 29 victories.

We had a couple of our stars struggle though with Ai Miyazato and Chloe Moretz suffering losses but we are not overly concerned because we know that both will get back to winning ways. Of the 19 victories we had girls like Laura Marano, Ariana Grande, Harumi Nemoto, Keri Russell and Kristen Bell score pretty good victories while girls who have struggled previously like Bailee Madison, Hayley Orrantia, Amanda Seyfried, AJ Cook, Kelsey Chow, Kiernan Shipka and Lauren Donzis had some surprising victories.

There were others like Mallory James Mahoney, Rachel McAdams, and Peyton Elizabeth Lee who had nice victories as well. My favorite of the night has to be McKayla Maroney taking down Emma Stone in a terrific 5 round bout where McKayla used her incredible legs to KO Miss Stone.

With that I now turn it over to my friend Katharine.

Katharine McPhee: Thanks Michelle and Dani, The Lost Wildcats were not as prosperous and the Aries and Dangerous girls. Out of our 28 battles we had 12 big victories. Alexandra Raisman, Ashley Benson, Brenda Song, Jennifer Garner, Josie Maran, Kuuchan, Lindsay Lohan, Meg Donnelly, Sarah Michelle Gellar, Shailene Woodley, Skai Jackson, and Sofia Wylie all scored top notch victories.

I give my star of the night to Sofia Wylie who looked absolutely incredible with her Unanimous Decision victory over Camilla Morrone. All of my girls showed a ton of spunk and skill. Katherine McNamara in a loss for instance was incredible and should have won her match but she just couldn't overcome a very slow start and suffered a 4th round KO.

There were others, Madeline Zima, Miranda Cosgrove and Troian Bellisario suffered losses but they have all been training incredibly hard. We hope to see them back again in the winners circle very soon. Anyway that is all we have for now, Join us again later as we take on the Oil Pit and the next Tournament series.

No questions right now, We hope to have more very soon.

The reporters all called out questions, most wanting to know where Laura was but no one was going to respond as the Conference room cleared.

The three leaders were joined by Michelle Yeoh who had been with the Boss talking to Mallory, Lauren and Laura.

Daniela: Okay Michelle fill us in. What is the Boss going to do about this situation?

Michelle: Well for starters, Our Christmas and 1st of the year break will not come soon enough to send us back to the farm to work on teamwork. He is not happy with Laura and Lauren. He didn't seem to care that they beat one another pretty badly, but his concern was for injury to others like Mallory. He told me to let you all know to plan to go back to the farm for Christmas break if there are any more incidents. As for Miss Marano and Miss Donzis they did a lot of damage to one another, Lauren has a busted lip, a black eye and a lot of bruises and scratches. Laura is not much better off with a black eye, and she was taken to the hospital to have her nose looked at. Both are all scratched up and a lot of bruises. I can see both working on recovery efforts for at least a week.

Daniela: I hope that doesn't interfere with her preparation for Dove. That will be Laura's toughest match ever. Either way Laura will have to suffer through this. We will see what happens from here.
