

Resource: A Template Demographic Battery for Psychological Research

By: Kelly Dixon, M.A.

UCCS Psychology Diversity Committee member Kelly Dixon has developed a DEI identity demographics template for research. This brief battery was designed in alignment with current psychosocial research, APA guidelines, and best-practice recommendations. Care was also taken to utilize findings of the OMB Census Bureau's research on identity-based demographic assessment, and to ensure that the categories encapsulated by each demographic question fulfill reporting requirements as specified by NIH, NIMH, and other major funding entities. This DEI identity demographics template is available for use below. Please feel free to download, modify, and use this template as you build out research studies!
