He claimed he wanted to break free

2.

He asked me how many roads a man had to walk down before you called him a man

3.

He told us to imagine there was no heaven; he said that it was easy if we tried 4.

He said he believed in miracles and asked where she was from; then he called her sexy thing.

5.

She said they had tried to make her go to rehab and she had repeated no, no, no

6.

He said somebody had once told him the world was going to roll him

7.

She said every night in her dreams, she saw him, she felt him

8.

He told us that in the town where he had been born had lived a man who had sailed to sea

9.

She admitted that at first she had been afraid, and added that she had been petrified

10.

She said that she would tell us what she wanted, what she really really wanted 11.

He told us to get up, to stand up, to stand up for our rights

12.

She said she had been cheated by him since she didn't know when 13.

She said that if she had been a boy, even just for a day, she would have rolled out of bed in the morning

14.

He said he used to rule the world

15.

She said she had kissed a girl and she had liked it

16.

They said they didn't need no education and they didn't need thought control

17.

She told us not to stop the music

18.

He said that the previous day all his troubles had seemed so far away, and then it looked as though they were there to stay
