🌠 SATVRNIAN GRINDER V3 🪐

♑ Mercury in Capricorn ☿

Mercury in Capricorn tries to understand the world by putting everything into its own little compartment. They may be slow and methodical, and they appreciate structure and organization in their life. They are resourceful, but they can easily get overwhelmed if too much information comes at them at once. They need to break the information down into manageable pieces before it is useful.

They are very productive and active mentally, and prefer tasks that end with a tangible result. They can be quite authoritative, and don't like surprises. Mercury in Capricorn does not like people who don't keep promises. They can appear rather judgmental and strict, and they are short on patience with those who don't understand things that seem obvious to them.

They are not frivolous, and they don't like frivolity in others. They are practical in all aspects. They are often skeptical when confronted with something new. They may appear more conservative than they really are. They don't like to waste time or anything else. Planning, however, is important to them. They will take as much time as needed to make sure the plan is foolproof.

Words are chosen carefully by Capricorn Mercury. They don't want to appear foolish, so they may be a bit stiff. Those that appear very natural when making a presentation have probably worried themselves sick over how they would appear.

They are clear thinkers, and may appear rather rigid or narrow minded. They are cautious before committing to anything. They very seldom have anything to regret. While they don't learn too quickly, they retain the knowledge for a long time. They often feel a need to prove themselves.

Capricorn Mercury may appear moody or sulky, and it may take some effort to show enthusiasm. They have a great capacity for concentration and earnestness that makes them appear very serious. They are reliable and responsible, and in bad situations may end up depressed or pessimistic.

Mercury in Capricorn is definitely someone that you can trust to live their beliefs. They often become experts in their field because they are dedicated to learn all they can about their chosen topic. They favor self control, and may have difficulty mingling with others.

Mercury in Capricorn finds history and traditions fascinating. They have a way of melding the old and new into something practical and useful. They really want to leave their mark on the world and stand the test of time. They make good administrators, engineers and excel at anything that is practical and detail oriented.

♄ Saturn's Eye 🪐

During group brainstorming sessions for a project, they'll be the ones that point out the limitations. They like to see the steps to completion, in their mind, before taking on a goal. This Mercury can get lost in pessimism, and have a hard time with intuitive leaps of faith. They want the net to appear before they jump. But being cardinal earth, their solution is to weave the net themselves.

The Capricorn Mercury is fascinated by the legacy of history, and cultural traditions. They may be cautious in their thinking, but not necessarily averse to innovation. They're able to take new ideas and give them form, using an earthbound perspective that seems to reach into the distant past.

They're often driven to leave an enduring mark on the world. They strive to bring ideas into form through institutions, research, works of art, etc that are built to stand the test of time.

Mercury Conjunct Saturn

Mercury conjunct Saturn natal gives a well-structured and disciplined mind. You love applying yourself to mentally challenging tasks and may need this to keep your mind occupied on productive work. The major difficulty with this aspect is a tendency to get in a rut, dwelling on negatives when your mind is left unchallenged or idle.

If negative thinking does take hold, it becomes a structured and persevering thought pattern. Low moods and depression and then possible. You may also have to deal with self-destructive behaviors such as addiction. Other negative Saturn influences on your thinking can include pessimism and fear. Your words may become abrupt, critical and mean. Relationships would then be difficult to maintain, and separations are possible. For example, country music star Tammy Wynette has Mercury conjunct Saturn (0°35′). She sang a lot about loneliness, divorce, and the difficulties of life and relationships.

If, however, you occupy your mind with productive and useful work, the positive nature of Saturn will be reinforced. You will gain a lot of self-respect and esteem by seeing yourself as the responsible one, the master of your field. You may still dwell on serious topics but will be prolific and well-respected as the authority. Your words are more supportive and guiding. Saturn's commitment and longevity can then apply to your relationships.

Positive reinforcement is a useful tool to program your thinking. A credo, personal motto, or other phrases repeated often will instill the efficient, productive, and often brilliant side of this challenging aspect.

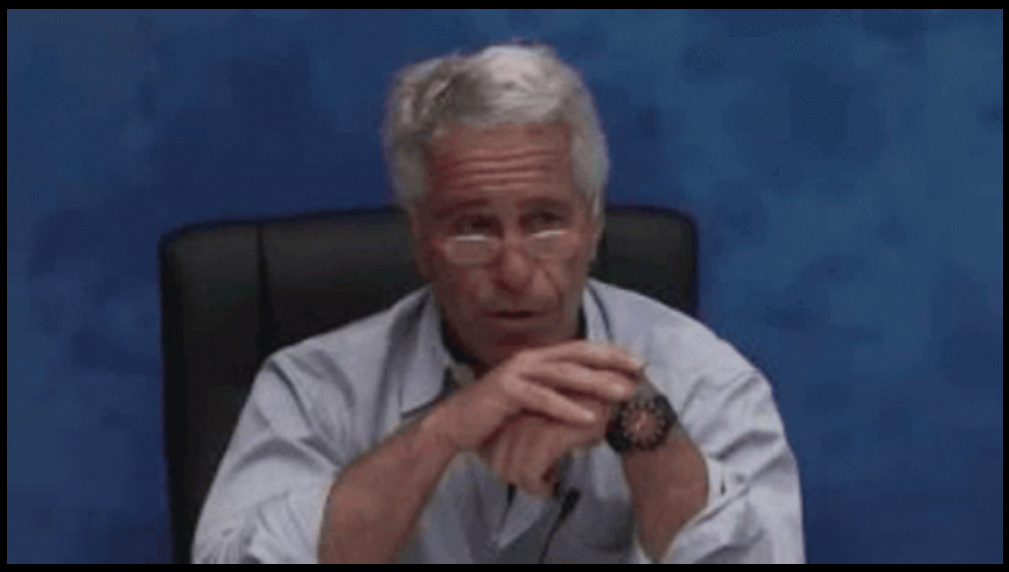

Life Path Number 22 Man

A man with a life path number 22 is self-confident, ambitious and very practical. This is an excellent organizer, he knows how to achieve the fulfillment of any desires. He knows how to surprise and attract attention to himself, is quite capable of beautiful romantic acts. True, she expects from her partner not only understanding, but also submission. In every way he seeks to emphasize his own superiority: he leads a woman, but not the other way round. But careful and deeply devoted to his family. If a woman does not dispute his leadership, life together will be wonderful, devoid of difficulties and difficulties.

Women need to understand that a man with a life path 22 cannot be tied to himself, trying to arouse pity in him. This is a highly organized, intelligent man with dictatorial manners, he was not accustomed to reckon with other people's weaknesses. From the woman he is waiting for compliance with their ideals. If the relationship does not bring him satisfaction, he will most likely try to complete them. However, he can not be accused of cruelty, moderately emotional and even romantic. He just clearly understands what he wants from the relationship. Such a deliberate approach to family life is a matter of respect.

♑ Saturn in Capricorn ♄

If you have Saturn in Capricorn, you are ambitious, self-controlled and you have organizing ability. You can be a disciplined, patient, hard worker who eventually receives the deserved rewards. There is a tendency to take life very seriously and duty and responsibility are very important to you. You understand that time and suffering serve a purpose and that happiness is not the final goal of existence.

You may find it difficult to divide your energies between work and play. You have the ability to translate abstract concepts into concrete terms. You may experience feelings of loneliness and inadequacy and that could be one reason why you tend to work so long and hard. On the negative side, prestige and social standing may be extremely important to you and you will be tempted to do whatever you have to in order to acquire them. Selfishness and a great love and desire for power can also be present.

♒ Uranus in Aquarius ♅

Uranus in Aquarius has great intuitive skills and original ideas. They tend to work towards bettering humanity. They are devoted friends and truly want to help those in need. This unselfish behavior helps them to gain what they want in life. They may also be gifted with mechanical skills.

Aquarius Uranus may also be erratic. They may have difficulties with their choice of friends, who may take advantage of them.

Uranus in Aquarius likes to turn the world upside down. The revolution may be loud or peaceful, but they are part of the action either way. Naturally obliging with a pleasant personality, Aquarius Uranus is popular wherever they go. Some of their core beliefs may be a bit on the eccentric side. They may be very successful in electronics, logistic computers, space technology or anything of a scientific nature.

Aquarius Uranus likes to socialize, and they are naturals at networking. They love to be where the action is. Highly inventive, they can envision what will happen down the road. They can understand complicated social problems and come up with ideas to help ease them. They have a talent for conveying complex ideas to others. Resourceful Aquarius Uranus is a good person to have on your side.

Uranus In Aquarius has the ability to help bring in new technologies and restructure communication. They are very intelligent, yet impersonal and detached. A few may be able to be more compassionate and understand what others are going through. Strong willed, Aquarius Uranus likes to work on their own, but being a loner isn't that bad if you enjoy it. They may use radical approaches to community, and they know how to get people to unite towards a common purpose. This ability to create an integrated whole can help humanity move forward. Working with obsolete social systems can really frustrate them.

♑ Ceres in Capricorn ♀

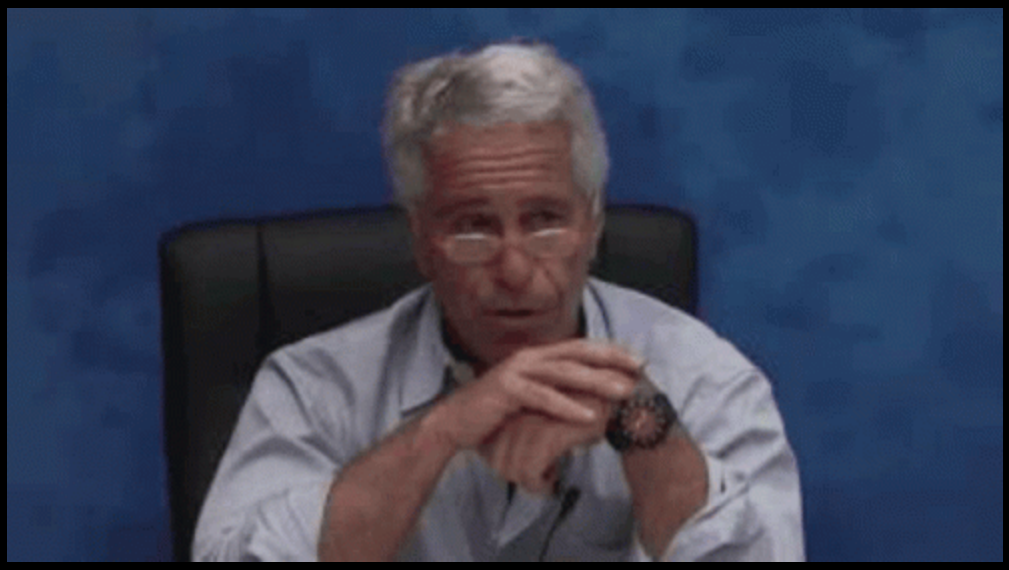

Ceres In Capricorn feels nurtured when they are organized and in control. They help others learn how to succeed. They take great comfort in every achievement they make. They have learned to take responsibility, now they will teach this to others. When stressed they can be overly dependent on their status in an effort to make themselves feel better. Surprises turn their world upside down. Goal setting and working hard is more their thing. They try their best to get others to realize how beneficial this path is to meeting your goals. It is hard for them to accept themselves sometimes. They equate feeling loved with how well they perform in life.

Ceres Conjunct Saturn

The conjunction of Ceres and Saturn brings together the energies of nurturing and structure, creating a dynamic interplay between growth and responsibility. This celestial alignment holds significance in various aspects of astrology, including synastry, composite charts, transits, and natal charts. By examining the interactions between Ceres and Saturn in these different contexts, we can gain a clearer understanding of the impact they have on our lives and relationships.

☿ Vesta in Capricorn ♑

Vesta in Capricorn is devoted to history and duty. They believe in discipline and obligations. They are organized and capable of great accomplishment. They expect others to share their commitment. They feel responsible so they are willing to sacrifice themselves for duty and security. If they can't measure up they feel terribly guilty. They do not challenge authority as long as they feel the authorities are capable of handling their job. They are good at planning and persistence. They work from within. They can make excellent leaders, but they are very self critical.

MOON ENERGY UPGRADES

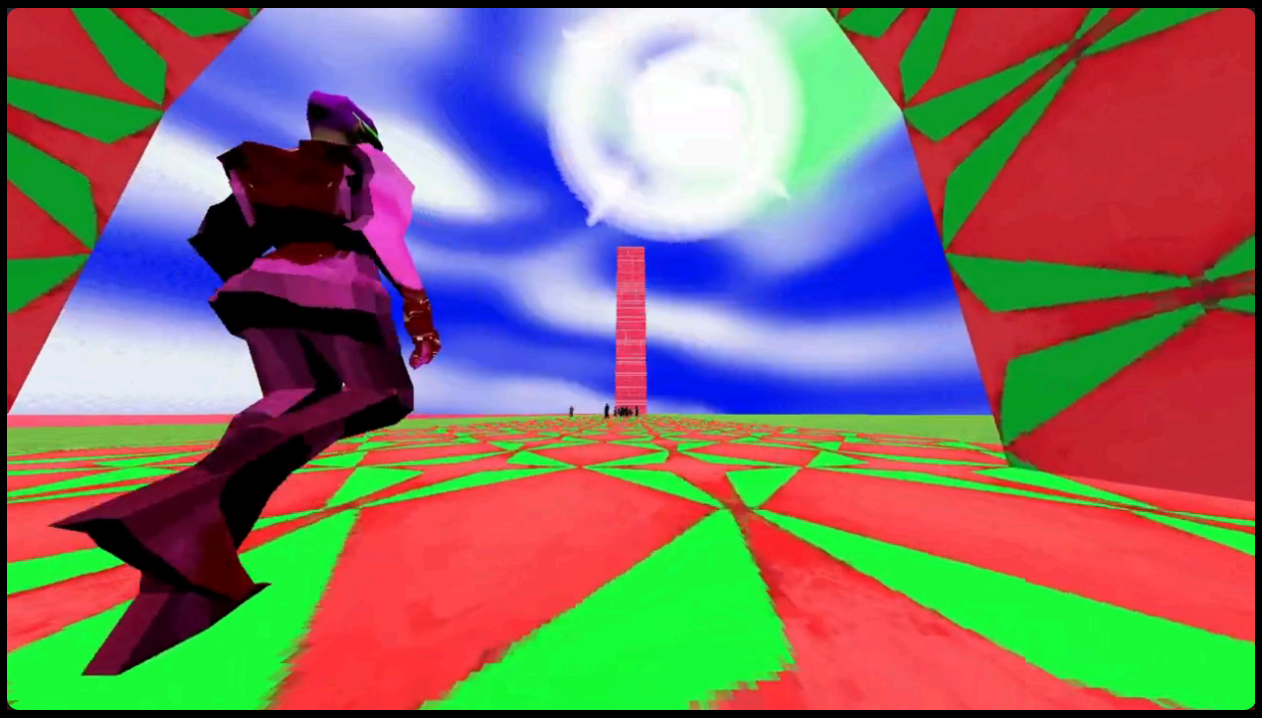

♌ Full Moon in Leo 🌕

The full moon in the Leo sign gives a powerful charge of optimism – life is good and life is good. Gloomy thoughts recede, the soul is filled with joy. The future inspires bright prospects, promises a lot of pleasant surprises. Interest in beautiful clothes is growing, I want to dress up, adorn myself with exquisite accessories. Nothing vulgar and vulgar, only the most expensive and fashionable things. This is a time of amazing reincarnations, awakening of hidden talents. There will be enough energy for everything: personal life, experiments with appearance, work. The only thing that can become an obstacle in business is excessive ambition. It is difficult to restrain emotions, ambitions go off scale, conflict situations are likely.

Meaning of the Full Moon in Leo

Leo is a Fire sign under the auspices of the Sun ☉. The planet-ruler has powerful energy and strength, endows its wards with a stormy temperament, inexhaustible love of life. When the Moon is in the sign of Leo, these features are amplified many times over. The level of aggression decreases, the atmosphere of celebration and fun reigns everywhere. Creativity is manifested most vividly, all sorts of ideas come to mind, which are clothed in the form of beautiful words. This is a truly magical time when any dreams come true, and problems evaporate as if by themselves. It remains only to enjoy how well everything is going. For happiness, not so much is needed: everything and more.

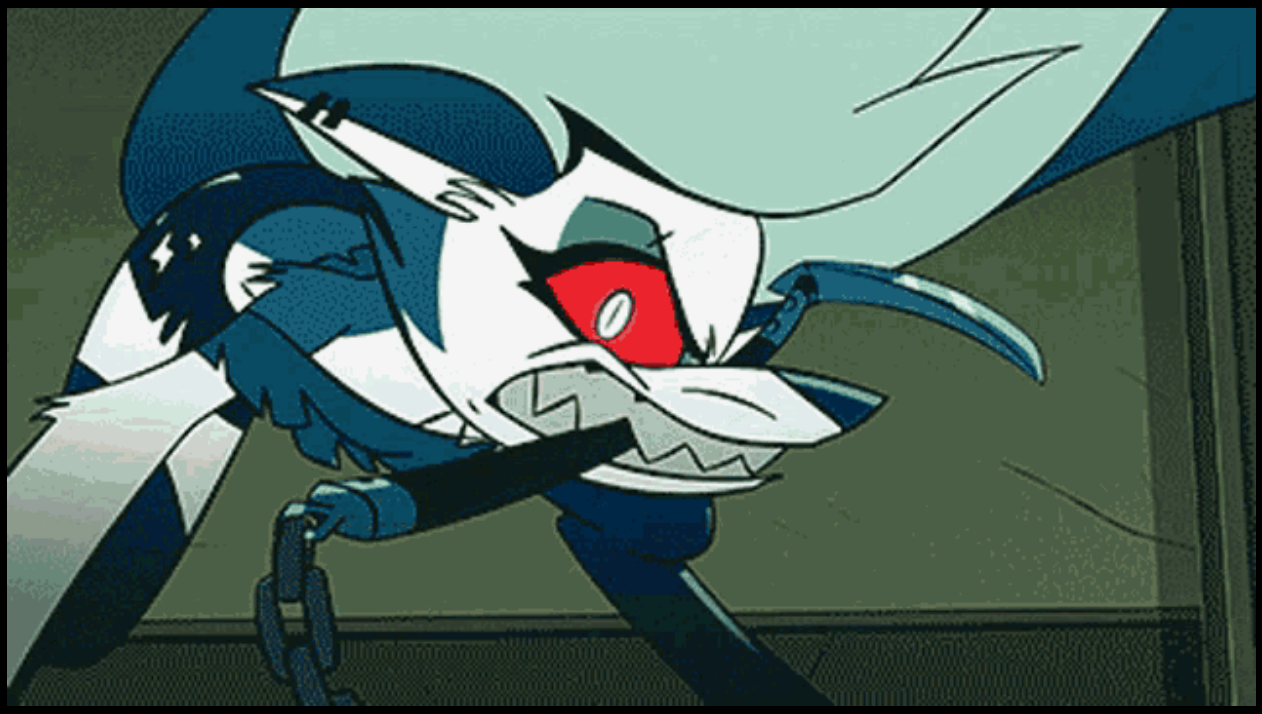

On the full moon of Leo, life appears in pink. Problems recede into the background, the head is occupied only with pleasant thoughts. Dating is easy, relationships are just fine, but there is a risk of overdoing it with delight. During this period, you can do anything, success is everywhere. However, you should not think that you will not have to pay for luck. Time is fleeting, euphoria can change with disappointment, activity – with a sharp decline in strength. You should use your energy sparingly. Instead of having fun, take advantage of the full moon in Leo. Try to promote your project, enlist the support of higher officials.

The great advantage of the full moon in the Leo zodiac sign lies in a positive emotional background: events are perceived only from the positive side. Let it be a little unlucky now, but there are still so many good things ahead. It becomes easy in my soul, I want to believe in my strength, to act actively to change my life for the better. This is a good time to find a new job, a soul mate. Any endeavors will be successful, you can make a favorable impression. Emotions are bright, thoughts are quick, manners are impeccable, and most importantly, a sea of optimism – it is impossible to resist such a charm. Anything that previously seemed like a pipe dream can come true, if only you are not lazy.

Under the influence of the full moon in Leo, character traits such as boastfulness, narcissism, and arrogance can increase. People become more selfish, self-centered, and the need for attention increases. I want to be in full view all the time, hear compliments and bathe in the rays of glory. There can be nothing worse than being alone. Criticism and remarks are perceived as an insult: sweet flattery is better than bitter truth. All efforts are directed towards achieving universal acceptance. Due to authority, unwillingness to listen to other people, difficulties in communication may arise. Family quarrels, conflicts at work and a complete break in relations with loved ones are likely.

🏵️ Full Moon in Scorpio 🌕

Scorpio is a water sign with qualities such as fearlessness, belligerence, and self-will. Under the influence of the planet-ruler Pluto ♇, these features are enhanced and become more pronounced. The Moon in Scorpio gives powerful energy, the ability to change the surrounding reality. However, not everyone can cope with the gift received. The level of aggression in society increases, people are cautious and distrustful. It is almost impossible to reach mutual understanding: emotions are overwhelming. Sexual attraction intensifies, feelings sharpen, passion is in the air. Love relationships are a great way to shed excess energy if you keep jealousy in check.

For inquisitive people, inclined to research, the full moon in the sign of Scorpio is an auspicious period that promises good luck in any endeavors. The air sparks with tension, the energy overflows and makes you move forward. There are no unsolvable problems, things are done easily and simply. Courage, fearlessness, purposefulness are qualities that contribute to success. At the same time, one should not forget about hard work, without diligence and hard work nothing will work. In addition, intuition cannot be ignored, on the full moon of Scorpio it is especially strong: instincts rule the world. In general, this is a difficult period, testing strength. You should not indulge your weaknesses, make gross mistakes – the strongest wins.

Dreaming and Spiritual Practices

The Full moon of Scorpio is a mystical time, interest in everything secret is growing. Even familiar things are seen in a new light. Intuition is strengthened so much that the future is no longer hazy. Dreams contain important clues, you just need to decipher them correctly. Most often, the plot is associated with events taking place in reality. If you are not happy with your intimate life, experiencing complexes, sleep will help correct the situation. An equally relevant topic for the full moon in Scorpio is the financial situation. Quite often in dreams you can see a hint of how best to manage your resources. By the way, you shouldn’t attach importance to nightmares, they just remind you to be honest.

♑ Full Moon in Capricorn 🌕

The full moon in the sign of Capricorn is a time of accomplishments, discoveries and great deeds. People are becoming more rational, invulnerable to external influences. Emotions recede into the background, thoughts acquire special depth and strength. Career growth issues are of great importance: ambitions are off the charts. If earlier there were some problems, the work was not completed on time, during this period everything goes like clockwork. The level of discipline, the desire for order and systematization of information is increasing. There is no time for empty dreams, talk and entertainment. Only a realistic view of things, hard work, focus on the goal. Let there not be enough romance, but how much common sense.

Influence of the Full Moon in Capricorn

The emotional state at the full moon of Capricorn is stable: nothing can surprise and confuse. Actions are clearly calculated, feelings are under control, a mask of friendliness froze on his face. It is difficult to guess what is hidden behind external calmness. People become secretive, they control themselves so well that they seem invulnerable. During this period, professional interests come to the fore, the desire to move up the career ladder. Thoughts are focused on work, so do not expect a violent manifestation of feelings. Probably, mental callousness is a defense mechanism, the body is too vulnerable to stress. Ambitious dreams push forward, there is no time to worry.

Career and Finance

The full moon in Capricorn is the best time to build a career. During this period, a high level of performance is noted. Decisions are made quickly, ideas are easily implemented. Enough strength and patience to follow the developed strategy. There is no spontaneity and haste, all actions are strictly verified. People employed in business, public service, managers of different ranks will feel great: success after success. Emotions do not interfere with the work process, communication with colleagues and partners is going well. It makes sense to start new projects, to promote innovative ideas. The only thing that can interfere with the implementation of the plan is overwork. The race for success is exhausting.

Financially, the full moon in Capricorn is a very good time. A reasonable approach to life and spending guarantees a stable financial situation. Financial transactions will be successful, not a single penny will be wasted. This is a good time for shopping, stock and real estate investments. Moreover, you should not save money, things should be expensive and of high quality. You can buy antiques, furniture, appliances. When it comes to clothing, the classic style is considered preferable. Nothing fancy and uncomfortable. On the full moon of Capricorn, it is better to buy thoughtfully, overgrowing with material values, and not squander your wealth. You can’t lend and borrow money, you still won’t be able to agree.

♒ Full Moon in Aquarius 🌕

The full moon in the Aquarius sign is a time of inner freedom, striving for the future. Only what is of interest matters. Everything material fades into the background. Any framework, rules and authority are rejected: exclusively forward movement and unlimited freedom of choice. Many ideas come to mind, strength appears to solve long-standing problems. The priority is creative work, monotonous activity drives you into depression. An informal atmosphere, friendly communication, laughter, exchange of opinions are the prerequisites for a comfortable existence. It is not worth pinning great hopes on this period. You need to take life lightly, with humor to perceive failures, of which there can be a lot.

Career and Finance

The full moon in the sign of Aquarius promises professional growth, progress in business. The main component of success is the ability to think outside the box, ahead of time. This period is characterized by the rapid development of imagination, an increase in the intellectual level. People are ready for changes, they easily adapt to any conditions. The most original ideas get a chance to come true. Representatives of creative professions, inventors feel a powerful burst of inspiration. You can start new projects, arrange brainstorming. The support of like-minded people is of great importance. On the full moon of Aquarius, the public prevails over the personal, collective work brings the best results.

In financial terms, the full moon in the sign of Aquarius is an unpredictable period, much depends on the willingness to take risks. Good luck accompanies the daredevils who are able to steadfastly perceive any outcome of events. Intuition plays an important role, with its help you can win the lottery. While you shouldn’t get involved in gambling, it’s best to focus your efforts on achieving ambitious goals. This is a good time to invest, formalize contracts, transactions, and borrow money. As for shopping, all purchases without exception will be successful: clothes, cosmetics, household appliances, electronics. You should not skimp on leisure goods. If necessary, you can apply for a loan, the conditions will be favorable.

ASTROLOGICAL UPGRADES:

V3 UPGRADES

8 degree Sun and Moon - Sun and Moon are some of the key and most obvious controllers of our personality, being necessary to live in light and not die of darkness. Mike Tyson had an 8 degree sun and I as another fierce nigga have an 8 degree Moon placement (Leo). In astrological degree theory 8 represents the 8th house, or Scorpio, which is known to be very receptive and fierce internally, stirring a pot as a watery sign. Therefore such a specific placement will make a native embody Scorpio traits on the side, shaping their personality to another depth.

(prime example of eye-to-eye intensity with a Scorpionic aspect)

28 degree Mars - Mars is the expression of warrior-like masculinity, applied to combat, work, war, sports or any other sort of daily activity. Degrees of course apply to this planet just like any other object on one's astrological chart, with 28 being quite an advantageous one. For starters 28 is very significant in numerology, creating revolutionary heroes for the youth from Lebron James to Saddam Hussein. In degree theory, 28 rounds back to the fourth house out of the twelve signs (28 / 2 = 2R4), which is Cancer. Cancers are fucking beasts at crashing out, lying, and reading the room as a water sign, making them master manipulators in the fields of fighting (see Jon Jones, Iron Mike, Conor McGregor and so much more). Both me the beloved Al Capone here have a 28 degree Cancer Mars for example, which he used to be a fucking boss in Chicago and crash out during the St. Valentine's day massacre. This placement does not necessarily include Cancer however, but if you have a Cancer Mars that is not in the 28th degree, this is a big bonus. Scorpio Mars will experience similar benefits as well, a given extra placement in this project.

(this guy knew how to get along with motherfuckers and take it in to continue his game, a very Cancerous trait indeed)

Machiavelli in Virgo - At this point if you're listening to a sub like this you should know what machiavellianism is, as a philosophy of political and social control that every single half-smart politician in the world uses. Niccolo Machiavelli himself was a 15-16th century individual who invented such a greatly effective philosophy, being a politician in Florence.

We all also know about Gemini, which is the out-and-about relative of his other Mercurian cousin, Virgo. Virgo is smart with communication like Gemini, but as an Earth sign, knows how to keep it lowkey. Virgo can make niggas weird in a lot of circumstances, having borderline personality if in the Sun or a weird-ass motherfucker into stuff like furry femdom if in Lilith (busted!), all ultimately relating to dynamics of power with communication in some shape or form. While Virgo may not be ideal in various planets or other asteroids, it is right at home in the asteroid of Machiavelli much like Mercury. When in such a grand position, Machiavelli Virgo can lead to masterful performances of lying without lying, getting your way, all while being lowkey via the inherent feminine energy of the Earth sign.

Look at the yoyo, the pretty (((yoyo)))

Tyrannosaurus in Scorpio - As you can imagine the Tyrannosaurus asteroid is about power, destruction, and being feared by the public, in the fashion of a cool-ass T. Rex. You know who else was a global T. Rex for his time? Adolf Hitler. He had this in the eighth house, terrifying his opps across the world with his ruthless commanding, until some fuckups that my HOI4 player friends can explain better. In all, this is a very revengeance asteroid that will help you on the road to SADIST POWER AND DESTRUCTION.

cool faggot i'm incel i have never felt the love of a bitch in my life. you fucking nigger. i'm stone cold Narcissus in Scorpio - yet another self-explanatory asteroid, for the concept of narcissism. This will give you great confidence in all social situations, and a subtly domineering attitude as well. Conjuct Mars this forms a very strong self-image, essential to becoming successful and getting your way in the world out there. I've never seen someone who acts like a sad cuck 24/7 make it big socially, and neither has anyone else out there. To have such a powerful placement in your chart will take you further in life than you ever thought before, showing others what you're capable of.

☿ Mercury in Gemini ♊

Quick-witted and eclectic, Mercury in Gemini may appear a bit scattered. They have a broad knowledge of many subjects but not too much about any one subject. They learn fast, but because they have so many different interests it is difficult for them to concentrate on a single subject. They also get bored easily. Give Gemini Mercury a stimulating environment and they will be happy.

Speaking of their environment, Mercury in Gemini is very sensitive to what is going on around them. They are very impressionable. They tend to be restless and full of nervous energy. While they tend to be open-minded, logical answers appeal to them. Most of the time intuition is not part of their process. They may come across as too intellectual. Spock was probably a Gemini Mercury. They may appear to be emotionally detached when communicating.

At the same time, Mercury in Gemini can also make an interesting speaker. They are not attached to their own opinions or ideas like Aries Mercury. They adapt well, and are curious about everything. It isn't too difficult to persuade them to change their minds. They can be talented at smooth talking, and may actually be a little deceptive, with a sense of humor. They like to spot weaknesses around them and play with them a bit just because they can.

Mercury in Gemini makes decisions quickly, and they usually turn out well. They enjoy working with language and are good on the phone. It is easy for them to communicate with anyone from all walks of life with ease. Eloquent and engaging, it is hard to be bored with a Gemini Mercury around!

It is difficult for them to shut out external stimulation, however, which can wear on them. They can get overwhelmed and frazzled. They may show signs of irritability or mental confusion. Taking some down time will help them overcome this problem.

Gemini Mercury is a natural witty flirt. Their clever chatting often keeps their partners enthralled. They love to take part in cultural events and enjoy new situations. Their minds are always spinning. They blossom in a stimulating, fast paced environment.

When bored, Gemini Mercury may stir up some trouble or controversy just to make things interesting. They like to play mind games, and are delighted when they find someone who can mentally spar back. They may tend to gossip. A natural at social gatherings, they flit from group to group like a butterfly. They are usually attractive and full of good humor. Mercury in Gemini likes to travel, read, talk and meet new people. They are the original jack of all trades, master of none model. Writing helps them focus better, and many may become journalists or freelance writers.
Idle Hands, the Devil's Workshop

This mercurial character has a dark side, and often makes snap judgements based on superficial information. When the trickster has hidden motives, the brilliance there is put to use in destructive ways. It's a Mercury prone to playing mind games, and when angry, using words as pointy weapons.

A bored Mercury in Gemini will stir up drama, just to make things more interesting. They can be the worst gossips at work or in the hood. Deeper thinkers might dub this Mercury an intellectual lightweight. When this Mercury is idle, without a creative channel, it can be the devil's workshop.

Mercury in Gemini is gifted in many ways. They shine in social situations, because they're genuinely curious about everyone at the party. It's easy for them to mingle, and engage with each new person they meet. They've got a twinkle in the eye that attracts, are quick to laugh, and have an instinct for lightening things up with humor.

♂Mars in Scorpio ♏

Mars in Scorpio gives a very strong will and personal intensity. These people can see through the weaknesses of others. They can make for deadly enemies and have a strong sense of justice. They are vindictive and if someone wrongs them or a loved one, they will exact their revenge, even if it takes years. They do not forget an injustice. They are not ones to openly express their anger, but rather they smoulder. This position gives a talent for concentration, focus and for meditation. They are natural mages and many have a talent for black magic that is inborn, from previous lives.

The sex drive is very strong and pronounced. Energies are focused on passion, spirituality, and occult subjects. When pushed, the anger can be like an overturned wasp's nest. They are possessive and jealous in their affections. They demand total devotion and loyalty in a love relationship. If this is betrayed, they can become deadly. Rarely neutral about anything, they are strongly opinionated and either love something or hate it. The emotions are very deep and intense. These lovers are very sexual and the woman normally attracts men that are tall, dark and mysterious. The Mars in Scorpio loves to be on top. Their erogenous zones are their private parts.

Scorpio Mars Man

Man born with Mars in Scorpio will be the strong silent type, the dark horse. They are mysterious and intimidating. They are very private, confident, and sexy. They are very secretive. There is always something bubbling under the surface that you will NEVER know about. They may seem very shy and quiet. They are usually loners. They don't do well in packs. They are very in touch with their dark side and use it to get what they want.

They possess a lot of power and as a result they don't attract a lot of competition. They are very intimidating and people are usually too scared to go near them. Less sharp people may see their quietness as weakness and may poke the tiger. They often attract less intuitive bully types who only see them for who they are on the surface. They sense some power but they don't believe it so they test them and test them until they finally experience their extreme sting. They always regret it.

Mars in Scorpio is the most aggressive Scorpio position possible. If you think it hurts when a Sun in Scorpio comes back for their revenge, you will not at all be prepared for what a Mars in Scorpio man has to bring. They are out for blood and blood only. They can play really dirty too. Nothing is off bounds or off limits. It can get very ugly with these people. They are not the types to pick fights or enter competitions. But when they are in a fight or competition. They cannot stand to lose and they don't really care how they win, as long as they do.

Mars in Scorpio men are not typically very athletic though they should be. They do great in any type of physical routine that involves focus and deep concentration. They can excel in martial arts, water sports, extreme sports, yoga, gymnastics. Their biggest competition is themselves and they do best when they can constantly push themselves beyond their own limits. They can be daredevils too so they should exercise caution in any sport and don't push themselves too far. Mars in Scorpio is at their best when they can find a routine physical practice they can really excel in. They are so powerful and emotionally balanced when that happens.

Mars in Scorpio man is very loyal in relationships. He can be obsessively loyal, even possessive. He is usually the type to stay committed to one person at a time. They have very focused energy and they can't often successfully convince more than one person of true devotion. They are very sensitive, much more sensitive than they seem and they often get hurt by their lovers.

When this happens it will take them a while but they will cut that person off forever. But they will probably fester and fester about it for a very long while. They may stalk that person and be secretly obsessed for a long while. This negative energy, though, often fuels them in some way, creatively or athletically. They always take their sexual turmoil and use it to boost their own power in some way. Sexual frustration often yields huge creative or financial success in their lives.
