Threats and Extortion against Protected Person under International Law

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

As a direct descendant of the founders of the Constitution for the United States of America and as one of "the Posterity" found in the preamble, by right of blood, I hereby declare;

Lacey Britton is a BAR member and Euless City Magistrate and deemed to know the law.

Lacey Britton knows that properly applying the facts to the law is NOT discretionary (Walker v Packer, 827 S.W.2d 833, 840 (Tex. 1992)) and misapplying the facts to the law in a matter is an abuse of discretion and Official Oppression.

I have reason to believe and do believe that Lacey Britton is sending threats through the mail to a Protected Person under International Law, in violation of 18 USC § 878

(a) Whoever knowingly and willfully threatens to violate section 112, 1116, or 1201 shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, except that imprisonment for a threatened assault shall not exceed three years.

(b) Whoever in connection with any violation of subsection (a) or actual violation of section 112, 1116, or 1201 makes any extortionate demand shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.

(c) For the purpose of this section “foreign official”, “internationally protected person”, “national of the United States”, and “official guest” shall have the same meanings as those provided in section 1116(a) of this title.

(d) If the victim of an offense under subsection (a) is an internationally protected person outside the United States, the United States may exercise jurisdiction over the offense if (1) the victim is a representative, officer, employee, or agent of the United States, (2) an offender is a national of the United States, or (3) an offender is afterwards found in the United States. As used in this subsection, the United States includes all areas under the jurisdiction of the United States including any of the places within the provisions of sections 5 and 7 of this title and section 46501(2) of title 49. 18 USC § 878 Threats and Extortion Against Foreign Officials, Official Guests and Internationally Protected Persons and 18 USC § 11 defines a foreign government as a government, faction, or body of insurgents irrespective of recognition

The term “foreign government”, as used in this title except in sections 112, 878, 970, 1116, and 1201, includes any government, faction, or body of insurgents within a country with which the United States is at peace, irrespective of recognition by the United States. 18 USC § 11 Foreign Government Defined and 18 USC § 878 uses definitions found in 18 USC § 1116(b) and under paragraph (b)(2) the Republic of Texas does NOT need your recognition

(b) For the purposes of this section:

(1) “Family” includes (a) a spouse, parent, brother or sister, child, or person to whom the foreign official or internationally protected person stands in loco parentis, or (b) any other person living in his household and related to the foreign official or internationally protected person by blood or marriage.

(2) “Foreign government” means the government of a foreign country, irrespective of recognition by the United States.

(3) “Foreign official” means—

(A) a Chief of State or the political equivalent, President, Vice President, Prime Minister, Ambassador, Foreign Minister, or other officer of Cabinet rank or above of a foreign government or the chief executive officer of an international organization, or any person who has previously served in such capacity, and any member of his family, while in the United States; and

(B) any person of a foreign nationality who is duly notified to the United States as an officer or employee of a foreign government or international organization, and who is in the United States on official business, and any member of his family whose presence in the United States is in connection with the presence of such officer or employee.

(4) “Internationally protected person” means—

(A) a Chief of State or the political equivalent, head of government, or Foreign Minister whenever such person is in a country other than his own and any member of his family accompanying him; or

(B) any other representative, officer, employee, or agent of the United States Government, a foreign government, or international organization who at the time and place concerned is entitled pursuant to international law to special protection against attack upon his person, freedom, or dignity, and any member of his family then forming part of his household.

(5) “International organization” means a public international organization designated as such pursuant to section 1 of the International Organizations Immunities Act \(22 U.S.C. 288\) or a public organization created pursuant to treaty or other agreement under international law as an instrument through or by which two or more foreign governments engage in some aspect of their conduct of international affairs.

(6) “Official guest” means a citizen or national of a foreign country present in the United States as an official guest of the Government of the United States pursuant to designation as such by the Secretary of State.

(7) “National of the United States” has the meaning prescribed in section 101(a)(22) of the Immigration and Nationality Act \(8 U.S.C. 1101\(a\)\(22\)\). 18 USC 1116(b) Murder or manslaughter of foreign officials, official guests, or internationally protected persons when she enabled Timothy Graham to stop the Demandant for having a Republic of Texas plate on his automobile and the Demandant presented his Republic of Texas Diplomatic Identification card, because the Demandant is a Senator for District 13, was previously speaker of the House of Representatives and a Charge de Affairs, as evidenced by the copy of the Commission, as evidenced in the Euless Police Department Narrative. The Demandant dialed 9-1-1 and demanded the Tarrant County Sheriff to the scene and the call went to the Euless switchboard and Graham's supervisors Sgt Hurtado #357, and Collingwood #626, came to scene as his accomplices, and as evidenced by the police narrative, and the Tarrant County Sheriff refused to come to the scene. The Demandant read to Graham, Hurtado, and Collingwood, parts of Texas Penal Code 39.03 telling them they were engaged in Official Oppression. They are all required to know that the Euless military Police are not authorized to enforce the Texas Transportation Code and they are all required to know that no Officer is authorized to enforce the Transportation Code, after their military Police Officers under instructions from their military Chief of Police, Mike Brown, and their BAR member handlers, Stacy White, and Wayne K Olson, stopped the Demandant for transportation code offenses like having a Republic of Texas plate on an automobile, expired registration, or speeding and their military Police are not authorized to enforce the Texas Transportation Code as evidenced by the email from the Tarrant County Sheriff Public Information Officer, a true copies of some warrant threat Letters, and email are attached hereto, all of each of which are incorporated herein by reference in their entirety, and they dragged the Demandant into their torture chamber jail where they engaged in torture with their forced fingerprinting and forced feeding poisons (medical experiments) and forced identification, and aggravated kidnappings and aggravated assaults, and their threats, and their denials of due process all of which is for revenue for their criminal corporations, the City of Colleyville, the City of North Richland Hills, the City of Grapevine, the City of Lake Worth, the City of Bedford, the City of Euless, the City of Azle, and the City of Fort Worth, and Deer Park Cash Cow, LLC masquerading as State of Texas, and others.
