

The author has used adverbs to create a mood of.....	The author has used adverbs to create a mood of.....	The author has used adverbs to create a mood of.....
Adverb/s - boisterously, vigorously	Adverb/s - confidently, happily,	Adverb/s - firmly, frantically, gradually, uncontrollably
Verb/s - muttered, rubbing	Verb/s - strolled, sing	Verb/s - pressed, thumping, inching, tremping
The author has used boisterously to create the mood of suspense and excitement.	The author has used confidently to create the mood of confidence.	The author has used firmly to create the mood of fear.
The author has used vigorously to create the mood of forceful energy.	The author has used happily to create the mood of happiness.	The author has used frantically to created the mood of suspense
!Couldn't find anymore!	!Couldn't find anymore!	The author has used gradually to create the mood of suspense
!Couldn't find anymore!	!Couldn't find anymore!	The author has used the word uncontrollably to create the mood of frightened and afraid.

--	--	------------------------

Abstract nouns - mischievous,	Abstract nouns - happiness, disappeared, afraid,	Abstract nouns - afraid,
Concrete nouns - Table, coin, face,	Concrete nouns - river, ice, sunlight, trees, forest floor, birds, sing, nests, fish, flowers, earth, frost, fingertips, snow, feet, statues,	Concrete nouns - finger, ring, chest, back, oak tree, heart, monster, hands,
Adjectives -	Adjectives -	Adjectives - ancient, John Dotegowski,