Explore & Practice:

With the Book

Display book. Point to each character and say, "This is the teacher," "This is a girl," and "This is a boy." Have students repeat each word after you, "teacher", "girl", "boy"

Play the audio track and have students repeat it one more time. Ask students to come to the front by one and point to the teacher, girl, and boy as you say each word.

Ask students if they can identify who is the teacher, who is a girl, and who is a boy in the classroom. E.g. Is she Emma? Is she a boy or a girl? Who is the teacher?

Classifying Activity

Divide the class into teams. Give each team a set of photos of boys, girls, and teachers. Place the photos in the center of the team's tables. Call out the words "boy", "girl", and "teacher" one at a time. As you call out each word, have students quickly raise the correct photo corresponding to the word.

Mini flashcards Activity

Provide students with mini flashcards of a teacher, a girl, and a boy. Also, provide cards with the words "teacher," "girl," and "boy." Help students identify the words.

Have students match the picture cards with the corresponding word cards. Walk around to assist and check their matches.

Another option could be to have students work in pairs and play memory games with the mini flashcards.
