

Upper Primary & Secondary Prep School Teaching Position

Providing instruction in math & science or humanities (pending specialization)

Job Description

A teacher will be able to draw the various fields of study from a subject that is presented before students. A teacher will be able to develop number sense in students, a teacher will be able to foster a love of God's Creation. A teacher will serve the student and the families through communication, encouragement and loving sacrifice. A teacher will serve the school through solid lesson plans, and an engaging teaching style. The teacher will engage the students through animation, lecturing, coaching and facilitating a classroom. A teacher will be able to create curricula developed from study in the subject and study of the student and his or her learning ability. A teacher will be able to manage a classroom by loving students through discipline.

A Teacher is ready to fulfill the Mission of Logos Classical Academy in the following ways:

- Disciple Children
 - Teach All That God Has Commanded
 - Train in Discernment
- Provide Robust Liberal Arts Academic Instruction That Is Distinctly Christian
 - Use the Trivium to Train in the Art of Words
 - Use the Quadrivium to Train in the Art of Numbers
 - Inspire Wonder at God and Love for His Creation
 - Meet Academic Objectives
 - Tailor Learning to the Individual Child
 - Equip Students in Critical Thinking
- Engage With Families
 - Communicate Effectively
 - Give Timely Feedback on Academic Progress
 - Give Timely Feedback on Discipline

Duties/Responsibilities

- Create an Annual Mapping for All Courses of Instruction
- Submit Lesson Plans
- Consistently Assess Students for Progress Through Approved Means
- Study All Material Deeply to Become a "Living Curriculum"
- Facilitate Deep Study of Various Subjects in the Classroom
- Animate Material to Engage Students
- Coach Students Using a Tailored Approach to Education, Helping Them Invest the Talent God Has Given

- Enter Grades Within 48 Hours for Timely Feedback
- Attend All Designated Faculty Trainings & Meetings
- Observe Struggling Students and Make Recommendations to the Head of School for Suggested Learning Goals
- Foster a Well-Ordered Atmosphere Through Classroom Discipleship
- Maintain a Well-Organized Classroom
- Ensure Students Are Active Learners Both Mentally and Physically

Qualifications

- A Heart for the Gospel
- A Heart for Children
- A Bachelor's Degree
- A Robust Background in Humanities and/or a Willingness to Study Intentionally
- A Deep Understanding of Numbers
- A Love of God's Creation That Is Communicated Effectively
- A Desire to Train and Equip the Next Generation
- A Natural Intuition in the Classroom
- Flexibility in Delivery Methods
- Ability to Lead a Small Classroom in a Loving and Disciplined Manner
- Patience to Mentor Through Discipleship
- Classical Liberal Arts Education or Equivalent Experience

*Applicants that do not have a robust Liberal Arts Education are welcome to apply but must be willing to engage in rigorous training to prepare for the first academic year.