IWU Campus Resources for Students

Not all of these services are available in the summer.
Reach out to success@iwu.edu if you need a resource or referral.

Academic Support & Advising

Academic Advising guides you on your academic path as you declare/change majors/minors and advance toward graduation.

Accessibility Services ensures access to support services and accommodations needed due to a disability as you navigate campus life.

Faculty Office Hours are for you! This is a great time to meet with your professor to ask questions, get clarity on an assignment, discuss a grade, or just to get to know them better.

The Language Resource Center (CLA 303) provides students with computer and audio-visual support for learning languages, as well as peer-to-peer conversation practice and tutoring sessions in Spanish, ASL, Chinese, French, and Japanese. You can sign up with a tutor here.

The Writing Center (in Ames Library) works with writers at all stages of the writing process and is invaluable to improving your written work. The Writing Center's resources page has additional useful links and handouts.

Tutors are trained to help you do your best in a variety of academic disciplines. Ask your professor for information regarding Teaching Assistants in the class and tutors in the department. Tutoring services are always free.

Ames Library is the academic heart of IWU. They are ready to help you with a wide variety of research tools and strategies. Use LibCal to make an appointment.

The Registrar's Office is a valuable resource when you have questions or need assistance with issues related to your academic record including your degree audit and transcripts. If help is needed with registration, accessing/understanding your degree audit, transfer credit, or completing an academic records related form, contact this office!

Basic Needs

The Dean of Students/Office of Student Affairs oversees student life on campus. If you have general questions or concerns related to what happens outside of the classroom in support of your overall educational experience, please contact this office.

Office of Residence Life and Housing manages everything related to living in campus residence halls.

Sodexo manages the campus dining hall, meal plans, and special requests.

Titan Food Pantry provides free food for IWU students. Take what you need from the lockers located on the 1st floor of Hansen Student Center across from the Office of Student Involvement.

Career Closet provides professional clothing for the internship fair, class presentations, or job interviews. Located in the Hart Career Center.

Financial Aid is the office for financial aid questions and lists of student employment opportunities.

Titan Emergency Fund is available to help you in cases of financial distress.

Engaged & Experiential Learning

Hart Career Center offers workshops and drop-in services related to internships, interviews, jobs, and graduate school. They host a large internship fair every fall.

Study Abroad is an amazing opportunity for all students. Visit the Study Abroad Fair in the fall or stop by the office on the 3rd floor of CLA to learn more.

Undergraduate Research is popular at IWU and available in all academic disciplines. Talk with your advisor and professors about opportunities.

Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion

Office of Campus Culture fosters a vibrant and respectful Titan community by encouraging thoughtful exploration of all cultural backgrounds, perspectives, and traditions.

First Generation College Students program provides resources to all students whose parents/ guardians did not graduate from college.

International Office coordinates programs and services for international students.

Getting Involved

Campus Activities Board is the Go To group for fun events! Follow them on Instagram @iwucab.

Office of Student Involvement can connect you with Registered Student Organizations (RSOs) and the Fraternities and Sororities on campus.

Volunteering opportunities can be found through the Center for Engaged Learning.

Student Senate is elected from the student body to represent you across campus. Officers and commissioners have offices in the Hansen Student Center.

Health & Wellness

Arnold Health Services provides services to all IWU students at no charge.

Counseling Center & Consultation Services provides free mental health support for students.

Office of Multifaith Engagement leads the campus in the recognition and celebration of all faiths on campus and can connect you to places to worship in the community.

Shirk Center is for everyone on campus with a track, weight rooms, exercise machines, the pool, and courts.

Other Important Campus Resources
