Application

Please keep all responses within 100 to 200 words, unless otherwise noted.

1. Tell us a story that shows why you're the right fit for Director of Events. Think of a moment when you were planning something for others and things didn't go as expected—maybe you led, failed, adapted, or had to pivot quickly. What happened, how did you respond, and what did the experience teach you about your leadership style?
2. You're responsible for guiding six Regional Coordinators—each with different personalities, motivations, and bandwidth. Share a moment when you had to manage or support someone whose approach clashed with yours. How did you get through it, and what would you try differently next time?
3. Picture the upcoming YJA year. What kinds of events do you think our community needs—not just the ones we already do? Choose one or two that excite you and walk us through your vision: when would they happen, what makes them unique, and what obstacles would you anticipate? Consider any cross-collaboration and blockers that may be involved when discussing the timeline.
4. Managing six RCs means that you will consistently be coordinating six distinct workflows. For example, all six regional retreats will be planned concurrently, but each will have very different challenges and problems to solve. How do you personally stay grounded and organized when managing a lot at once? Describe the tools, strategies, or rituals that actually work for you—and how you'd guide RCs through their own workflows under pressure.
5. As Director of Events, you will have to be a cross-functional figure. This could involve managing retreat registration, creating graphics for event PR, budgeting, social media campaign coordinating, general event planning, etc. Share a time when you worked across teams or in a cross-functional role to pull something off. What role did you play, and what helped you balance the moving parts?
6. Think back to a Jain or YJA event you attended that had either a low turnout or felt especially meaningful. What do you think made the difference? Based on that, what would you try this year to boost attendance and impact at smaller in-person events? How would you tell if your approach is working?
7. YJA events have a strong tradition, but every year presents an opportunity to make them feel fresh and memorable. How do you personally approach generating new ideas? Walk us through how you would inspire six RCs to innovate within their own retreats while maintaining consistency with YJA's mission and brand. How would you decide which ideas to pursue and which to leave behind?

Work Product

Task

You have been awarded a $10,000 grant to engage YJA members with Jain sanghs across North America. Develop a high-level framework and timeline for a national or interregional event or campaign you would implement with this grant. If you choose to do an event, it can be virtual or in-person. Create a timeline of the event, from the planning stages up to the execution. List any resources or board members you would involve in all steps of the event.

Some things to consider in your answer include:

- What would be the goals for the event or campaign?
- Who would be the audience for the event or campaign?
- What would be the schedule for the event or campaign?
- How would you work with the sangh(s) for the event or campaign and get their buy-in?
- What would be the planning timeline? How would you organize check-ins and track progress?
- How would you delegate responsibilities among board members and Local Representatives?
- How would you work to raise awareness among the community about this event or campaign? What social media and outreach methods would you employ?
- How would you budget for the various costs that may be associated with the event, and work to make the event affordable for attendees?
- How would you measure the success of the event or campaign?

Please limit your response for this task to 2 pages. Feel free to use Word, Excel, or any other platform you feel appropriate to document and create your outline.

Submit your draft planning document(s) (Word, Excel, PDF) and name the file(s) "NAME - Events Work Product".

If you have any questions, difficulties, or confusion, please don't hesitate to email us at elections@yja.org! We're happy to help!

FAQ and Tips

Q: Can I apply for more than one position?

A: Yes, you can apply for more than one position! You must submit a separate application for each position you are interested in. During your interview, we may ask you for your order of preference among the positions you applied for.

Q: What if I've never been to Pathshala or don't live near a Jain community, temple, or sangh?

A: That's completely okay! There is no required level of Jain knowledge or involvement to serve on the Executive Board. Whether you grew up attending Pathshala every week, just started learning about Jainism recently, live in a large Jain community, or come from a town with no temple at all, we welcome your perspective. In fact, having board members from a variety of backgrounds and experiences helps us better represent Jain youth across North America. If you're enthusiastic, hard-working, and excited about helping connect and support Jain youth, we encourage you to apply.

Q: What if I've never held a position like this before?

A: Again, there is no "required" set of experiences to be a good fit for the Executive Board - our current board has graduate students, working professionals from various industries, and college. We want to hear about the skills and interests you have, but there are also many that we can teach you! When thinking about what you want to apply for, look for the position description that is a good fit with both your background and your interests.

Q: What is a work product?

A: The work product is an example of something that the Board member holding that position does as a part of their day-to-day YJA responsibilities. Seeing a work product helps us better understand your working style, and what you might create or do if you were in that position on the YJA Board. Work products will be looked at in the context of your application and background, so again, don't worry if you've never done something like this before! Just follow the instructions and do your best.

Q: Why are you asking for a resume?

A: We've found that involvement with Jainism is not the only thing that helps us as Executive Board members - we all use skills and experiences from school, internships, and work, as well! Seeing your resume gives us a quick look into this background. No need to modify, just send us your existing resume as-is. Again, if you are in high school or college and don't have one yet, email us at elections@yja.org! This will not negatively affect your application.

Q: Should I talk about my activities or work experience extensively in my application?

A: No need to rehash your resume in your application - use examples as appropriate, but make sure you're actually answering the questions and helping us learn more about you!

Q: Any other tips for application writing?

A: Stick to the word limits, and aim for quality over quantity. Proofread your application - typos, grammar and spelling mistakes all make it more difficult to understand what you're trying to convey.

Q: What does the time commitment for the Executive Board look like?

A: Time commitments vary depending on the position. Roles such as Co-Chairs, Director of Events,

Director of Operations, and Director of Project Development generally require the greatest time commitment, averaging approximately 8–10 hours per week, though this may increase during particularly busy times of the year. Regional Coordinators and most other Director positions typically require 4–6 hours per week on average. During peak periods—such as retreat planning, major events, and program launches—this commitment may increase to approximately 10–15 hours per week. For more questions about these peak periods and time commitment, please feel free to reach out to elections@yja.org.

Q: I've seen that Executive Board members travel for in-person meetings. What does this entail and are there costs involved?

A: Board members typically travel at least 3 times per year. The exact timing and location of these meetings will be determined by the acting Executive Board. These gatherings are focused on planning, brainstorming, and executing the Board's goals, initiatives, and overall vision for the term. Board members are expected to cover a portion of their travel expenses, and the remainder will be subsidized by YJA. If this is a concern, your Executive Board Co-Chairs will work with you to make accommodations.

Q: Who do I contact with questions?

A: For any questions about eligibility, the application process, interviews, or timeline—reach out to the Elections Committee at elections@yja.org.

Q: What will the interview process be like?

A: If you are selected for an interview, you will be scheduled for a Zoom video interview ranging from 30 minutes to 1 hour. The interview will be transcribed and recorded for review as your application is evaluated. All recordings and transcripts will be deleted post-election cycle.
