

SEVENTH AMENDMENT TO

THE CONSTITUTION OF

ACADIA

---

AMENDMENT VII

I. CREATION OF THE HIGH COMMISSAR OF THE ASSEMBLY

1. The Position of High Commissar of the Assembly shall be created after the passage of this document.
2. The High Commissar of the Assembly shall be elected on the Saturday immediately following the passage of this document.
3. The High Commissar shall be elected on a six-month term, and be subject to monthly votes of confidence on the third Saturday of every month.
  - a. Should a High Commissar fail a no-confidence vote, they shall be barred from running for reelection.
  - b. A High Commissar shall be elected with a simple majority, followed by a confirmation vote in the senate OR over a 2/3rds majority.

II. POWERS OF THE HIGH COMMISSAR

1. The High Commissar shall be responsible for owning and maintaining all Federal Namelayer groups for the Republic of Acadia.
  - a. The High Commissar shall be the sole individual with the “owner” rank.

- b. The High Commissar shall grant the Prime Minister “admin” permissions, along with any individual the Prime Minister requests.
- 2. The High Commissar shall be responsible for managing the affairs of the Assembly.
  - a. This includes but is not limited to:
    - i. Moderation of the debate floor
    - ii. Initiating, calling, and tallying votes
    - iii. The maintenance and updating of the #laws-of-acadia channel.
    - iv. Initiating, calling, and tallying elections
- 3. The High Commissar may propose legislation with a cosponsor in the Assembly, but is prohibited from voting on Assembly matters.
- 4. The High Commissar may advise the Senate at the Senate’s request, but is prohibited from voting in Senate matters.

III. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 1. The High Commissar shall become the Head of State of Acadia
  - a. The Prime Minister shall become the Head of Government
- 2. The High Commissar may be removed from office with a simple majority vote in the Assembly at any point.
  - a. They may also be removed with a 2/3rds majority vote in the Senate.
- 3. The Prime Minister may appoint the High Commissar in the event the seat is vacant before the next confirmation vote on the third Saturday of every month.