

WEEK 3 REFLECTION

The questions you place below will possibly be answered in class; please do not put your name on this paper.

What is a question you might still have about this course? OR what is a question you think your classmates are wondering about?

What is a question you have about navigating the campus and/or trying to succeed in college?

What is a question you might still have about me as your teacher?