

Yeah, and getting
quieter each day.
Do you think they finally decided to do something about the climate crisis?

Nah, I wish.
It's something called
the coronavirus.
It's highly contagious
and it's basically shutting down the global economy.

Woah. More Crill for us, if the commercial fishing slows down. And more of this glorious PEACE...

Is this the moment we've dreamed about for
so many generations?
.... Time to TAKE BACK the oceans
& the skies?

That's what I'm thinking. But the CEOs and government
people are saying it will all be roaring
as usual in just a few months...

But our human allies -
the regular people, the workers - they have their own dreams
for earth too:

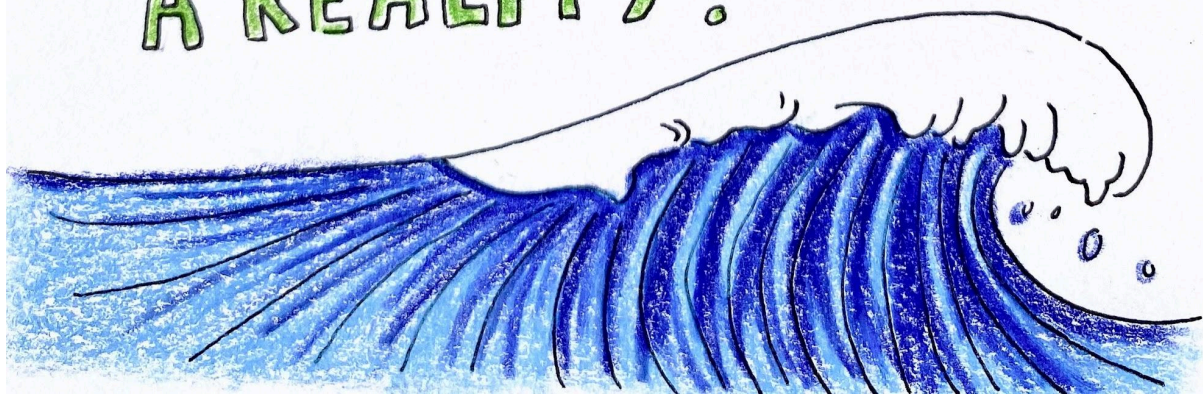

OF A WORLD
WHERE ALL HUMAN
& NON-HUMAN LIFE IS TREATED AS SACRED

...WHERE EVERYONE
CAN LIVE THE LIFE
THEY WANT AND MOVE AROUND FREELY

... WHERE THE GIFTS OF EARTH ARE SHARED AMONG ALL
AND SUSTAINED FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS..

...WHAT IF THEY
USE THIS MOMENT TO RISE UP AND MAKE THOSE DREAMS
A REALITY?
