

Junior Helper Application for bob2155

IGN - My current IGN or In-Game Name is bob2155.

Say YES if you understand that asking a staff member about your application means an instant rejection of your application - Yes, I am quite understanding that asking a staff member about my application results in an instant denial of my application.

Timezone - I am located in the US, around the New York area, with my timezone being Eastern Time.

What time are you most often online? - On certain days, I am online more than others, at different times, so I have the breakdown is listed below:

MONDAY-THURSDAY - During the school year, I am not always online on Mondays and most other weekdays, but when I am, it is normally from 3:15 PM to 6 or 7 PM. (At most, about 3 Hours)

However, during the summer, these times change, from 11:00 AM or 12:00 PM to at most 8 PM or 9 PM. (At most 10 Hours)

FRIDAY - During the school year, I am almost always online on Fridays, from 3:00 PM or 3:10 PM to at most 9 PM or 10 PM. (At most 7 Hours)

However, once again, during the summer these times tend to change, ranging from 9:00 AM to 11:00 PM, with intermittent breaks. (At most 14 Hours)

SATURDAY-SUNDAY - During the school year I am normally always online on Saturdays or Sundays, but lots of events happen that sometimes I may not be able to reach a computer. But on most days, I am online from 12:30 PM to 6 PM or 7 PM at most. (4.5 to 6.5 Hours)

Are you multilingual? - As of now I know English as my main language, and also speak some Spanish as well. However, I am just learning Spanish, and do not fully know the language, but I continue to learn. I know enough to answer a few simple questions, but not all questions I can answer.

Have you ever been banned or temporarily banned on another server?

- I have actually been banned once on another server, called Beanzcraft, which no longer runs. According to FISHBANS, I was banned for "Rule Violation," however it does not specify which rule I broke, as there were only a few defined rules on the server, which I had followed. It was likely a joke, as I was quite friendly towards everyone and was a good friend of the owner and moderators of the server. However I will most likely not find out the exact reason, for the server is no longer running as stated before.

How long have you been playing on Hypixel? - I have actually been playing on Hypixel for almost an entire year now, although I didn't play as frequently as I do now, as there were only a few games on the server when I started to play. On the forums it does currently state that I joined on October 15th of last year, however I did not join the forums when I first joined the server, as I had rather joined later when I knew how to report someone on the forums. I've been using the forums frequently ever since, and it does really help me stay in check with the server during the week, when I cannot actually play for myself. Nonetheless, It has been a really fun ride so far on the Hypixel server, and I am currently looking forward to all the staff team have in store for us in the upcoming months.

What are 2 positive features about yourself? - I personally feel that I have quite a few positive features about myself, especially because I have been frequently complimented by other people about my likable features. However, as I am only to say two, I will keep it limited at that number.

First off, I feel that I can be a very nice person around other people, and that I socialize and bond with other people at a faster rate than most, or so I have been told. I do warm up to people quickly, and when I do I always try my best to be the kindest person to them as possible. I do also feel this trait is visible in myself as my In-Game guild does seem to appreciate me being with them, and warming up to them was an extremely quick process for me. However, humans aren't perfect, and at times I may not always think the nicest thoughts about someone when I get a little angry. Although I do keep it to myself for the most part, so I don't really feel that should be too much of an issue.

Secondly, I am known to be quite caring towards other people when necessary, and I do like helping other people. In most of my everyday life, I help people my own age, or some older or younger than me. When people want to ask me a question, I never ignore them and always try my best to respond the best way I can, and act sincere about it as well. And whenever someone needs cheering up, I always try hard to do so, sometimes with a bit of humor to give my recipient a laugh.

Those are my two main traits, and I feel will also fit the Junior Helper job as well.

What do you think your job will be as a Junior Helper on the Hypixel Server, and what do you think you can bring to the role? - As many may probably know, and as I've concluded, being a Junior Helper is not exactly the same as the Helper job. It most likely consists of helping others, as it is in the name, but most definitely in different categories as helpers, for the upcoming Junior Helpers will be somewhat younger and not all of them may be able to take on all of the tasks of a normal Helper. Junior helping will likely be taking care of questions that have to do with the server itself, like asking how to join games or activate boosters, which are simple tasks to do, but not everyone may know how to do them. Junior helping may also consist of assisting the Helpers with bigger tasks at their extent, or helping out a Helper by answering questions in lobbies when Helpers in that lobby may be AFK. Lastly, it will probably consist of helping to catch hackers, especially with the fact that Junior Helpers will have access to the staff chat to call over Moderators in games they are currently playing.

I personally feel I can bring quite a bit to the role. I feel that I may be a good role model for other players, and I feel I will definitely make an impact on the server when it comes to good conduct and other related topics. I also feel that since I do like helping people, and easily get along with most people, I will be able to help others to a good extent. I do realize that being a Junior Helper will likely inflict more hate towards me for certain actions like "Horse-Noobing" in a Blitz game and winning, or some other actions that would make any player angry. But I feel I can take it, which is also one of the greater reasons why I am applying for this role.

Are you VIP? If so, when did you purchase the rank? - I am currently VIP+ on the Hypixel server, however I did purchase VIP previously before purchasing VIP+. I don't remember the exact dates of the purchases, although I know I purchased VIP towards the end of last year. I later obtained VIP+ as a result of a guild officer buying me the rank, which I really appreciated, and even though I do not remember the date of the purchase, I do remember that it was earlier last month that I got the rank.

Do you use the Teamspeak and a Microphone? - I do currently own TeamSpeak, and I do also use a microphone. However, I rarely use the Hypixel teamspeak as of right now, and rather use my guild's private TeamSpeak. However, I do know the IP to the Hypixel TeamSpeak is ts.hypixel.net, and can easily use it when necessary to use the TeamSpeak.

Are you able to record? - I can currently record as I currently have OBS (Open Broadcaster Software), and can also stream as a result. I do see how this is a vital part of being a Junior Helper, as recording is an important part of catching hackers, so you can have proof of a hacker doing what is title adheres to, which is hacking.

Do you have access to Skype? - I do have access to Skype, however I rarely do use Skype on a daily basis. However if it is a necessity, I can always use it.

AGE - I have put my age last, as I do not want my age to affect my chances of getting the Junior Helper rank. I sadly do not currently meet the age requirement of at least 14, as I am currently at the age of 13, however I will be turning 14 in about 1 month, and even though I am well aware the age minimum is 14, and that it will indeed affect my chances greatly, I still feel I am mature enough to manage the job of a Junior Helper.

Thank you for taking the time to read my application.
