

Your First Camp

My first camp I realized I was going camping with about 100 people I did not know. Well I figured if my 6 year old daughter could hack it, so can I!

A few pro tips:

Get there early enough that it's still daylight – it gets dark early out in the country and finding your way can be hard in the dark your first time

Eat on the road – get a good meal on your way in, hopefully with other campers! There are usually a few options that big groups hit on the way in. The food at camp leaves plenty to be desired

Heat Treatment – They will ask to heat your clothes; they cook them pretty good so make sure you don't have anything valuable in there

Cabins – You are in a cabin, it has heat, AC and plumbing. Bring a sleeping bag, but no need to actual camping stuff, we just call it “camp”

Relax, you both will have a great time. If you forget something, I guarantee some other dad has it! Don't be afraid to ask, we have all been there.
