

Week 4 What to Read, Watch, and Write

Read/Watch/Listen:

- Chapter 4: Working Across Difference from Human Services Practicum: An Equity Lens
- Chapter 3: The Second Agreement (pp. 47-62) The Four Agreements; and
- Discrimination in the US Today through White Privilege excerpt (scroll about 1/3 down page to start reading) from Social Work and Society

Essential Questions:

- How does not taking anything personally relate to your internship? Your school and work life? Your personal life?
- Where are you progressing in your learning plan? Where do you need to focus? How will you approach your mid-term assessment with your supervisor?
- What are the main themes from Working Across Difference/Human Services Internship text and the Social Work and Society readings? How can you apply them to human services work?

Due:

- Sunday: Pre-Class Questionnaire
- On-site assignment: Review your learning plan in preparation for next week's assessment. Is there anything on it that you don't understand or want to know more about before next week? Consider your approach to the assessment.
- Learn about the history of the agency where you work. Use the website, agency documents, or ask.
- Bullet Journal: reading notes, your thinking about the essential questions, ideas, and on-site assignment notes
- Monday: Road Check and Reflection 2
