

Universal Public Sector Pay Scale Act

Authored by flyguy, Matt Cheney, hmquestionable, and delousionallou

Whereas; Executive, Legislative and Judiciary workers are paid on several arbitrary pay scales.

Whereas; There is no single document defining public sector pay.

Whereas; Most pay is defined by EO133-06, missing newer positions which do not have defined pay and none of it has been defined in any legislation.

Whereas; Specific roles are overpaid proportional to the amount of work other positions do.

Article 1: Executive Pay

§ 1. The following wages shall apply to the President and Vice President:

Role	Wage (weekly)
President	250t
Vice President	175t

§ 1.1. As directly elected officials, the President and Vice President will be paid bi-weekly to coordinate with the end of their term.

§ 1.2. Any Act which references the pay of the President shall be taken to mean the bi-weekly pay of the President.

§ 2. The following wages shall apply to the roles appointed by the President under the Executive Act, the Chief of Staff and the Press Secretary, paid weekly:

Role	Wage (weekly)
Roles appointed by the President under the Executive Act	200t
Chief of Staff	200t
Press Secretary	120t

§2.1. As executive appointed officials, these roles will be paid weekly.

§2.2. An official with multiple roles under § 2. shall be paid only for the highest role pay they are entitled to under § 2.

Article 2: Legislature Pay

§ 1. The following wages shall apply to the Speaker of the Senate, Deputy Speaker of the Senate, Senators, and the Senate Clerk:

Role	Wage (weekly)
Speaker of the Senate	175t
Deputy Speaker of the Senate	150t
Senator	150t
Senate Clerk	150t

§ 1.1. As directly elected officials, all legislature pay will be paid bi-weekly to coordinate the end of their term.

§ 1.2. An official with multiple roles under § 1. shall be paid only for the highest role pay they are entitled to under § 1.

Article 3: Judicial Pay

§ 1. The following wages shall apply to the Chief Justice, Justices, and Judges:

Role	Wage (weekly)
Chief Justice	175t
Justices	150t
Judges	125t

§ 1.1. As appointed and confirmed officials, these roles will be paid weekly.

§ 1.2. An official with multiple roles under § 1. shall be paid only for the highest role pay they are entitled to under § 1.

§ 2. All roles listed on the chart in Article 3 § 1 of this bill will be entitled to a bonus per case completed, as follows:

Case Type	Bonus
Pre-Trial	20t

Trial	75t
Supreme Court Case	100t

Article 4: Supervisor Pay

§ 1. The following wages shall apply to the Discord Supervisor, Reddit Supervisor, Election Supervisor, and Election Commissioner:

Role	Wage (weekly)
Discord Supervisor	300t
Reddit Supervisor	200t
Elections Supervisor	300t
Election Commissioner	250t

§ 1.1. As appointed and confirmed officials these positions will be paid weekly.

Article 5: Governor Pay

§ 1. The following wages shall apply to the the Minecraft Governor and the Nationstates Governor:

Role	Wage (weekly)
Minecraft Governor	125t
Nationstates Governor	125t

§ 1.1. As an elected official these positions will be paid bi-weekly to line up with their terms.

Article 6: Implementation

§ 1. This bill shall come into effect after the 141st Senate is elected and announced.

§ 2. When this bill goes into effect, the Senate Payments Act will be repealed.