

SCHOOL-BASED DECISION MAKING

School Name: Laukhuf Elementary

Subject of the Policy: Parent and Family Engagement (Title I)

Policy Statement

Laukhuf Elementary School is committed to engaging parents in meaningful activities that will lead to increased student achievement levels.

To complete the effective home-school partnership, Laukhuf Elementary School will provide:

- An annual meeting where parents will meet their child's teacher and be notified of their rights and responsibilities under Title I to be involved in their child's education. A new-student orientation/Open House will also be scheduled.
- A variety of informational meetings throughout the year to assist parents in understanding federal and state academic standards and required assessments as well as training in how they can assist their child in being successful in challenging coursework.
- A varied schedule of times for meetings and activities to accommodate the needs of parents.
- Two formal parent-teacher conferences and additional information and ongoing communications regarding student progress and achievement.
- A school-parent compact, designed with parents and school staff that outlines how parents, students, and staff have a shared responsibility for the student's education.
- Meetings and informational sessions for parents whose children are in key transitional points.

Every effort will be made to communicate with parents in a format and language that are familiar to the parents and easily understood by them. Parents and community members are always welcome at Laukhuf Elementary School.
