Daisy Lane Parade

On a festive December day, the Cabrillo NJROTC team enthusiastically joined the Daisy Lane Parade, marking a spirited celebration of the holiday season. A robust contingent of 38 cadets made their presence felt, transforming the parade into a vibrant display of unity and pride. Leading the procession, three individuals took a place at the front, bearing the unit's banner. Following closely behind was the NS1 color guard. Cadets marched along, exuding a Christmas spirit energy that resonated with the crowd. Their synchronized movements and enthusiastic demeanor showcased not only their commitment to the NJROTC program but also their shared Christmas spirit. The armed exhibition team brought a dynamic element to the event, leaving a lasting impression on spectators. In every step and gesture, the cadets gave their all, making a memorable impact on the Daisy Lane Parade. Their festive enthusiasm was palpable, creating an engaging experience for onlookers and reinforcing the sense of camaraderie within the NJROTC team. The event served as a testament to the team's commitment to excellence and their ability to spread joy and holiday cheer.
