Library Updates

Please provide some COVID Updates:

- Do you plan to receive shipments?
- Open or closed stacks?
- Open or closed library spaces?

Other updates are welcome. How are you doing?

- CU Boulder - no courier shipments until libraries are ready and courier is ready. Kate updated about her move to Massachusetts. Library reorganization will not impact gopig. Phased reopening.
- UNC- June 1st folks who couldn't work from home started to come back (tech services staff) 50% capacity. Very limited holds pick ups. Limited hours for campus services by August 3rd. New Dean officially starts July 1st (Jennifer Newfall)
- DU- 5 reopening phases (currently in phase II); up to 20% of staff..no reference. Approval is needed to be in the building. No shipments. Paycuts are being implemented. New COVID Guide: https://libguides.du.edu/coronavirus\_govinfo
- State Library - mostly working from home; Virginia has been working in the office the whole time. All state publication shipments are all on hold until libraries inform them that they can receive things again. Thinking about restarting the courier. The downtown building will not have people until at least the end of August. Talking Book library has been open the whole time. 50% time but still sending materials out during the pandemic. Budget is still uncertain and they just approved the long-bill on Friday. The Institutional

Library Development Unit put together training videos for correctional librarians (IL, Freedom of Information, Programming etc..). Correctional library training videos: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JXL-zfBxMjA&list=PL8riLQL7j5vzEtS5trjZqUkGgJv8P3Gve&index=2&t=0s> There will be no new catalog records posted in July, due to staff vacations, The next batch of state publications records will be posted in early August

- CU Law - Need to do online training; everyone is still working remotely. All of their public services are closed for the rest of the summer. Some remote and some in-person.
- CSU - all working from home. Naomi was able to stick around for a while to clean out her office. Needed permission. Finally returning prospector items to their home libraries. Fall semester - any classes over 99 students must be online. Smaller classes will meet in-person. Giving up classrooms for regular classes. After holiday break, all classes will go online. Offering retirement incentives. New guide for first year composition theme: <https://libguides.colostate.edu/govinfo/health>
- UCCS- no specific reopening date, reference for the summer will remain remote. Someone is going in once a month to collect mail. No shipments have been received with. The gov docs team has developed a strategic plan for government documents & currently working on the collection development plan. Expanding outreach and able to do more because there are 3 people who can work together. Mix of online and in-person classes. They are not closing after thanksgiving. Larger classes will be online. 5% furlough for $60,000+. Dean is leaving (July 3rd), AD retired recently. Co-interim Deans. No shipments; waiting to see when they'll be back in the building. Will eventually be asking for a Regional visit. Still figuring out a lot about stacks access. Their ref desk set up a google voice number and forwarded the phone to google voice so we can answer from home
- DPL - Just opened book drops, mid-July curbside pick up of holds will begin (stage III). Central is complicated - renovation is coming. Hiring freeze, some furloughs, retirement incentives. Barb has been going in a few days a week to work on weeding.
- CC- reviewing all of their libguides for gov docs, GPO webinars. Reopened requests for faculty and staff. They're being located in lobby entry (approx. 85 requests in the first week). Expecting students to return in fall; faculty and staff asked to stay home until August. 5% materials cut. The Library director retired. President of the college is also leaving. Provost is stepping in (but he is now leaving!). New leadership is Dean of Students and CFO. Tried to offer up a volunteer furlough (for a year or half a year - health care paid)

Needs & Offers (Phil)

Current Projects

- Air Force Academy
  - Reminder that we sent 4 big lists from the Air Force Academy. They've asked for requests to be sent to them by December. That is their deadline.
- Denver Public Library
  - Weeding a significant amount of the gov docs collection. Going through historic material and have been very selective. 4th floor in Central library - beautiful space that should be used for people. There is no deadline on getting the collection out but they're looking for more space for staff too.
  - Current process - going through one stem at a time and comparing to CU Boulder. Have to do sudoc, title and keyword searching. Most items are found quickly. Those not found at CU are being placed on eXchange. Finished congressional docs, HE's are done, pushing on through the HH's in order to clear an entire range. C's may next.
  - Barb is happy to move around if there are any needs. You can also send a list of missing documents to Barb.
- (upcoming defense docs @ CSU??) Naomi
  - Naomi went through all the Defense docs in storage and selected all to keep (labeled and separated). They will get cataloged. And there is a remaining collection of D's for us to go through. CU Boulder -- CC -- FDLP eXchange or brief list out to COGOPUB. But they may not be able to create a list this time
  - Archives just removed Peace Corps and BIA docs

- All of those will be removed from the archives but Naomi advocated for them to stay in the collection. Naomi is investigating electronic equivalents. There are about 22 boxes of these documents. Need to prioritize the cataloging
