2025 BUDGET WORK AND PROPOSED SALARY/WAGES

The Board agreed to a 3% increase for employees for 2025 along with a 2 hr. minimum call time and an additional week of vacation in year 8 of employment.

Brad Wiernik moved, seconded by Craig Vitort to approve a 3 % increase for employees in 2025 along with 2 hr. minimum call time and an additional week of vacation in year 8 of employment.

Ayes: Majority, nays none; Abstain: John Spreda. Motion carried.

CONSIDERATION OF USDA PROJECTS

The continuation of the USDA water and sewer projects were considered at this time. After considerable discussion regarding the grants, loans and rate increases to residents the board agreed to discontinue pursuing USDA funding for these projects and instruct our Engineering firm to seek DNR and Department of Administration (CDBG) Community Development Block Grant funding.

Craig Vitort moved, seconded by John Spreda to no longer pursue USDA-RD grant/loan funding for our water and sewer utility projects at this time.

Ayes all, nays none; motion carried.

ADJOURNMENT

Alex Peden moved, seconded by Brad Wiernik to adjourn the meeting.

Ayes all, nays none; motion carried.
