Amanda Mombourquette Launches Campaign to Become the Next Leader of the Nova Scotia Liberal Party

DECK (OPTIONAL SUB-HEADLINE)

Cape Breton Economic Leader Enters Race

Lead Paragraph

Nova Scotia — Amanda today announced her intention to seek the leadership of the Nova Scotia Liberal Party, entering the race for the party's November 28 convention. Mombourquette, a community leader and economic developer from St. Peter's, Cape Breton, brings more than 20 years of governance, economic development, and workforce experience to the race.

Quote — Amanda Mombourquette

This should be Amanda's defining statement for the launch — personal, direct, and rooted in her reason for running. Draft for her review and approval. Keep to 2–3 sentences.

| “[Amanda's opening statement — why she is running, approved by Amanda]”

— Amanda Mombourquette, Candidate for the Nova Scotia Liberal Leadership

Supporting Paragraph — Record & Qualifications

Mombourquette recently served as Manager of Workforce Development at the Nova Scotia Community College, where she leads programming aligned to the province’s energy transition. As Warden of the Municipality of the County of Richmond since 2020 — re-elected in 2024 — she rebuilt institutional relationships and championed accountable, transparent governance. She is co-founder of the Strait of Canso Offshore Wind Task Force and Co-Chair of the Bras d’Or Lakes Collaborative Environmental Protection Initiative.
