Meetings of such committee may be held at any place in or outside Canada.

All Directors and officers of the Corporation in exercising their powers and discharging their duties shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation and exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. Subject to the foregoing, and provided that nothing herein shall relieve any Director or officer from the duty to act in accordance with the Act or from liability for any breach of it, no Director or officer shall be liable:

- 6.1.1. for the acts, omissions, failures, neglects or defaults of any other Director, officer or employee;
- 6.1.2. for any loss, damage or expense incurred by the Corporation through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired for or on behalf of the Corporation;

6.5. Additional Circumstances

The Corporation shall also indemnify any individual referred to in para. 6.2 in such other circumstances as the Act or law permits or requires. Nothing in This By-Law shall limit the right of any individual entitled to indemnity to claim indemnity apart from the provisions of This By-Law.

6.6. Insurance

7.3. Dealing with Registered Holders

Subject to the Act, the Corporation may treat the registered holder of any share of the Corporation as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notices, to receive any dividend or other payment in respect of the share, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner of the share.

7.4. Share Certificates

Every holder of one or more shares of the Corporation shall be entitled, at the holder's option, to a share certificate, or to a non-transferable written certificate of acknowledgment of such right to obtain a share certificate, stating the number and class or series of shares held by such holder as shown in the securities register. Such certificates shall be in such form as the Board may from time to time approve and need not be under corporate seal. Any such certificate shall be signed in accordance with para. 2.4.

7.5. Replacement of Share Certificates

The Board, or any officer or agent designated by the Board, may direct the issue of a new share or other such certificate in lieu of and upon cancellation of a certificate that has been mutilated or in substitution for a certificate claimed to have been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken, on payment of such reasonable fee and on such terms as to indemnity, reimbursement of expenses and evidence of loss and of title as the Board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

7.6. Joint Shareholders

If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share of the Corporation, the Corporation shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of such share, and delivery of such certificate to one of such persons shall be sufficient delivery to all of them. Any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for the certificate issued in respect of such share or for any dividend, bonus, return of capital or other money payable or warrant issuable in respect of such share.

7.7. Deceased Shareholders

In the event of the death of a holder, or of one of the joint holders, of any share of the Corporation, the Corporation shall not be required to make any entry in the securities register in respect of the death or to make any dividend or other payments in respect of the share except upon production of all such documents as may be required by law and upon compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Corporation.

7.8. Lien for Indebtedness

The Corporation shall have a lien on shares registered in the name of a shareholder or the shareholder's personal representative for a debt of that shareholder to the Corporation, and such lien may be enforced, subject to the Articles and to any unanimous shareholder agreement, by the sale of such shares subject to the lien or by any other action, suit, remedy or proceeding authorized or permitted by law or by equity and, pending such enforcement, the Corporation may refuse to register a transfer of the whole or any part of such shares.

8. Dividends

8.1. Dividends

Subject to the Act, the Board may from time to time declare dividends payable to the shareholders according to their respective rights and interests in the Corporation. Dividends may be paid in money or property or by issuing fully paid shares of the Corporation. Any dividend unclaimed after a period of [6] years from the date on which it has been declared to be payable shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Corporation.

8.2. Record Date for Dividends

The Board may, within the period prescribed by the Act, fix in advance a date as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend. Notice of the record date shall be given within the period prescribed by the Act in the manner provided by the Act. If no record date is so fixed, the record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board passes the resolution relating to such dividend.

9. Meetings of Shareholders

9.1. Annual Meetings

Subject to the Act, the Board shall call an annual meeting of shareholders: (a) not later than 18 months after the Corporation comes into existence; and (b) subsequently, not later than 15 months after holding the last preceding annual meeting but no later than 6 months after the end of the Corporation's preceding financial year. The annual meeting of shareholders shall be held for the purpose of considering the financial statements and reports required by the Act to be placed before the annual meeting of shareholders, electing Directors, appointing auditors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the annual meeting of shareholders.

9.2. Special Meetings

The Board shall have power to call a Special Meeting of Shareholders at any time.

9.3. Place of Meetings

Meetings of Shareholders shall be held at the registered office of the Corporation or elsewhere in Canada if the Board shall so determine. A Meeting of Shareholders may be held at a place outside Canada if the place is specified in the Articles or all the shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting of Shareholders agree that the Meeting of Shareholders is to be held at that place. A shareholder who attends a Meeting of Shareholders held outside Canada is deemed to have agreed to it being held outside Canada except when the shareholder attends the Meeting of Shareholders for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the Meeting of Shareholders is not lawfully held.

9.4. Participation in Meeting by Electronic Means

Any person entitled to attend a Meeting of Shareholders may participate in it, in accordance with the Act, by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the Meeting of Shareholders, if the Corporation makes available such a communication facility. A person participating in a Meeting of Shareholders by such means is deemed for the purposes of the Act to be present at the Meeting of Shareholders.

9.5. Meeting Held by Electronic Means

If the Directors or the shareholders of the Corporation call a Meeting of Shareholders pursuant to the Act, those Directors or shareholders, as the case may be, may determine that the Meeting of Shareholders shall be held, in accordance with the Act, entirely by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the Meeting of Shareholders.

9.6. Notice of Meetings

Notice of the time and place of each Meeting of Shareholders shall be given in the manner provided in para. 10 not less than [10] nor more than [50] days before the date of the Meeting of Shareholders to each Director, to the auditor, and to each shareholder who at the close of business on the record date for notice is entered in the securities register as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at the Meeting of Shareholders. Notice of a Meeting of Shareholders called for any purpose other than consideration of the financial statements and auditor's report, election of Directors and reappointment of the incumbent auditor shall state the nature of such business in sufficient detail to permit the shareholder to form a reasoned judgment thereon and shall state the text of any special resolution to be submitted to the Meeting of Shareholders.

9.7. List of Shareholders Entitled to Notice

For every Meeting of Shareholders, the Corporation shall prepare a list of shareholders entitled to receive notice of the Meeting of Shareholders, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the number of shares held by each shareholder entitled to vote at the Meeting of Shareholders. If a record date for the Meeting of Shareholders is fixed pursuant to para. 9.8, the shareholders listed shall be those registered at the close of business on such record date. If no record date is fixed, the shareholders listed shall be those registered at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which notice of the Meeting of Shareholders is given or, if no such notice is given, on the day on which the Meeting of Shareholders is held. The list shall be available for examination by any shareholder during usual business hours at the registered office of the Corporation or at the place where the central securities register is maintained, and at the Meeting of Shareholders for which the list was prepared. If a separate list of shareholders has not been prepared, the names of persons appearing in the securities register at the requisite time as the holder of one or more shares carrying the right to vote at such Meeting of Shareholders shall be deemed to be a list of shareholders.

9.8. Record Date for Notice

The Board may, within the period prescribed by the Act, fix in advance a date as the record date for determination of the shareholders: (a) entitled to receive notice of a Meeting of Shareholders; and (b) entitled to vote at a Meeting of Shareholders. Unless waived in accordance with the Act, notice of any such record date shall be given within the period prescribed by the Act before such record date, by newspaper advertisement in the manner provided in the Act. If no record date is fixed, then such record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the Meeting of Shareholders shall be at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the notice is given or, if no notice is given, the day on which the Meeting of Shareholders is held.

9.9. Meetings without Notice

A Meeting of Shareholders may be held without notice at any time and place permitted by the Act: (a) if all the shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting of Shareholders are present in person or duly represented or if those not present or represented waive notice of or otherwise consent to such Meeting of Shareholders being held; and (b) if the auditors and the Directors are present or waive notice of or otherwise consent to such Meeting of Shareholders being held, provided that such shareholders, auditors or Directors present are not attending for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the Meeting of Shareholders is not lawfully called. At such Meeting of Shareholders any business may be transacted which the Corporation may transact at a Meeting of Shareholders. If the Meeting of Shareholders is held at a place outside Canada, shareholders not present or duly represented, but who have waived notice of or otherwise consented to such Meeting of Shareholders, shall also be deemed to have consented to the Meeting of Shareholders being held at such place.

9.10. Chair, Secretary and Scrutineers

The chair of any Meeting of Shareholders shall be the first mentioned of such of the following officers as have been appointed and who is present at the Meeting of Shareholders: president, chair of the Board, or a vice president who is a shareholder. If no such officer is present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for holding the Meeting of Shareholders, the persons present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chair. If the secretary of the Corporation is absent, the chair shall appoint some person, who need not be a shareholder, to act as secretary of the Meeting of Shareholders. If desired, one or more scrutineers, who need not be shareholders, may be appointed by a resolution or by the chair with the consent of the Meeting of Shareholders.

9.11. Persons Entitled to be Present

The only persons entitled to be present at a Meeting of Shareholders shall be those entitled to vote at the Meeting of Shareholders, the Directors and auditors of the Corporation and others who, although not entitled to vote, are entitled or required under any provision of the Act, the Articles, the By-Laws or any unanimous shareholder agreement to be present at the Meeting of Shareholders. Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the chair of the Meeting of Shareholders or with the approval of the majority of shareholders at the Meeting of Shareholders.

9.12. Quorum

Subject to the Act in respect of a majority shareholder and para. 9.22, a quorum for the transaction of business at any Meeting of Shareholders shall be two persons present in person, each being a shareholder entitled to vote at the Meeting of Shareholders or a duly appointed proxyholder or representative for a shareholder so entitled. If a quorum is present at the opening of any Meeting of Shareholders, the shareholders present or represented may proceed with the business of the Meeting of Shareholders notwithstanding that a quorum is not present throughout the Meeting of Shareholders. If a quorum is not present at the opening of any Meeting of Shareholders, the shareholders present or represented may adjourn the Meeting of Shareholders to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

9.13. Right to Vote

Every person named in the list referred to in para. 9.7 shall be entitled to vote the shares shown thereon opposite such person's name at the Meeting of Shareholders to which such list relates.

9.14. Proxyholders and Representatives

Every shareholder entitled to vote at a Meeting of Shareholders may appoint a proxyholder, or one or more alternate proxyholders, to attend and act as the shareholder's representative at the Meeting of Shareholders in the manner and to the extent authorized and with the authority conferred by the proxy. A proxy shall be in writing executed by the shareholder or the shareholder's attorney authorized in writing and shall conform with the requirements of the Act. Alternatively, every such shareholder which is a body corporate or association may authorize by resolution of its directors or governing body an individual to represent it at a Meeting of Shareholders and such individual may exercise on the shareholder's behalf all the powers it could exercise if it were an individual shareholder. The authority of such an individual shall be established by depositing with the Corporation a certified copy of such resolution, or in such other manner as may be satisfactory to the secretary of the Corporation or the chair of the Meeting of Shareholders. Any such proxyholder or representative need not be a shareholder.

9.15. Time for Deposit of Proxies

The Board may specify in a notice calling a Meeting of Shareholders a time not exceeding the time of such Meeting of Shareholders by more than 48 hours, excluding Saturdays and holidays, preceding any Meeting of Shareholders or adjournment of it before which time proxies to be used at such Meeting of Shareholders must be deposited with the Corporation or its agent. A proxy shall be acted upon only if, prior to the time so specified, it shall have been deposited with the Corporation or an agent of it specified in such notice or if, no such time having been specified in such notice, it has been received by the secretary of the Corporation or by the chair of the Meeting of Shareholders or any adjournment of it prior to the time of voting.

9.16. Joint Shareholders

If two or more persons hold shares jointly, any one of them present in person or duly represented at a Meeting of Shareholders may, in the absence of the other or others, vote the shares, but if two or more of those persons are present in person or represented and vote, they shall vote as one the shares jointly held by them.

9.17. Votes to Govern

At any Meeting of Shareholders every question shall, unless otherwise required by the Articles, the By-Laws or any unanimous shareholder agreement, be determined by a majority of the votes cast on the question. Subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement, in case of an equality of votes, either upon a show of hands or upon a poll, the chair of the Meeting of Shareholders shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

9.18. Show of Hands

Subject to the Act, any question at a Meeting of Shareholders shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a ballot is required or demanded for such question as provided in this By-Law, and upon a show of hands every person who is present and entitled to vote shall have one vote. Whenever a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot is required or demanded for such question, a declaration by the chair of the Meeting of Shareholders that the vote upon the question has been carried or carried by a particular majority or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the Meeting of Shareholders shall be prima facie evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against any resolution or other proceeding in respect of such question, and the result of the vote so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon such question. Any vote referred to in this para. 9.18 may be held, in accordance with the Act, partly or entirely by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility, if the Corporation makes available such a communication facility. Any person participating in a Meeting of Shareholders under paras. 9.4 or 9.5 and entitled to vote at that Meeting of Shareholders may vote by means of the telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that the Corporation has made available for that purpose.

9.19. Ballots

On any question proposed for consideration at a Meeting of Shareholders, and whether or not a show of hands has been taken upon such question, the chair may require a ballot or any person who is present and entitled to vote on such question at the Meeting of Shareholders may demand a ballot. A ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chair shall direct. A requirement or demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to the taking of the ballot. If a ballot is taken, each person present shall be entitled, in respect of the shares which such person is entitled to vote at the Meeting of Shareholders upon the question, to that number of votes provided by the Act or the Articles, and the result of the ballot so taken shall be the decision of the shareholders upon such question.

9.20. Adjournment

The chair at a Meeting of Shareholders may, with the consent of the Meeting of Shareholders and subject to such conditions as the Meeting of Shareholders may decide, adjourn the Meeting of Shareholders from time to time and from place to place. If a Meeting of Shareholders is adjourned for less than 30 days, it shall not be necessary to give notice of the adjourned Meeting of Shareholders, other than by announcement at the earliest Meeting of Shareholders that is adjourned. Subject to the Act, if a Meeting of Shareholders is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned Meeting of Shareholders shall be given as for an original Meeting of Shareholders.

9.21. Action in Writing by Shareholders

A resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a Meeting of Shareholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a Meeting of Shareholders, unless a written statement with respect to the subject matter of the resolution is submitted by a Director or the auditor, in each case in accordance with the Act.

9.22. Only One Shareholder

If the Corporation has only one shareholder, or only one holder of any class or series of shares, the shareholder present in person or duly represented constitutes a Meeting of Shareholders.

10. Notices

10.1. Method of Giving Notices

Any notice (which term includes any communication or document) to be given (which term includes sent, delivered or served) pursuant to the Act, the Articles, the By-Laws or otherwise to a shareholder, Director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the Board shall be sufficiently given: (a) if delivered personally to the person to whom it is to be given; (b) if mailed to such person at the person's Recorded Address by prepaid mail; or (c) if transmitted by electronic means in accordance with the Act. A notice so delivered shall be deemed to have been given and received when it is delivered personally or to the Recorded Address; a notice so mailed shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in a post office or public letter box and deemed received at the time it would be delivered in the ordinary course of mail; and a notice so sent by any means of transmitted or recorded communication shall be considered given and received at the times prescribed by the Act. The secretary may change or cause to be changed the Recorded Address of any shareholder, Director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the Board in accordance with any information believed by the secretary to be reliable.

10.2. Notice to Joint Shareholders

If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any notice may be addressed to all such joint holders, but notice addressed to one of such persons shall be sufficient notice to all of them.

10.3. Computation of Time

In computing the date when notice must be given under any provision requiring a specified number of days' notice of any meeting or other event, the day of giving the notice shall be excluded and the day of the meeting or other event shall be included.

10.4. Undelivered Notices

If any notice given to a shareholder pursuant to para. 10.1 is returned on two consecutive occasions because the shareholder cannot be found, the Corporation shall not be required to give any further notices to such shareholder until informed in writing by the shareholder of a new address.

10.5. Omissions and Errors

The accidental omission to give any notice to any shareholder, Director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the Board or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person or any error in any notice not affecting the substance of the notice shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded on the notice.

10.6. Persons Entitled by Death or Operation of Law

Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, death of a shareholder or any other means whatsoever becomes entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which shall have been duly given to the shareholder from whom such person derives title to such share prior to the name and address of such person being entered on the securities register (whether such notice was given before or after the happening of the event upon which such person became so entitled) and prior to such person furnishing to the Corporation the proof of authority or evidence of entitlement prescribed by the Act.

10.7. Waiver of Notice

Any shareholder, proxyholder, Director, officer, auditor or member of a committee of the Board, or any other person entitled to receive notice of a Meeting of Shareholders or any other notice from the Corporation, may at any time waive any notice, or waive or abridge the time for any notice, required to be given to such person under the Act, the Articles, the By-Laws or otherwise. Any such waiver or abridgement, whether given before or after the meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given, shall cure any default in the giving or in the time of such notice, as the case may be. Any such waiver or abridgement shall be in writing, except a waiver of notice of a Meeting of Shareholders or of the Board or a committee of the Board may be given in any manner.

11. Effective Date and Repeal

11.1. Effective Date

This By-Law shall come into force when made by the Board in accordance with the Act.

11.2. Repeal

All previous by-laws of the Corporation are repealed as of the coming into force of This By-Law. Such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of any by-law so repealed, or affect the validity of any act done or right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or incurred under, or the validity of any contract or agreement made pursuant to, or the validity of any articles (as defined in the Act) or predecessor charter documents of the Corporation obtained pursuant to, any such by-law prior to its repeal. All officers and persons acting under any by-law so repealed shall continue to act as if appointed under the provisions of This By-Law and all resolutions of the shareholders or the Board or a committee of the Board with continuing effect passed under any repealed by-law shall continue to be good and valid except to the extent inconsistent with This By-Law and until amended or repealed.

This By-Law was made by the Director(s) on _____ day of _____ 20____, and was confirmed without variation by the shareholders of the Corporation on _____ day of _____ 20____.
