

Fraternal Orders Exposed – Black America's Secret Sin

Table of Contents

- Intro
- Quick Facts
- The Borrowed Elements of BGLOs
- The Divine Nine
    - How to Renounce (the right way)
- Damage Control

 A Deeper Look at the Problem

 The Masonic Connection

- Black Greek Letter Organizations
- The Order of the Eastern Star

*Be sure to share the link with family and friends. Sharing through text and email, not just social media, will probably be best because the powers-that-be will limit its reach on social media.

*Important!
For Youtube videos, click on the link, then click on the title of the video in the small pop-up.

*Tip!
If watching a video, and you want to get through it faster, go to the gear icon and increase the playback speed of the video.

Intro

The focus of this project is on the Black fraternal orders you find at colleges and universities – the fraternities and sororities (also called academic orders) – and those you find outside of these institutions, such as Prince Hall Freemasonry and the Order of the Eastern Star. Through my years of research on various topics, I ran into Freemasonry again and again so was already familiar with the secrets of Freemasonry before starting on this project. But what I didn't know, and what shocked me to the core, was the truth about Black fraternities and sororities. I am truly disturbed, angered, and absolutely disgusted by what I found. ... tricking people into making covenants with spirits; tricking people into worshipping spirits; tricking people into getting possessed; tricking people into selling their soul – this, and more, is what they're doing. You'll see. Note: Prince Hall Freemasonry is exposed through exposing Freemasonry in The Masonic Connection.

Quick Facts

- Greek gods. I think even atheists know that the God of the Bible is vehemently opposed to a person bowing down to, worshipping, vowing to, presenting an offering to, or singing a song to a Greek god.

- The reverence that is given to the founders in most, if not all, Greek organizations amounts to veneration of the dead. This is what you see in ancestor worship. And in these Greek orgs it's usually done in a way that treats the founder(s) as some sort of god(s). This is a problem, and not just in regards to idolatry. The way it is done, and the fact that it's being done to spirits (dead people) means it's being directed toward the spirit realm. This means they are initiating contact with the spirit realm, which gives a spirit(s) the right to enter the environment or person. This is not speculation. This is a fact. This is a law. A prime example of this can be seen with a Ouija Board. People seeing words spelled out and having questions answered may not always be spiritually related, but real spiritual phenomena can occur. But it's not the board that is special. It's not the board itself that has power. It's the design and purpose of the board that brings together your intent and an action taken toward initiating contact. That's the trigger. And that's when things can happen.

- "God" and "Lord" are actually titles, not proper names. When secret societies use these titles, or similar ones, even in the presence of the Bible or in conjunction with Bible verses, they're not actually referring to the God of the Bible. In most cases you would need to rise higher within the organization to discover this.

- Most people who join these Greek organizations are not aware of what it is they're truly doing. It's similar to how most people who join Freemasonry don't truly know what they have said or done when they joined, and have no idea of what the organization is truly about. This is especially true for those who joined decades ago when there was no internet. How much grace is given to such a person is up to God, and is dealt with on an individual basis. But if it's brought to their attention that they may have transgressed by joining, and they don't go look into it to see if this is so, that's when grace will dry up.

- Before the 2000's it was more widely preached to Black youth seeking to attend college that joining a Greek org in college would act as a booster for the obtainment of success in life. And of the Blacks who did join, for nearly all of them, this was the reason they joined. There wasn't some sinister intent, and they definitely didn't see themselves as being a part of some grand conspiracy, as some internet users today exclaim. Many are literally just trying to look good on paper for their future employers, or be helped somewhere down the line by a brother or sister of the org.

- The members try to claim things, while non-members try to blame things. What I mean by that is that whenever an important person or group of people of the past were members of a Greek org, members today will try to claim that the important things done by the person or people were due to their affiliation with the Greek org. As if they weren't already special before joining the org; and as if the org made them who they were ("They came out of...."). Non-members will point to a person or people's affiliation with a Greek org as the only evidence needed to prove that they were a part of a conspiracy.

- It is very likely that if you were to look deeper at the history and associates connected to the founders and ideologies of these Black Greek organizations you would find non-Blacks and an actual conspiracy.

- "All fraternities and sororities are demonic!" Every single one? There are a very large number of these organizations in existence today. And when it comes to the Black orgs, there are more than just the nine popular ones. Have you looked at all of their initiations, ceremonies, songs, and the like to be able to make such a statement?

- If you are going to join a fraternity or sorority (or any group) you have to ensure that God will not be displeased with your decision, and that you are not transgressing by doing so. You also have to ensure that God will not be displeased and that you are not transgressing if you undergo an initiation or hazing, state words or sing a song, enter a covenant/contract, or bow before an object. [Or whatever else is involved.] In other words, His approval and your walk should take priority over everything you are asked to do and say, or not do or say. But there would have to be a very rare circumstance for you to bow before an object in such a setting and not be seen as doing something extremely wrong in God's eyes.

- One overlooked issue associated with joining fraternal orders, especially those where secrecy is a major component, is being unaware of the true spiritual state, beliefs and practices of the head(s) of the order.

- Hazing. You want something so badly that you're willing to go through "this," and put up with "that." If this is the case, and you're not forced, then how can you not share in the blame, or be entirely to blame, for the consequences? And unless the hazing process consists of something unrighteous, I don't see it being against God. But ... there may be, most likely will be, an issue down the line when He looks for and/or requests the same perseverance and sacrifice from you. And it's highly likely that you will not deliver. And that's going to be a problem.

The Borrowed Elements of BGLOs

What you're going to see and hear in the next section (The Divine Nine) is already shocking enough, but adding the information in this section will take it to the next level. The information in this section will give you the eyes to see and ears to hear what some of these organizations are actually engaging in, and tricking others to engage in. And you may have already seen some renouncement videos and heard some statements made by former members, but trust me, gaining this knowledge first and then watching the videos will totally expose the truth of what these orgs are pushing without a doubt. I've included some of the similarities mentioned in the videos (only some) here in this section after the learning portion just to show you a little bit. Just keep reading; you'll see.

"The ancient Greeks did not have a word for 'religion' in the modern sense. Likewise, no Greek writer is known to have classified either the gods or the cult practices into separate 'religions'. Instead, for example, Herodotus speaks of the Hellenes as having 'common shrines of the gods and sacrifices, and the same kinds of customs'. Most ancient Greeks recognized the twelve major Olympian gods and goddesses—Zeus, Hera, Poseidon, Demeter, Athena, Ares, Aphrodite, Apollo, Artemis, Hephaestus, Hermes, and either Hestia or Dionysus— ... Greek ceremonies and rituals were mainly performed at altars, which were never inside temples, but often just outside, or standing by themselves somewhere. These were typically devoted to one or a few gods, and supported a statue of the particular deity. Votive deposits were left at the altar, such as food, drinks, as well as precious objects. Sometimes animal sacrifices were performed here, with most of the flesh taken for eating and the offal burnt as an offering to the gods. Libations, often of wine, would be offered to the gods as well, not only at shrines, but also in everyday life, such as during a symposium."

Source: Ancient Greek religion

"Hellenism (Greek: Ἑλληνισμός)[a] is the modern pluralistic religion practiced in Greece and around the world by several communities derived from Ancient Greek beliefs, mythology, and rituals from Classical antiquity through and up to today. It is a system of thought and spirituality with a shared culture and values, and common ritualistic, linguistic, and literary tradition. More broadly, Hellenism centers itself on the worship of Hellenic deities, namely the twelve Olympians.[1] Greeks who identify their religion and way of life with Hellenism are commonly referred to as Εθνικοί Έλληνες (ethnic Hellenes). Non-Greek devotees of the Greek gods who embody Hellenic ideals are commonly referred to as Hellenists. Hellenism is sometimes referred to as a Pagan religion; this classification is also at times used as a pejorative for Greeks."
Source: Hellenism (modern religion)

Watch 14:04 - 18:01

Altars, Shrines & Sacred Spaces | HELLENISM 101
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PS5XnkSKneo&t=844s

"Necromancy (/ˈnɛkrəmænsi/) is the practice of magic involving communication with the dead by summoning their spirits as apparitions or visions for the purpose of divination; imparting the means to foretell future events and discover hidden knowledge. Sometimes categorized under death magic, the term is occasionally also used in a more general sense to refer to black magic or witchcraft as a whole. ... Early necromancy was related to – and most likely evolved from – forms of shamanism or prehistoric ritual magic that calls upon spirits such as the ghosts of deceased forebears. Classical necromancers addressed the dead in 'a mixture of high-pitch squeaking and low droning', comparable to the trance-state mutterings of shamans. ... Rituals could be quite elaborate, involving magic circles, wands, talismans, and incantations. The necromancer might also surround himself with morbid aspects of death, which often included wearing the deceased's clothing and consuming foods that symbolized lifelessness and decay such as unleavened black bread and unfermented grape juice. ... These ceremonies could carry on for hours, days, or even weeks, leading up to the eventual summoning of spirits. ... The act of performing medieval necromancy usually involved magic circles, conjurations, and sacrifices such as those shown in the Munich Manual of Demonic Magic:

- Circles were usually traced on the ground, though cloth and parchment were sometimes used. Various objects, shapes, symbols, and letters may be drawn or placed within that represent a mixture of Christian and occult ideas. Circles were usually believed to empower and protect what was contained within, including protecting the necromancer from the conjured demons. A text known as the Heptameron explain the function of the circle thusly: 'But because the greatest power is attributed to the Circles; (For they are certain fortresses to defend the operators safe from the evil Spirits;)...'

- Conjuration is the method of communicating with the demons to have them enter the physical world. It usually employs the power of special words and stances to call out the demons and often incorporated the use of Christian prayers or biblical verses. These conjurations may be repeated in succession or repeated to different directions until the summoning is complete.

- Sacrifice was the payment for summoning; though it may involve the flesh of a human being or animal, it could sometimes be as simple as offering a certain object. Instructions for obtaining these items were usually specific. The time, location, and method of gathering items for sacrifice could also play an important role in the ritual."

Source: Necromancy

- "These ceremonies could carry on for hours, days, or even weeks, leading up to the eventual summoning of spirits."

“A ritual circle (or magic circle) is a circle of space marked out by practitioners of many branches of witchcraft and ritual magic, either to contain energy and form a sacred space, or as a form of magical protection, or both. It may be marked physically (drawn in salt or chalk, for example) or merely visualised. ... As the members of the coven stand within a circle, holding hands (or sometimes dancing, drumming, chanting or performing various other ritual gestures) and focussing on a single point above and in the centre of the circle, they can raise energy in a ‘cone of power’ with the circle forming its base.”
Source: Witchcraft Terms and Tools - Ritual Circle
http://www.lukemastin.com/witchcraft/terms_ritual_circle.html

“When most people think of a group of witches, the word that immediately springs to mind is coven. This is arguably the most widely recognized and historically significant term. Think of the classic image: a circle of witches, perhaps under the moonlight, engaged in ritual and shared practice. ... Another term you'll frequently encounter is circle. This term is often used more broadly than coven and can refer to any group of witches coming together for a specific purpose or ritual. It emphasizes the circular arrangement, which is deeply symbolic in many spiritual practices, representing unity, completeness, and the cyclical nature of life."

Source: What Is A Group Of Witches Called
https://projects.linguistics.ubc.ca/what-is-a-group-of-witches-called/

"Within one group, you can have some people who consider it a Coven, others who think of it as a Moon group or Circle, others who don't really have a name for it but value the community of spiritual practice. Some may call themselves Witches, some Wiccans, and some Goddess-worshippers."
Source: Covens, Circles, & Solitary Wicca Practice
https://www.wicca-spirituality.com/covens.html

"For more than a thousand years, alchemists and magicians have worked with the four elements of the universe. While most spiritual seekers have a basic knowledge of these four elements, and the more nebulous fifth element, spirit, few realize that the energies of the elements are a key to their magical practice."
Source: Elemental Magick: Reconnect with Nature through Spells, Rituals, and Meditations
https://www.barnesandnoble.com/w/elemental-magick-d-j-conway/1132798818

"Water, earth, air, and fire are fundamental building blocks of life that exists in the physical world. The lakes, streams, and oceans, the rocks and soil, the wind and atmosphere, the sun and energy, these are examples of the physical form in which we see the elements. Equally, if not more important are the vibrational qualities of these four elements. Textures, tastes, smells, sights and sounds — pretty much everything — can be grouped into one of the elemental categories. When you understand these connections, you can draw on these elements in your magic to produce the outcome you desire."
Source: The Ultimate Guide to the Four Elements
https://www.mumblesandthings.com/blog/four-elements

Keep going. It will all make sense later.

“Throughout the history of witchcraft, the four elements of Earth, Air, Fire and Water have been used as powerful tools for spiritual practitioners, literally since the beginning of times. In modern witchcraft traditions you can find them predominantly in Wicca rituals, but working with them is, of course, not exclusive to wiccans. The elements, which are the building blocks of nature, are believed to have transformative properties when used in magical practice. Each element has its own unique characteristics and is associated with different spells, rituals, and energies. ... Earth is the element of stability and strength, and it is associated with the physical body, the cycles of life and death, and the material world. ... Air is the element of communication and intellect, and it is associated with the mind, communication, and knowledge. ... Fire is the element of passion and transformation, and it is associated with the will, power, and transformation. ... Water is the element of emotion and intuition, and it is associated with the emotions, intuition, and the subconscious.”
Source: The Power of the Four Elements in Witchcraft: Earth, Air, Fire and Water
https://www.magickandwitchcraft.com/post/four-elements-in-witchcraft

These associations may differ slightly depending on the source.

“The four elements, earth, air, fire, and water, are physical materials and energies that comprise the world around us. If you don't already work with the four elements in your practice, you've likely heard of them because they're rather tricky to avoid as so many spiritual practices refer to them in some way. ... One of the first written examples of the four elements comes from the Greek philosopher Empedocles in the fifth century BCE. Empedocles refers to them as the four roots and assigns each element or ‘root’ to a Greek God or Goddess as follows, Hera with earth, Zeus with air, Aidoneus with fire, and Nestis with water (though there is some debate over this, this is the consensus.) The Gods and Goddesses Empedocles associated with each element is less important (to me) than the fact that he did associate them with Gods and Goddesses. Because Empedocles gave these elements spiritual significance by corresponding each with a God or Goddess, it indicates that he viewed them as having a deeper meaning than mere elements on a periodic table."

Source: Understanding the 4 Elements & Using them to Shift Your Energy
https://www.cassieuhl.com/blog/understanding-the-4-elements-using-them-to-shift-your-energy

"One of the simplest ways to start an earth-based spiritual practice is through connecting with the natural elements. This is something that is so foundational to my own practice that I often forget to share about it. Yet I know a lot of women are just starting out with finding their way into elemental magic. Do you know the popular chant that goes 'Earth, my body. Water, my blood. Air, my breath and Fire my spirit'? It's a beautiful chant that reminds us that we are made of the same elements as nature. Many of my suggestions involve being in nature and working with altars. I recognize that creating altars isn't everyone's path so I don't want anyone thinking they're not a 'proper witch' because they don't have an altar. This is a way that we can cut ourselves down or think that we're not doing enough or not being enough. ... And so let's begin with Earth. Earth, my body. The Earth element is associated with our physical bodies. ... Air, my breath. Air is associated with the mind – the mental realm of thoughts. ... Water, my blood. The element of water connects us to our emotions, our emotional body. ... Fire, my spirit. For most women starting out on any kind of 'witchy' path, candle magic or fire rituals seem to be the most common. Fire connects us to our creativity. It's our passion, our willpower."

Source: Getting Started with Elemental Magic https://floraware.ca/getting-started-with-elemental-magic/

“So what makes a candle transform from the mundane to the magical? It’s the intent. What separates candle magic from regular candle-lighting is the act of setting an intention. In other words, by writing a spell. And with this spell, you’re doing magic. ... An intention, in the context of magic, is a specific statement made as if it has already happened. Instead of writing I will improve my diet, you might write something in the past tense that’s more specific to your situation, like After two weeks, I will have eaten the recommended amount of fruits and vegetables, each day, every day, of those two weeks. See how more impactful the second statement is? ... There is magic everywhere. So the objects you use each contribute meaning to your spell that you can then incorporate into your intention. Candle dressing is the act of putting whatever you want directly on your candle: herbs, oil, or crystals to start. This act helps to further define your intention by giving your mind something to latch onto.”
Source: Candle Magic for Beginners
https://www.psychicmediumwitch.com/blog/candle-magic-for-beginners

“Candle magic is one of the simplest forms of magick. Candles represent the intense element of Fire and wand energy. In rituals, they are action-oriented and can be used to set something in motion or call in an energy. To help you set and focus on your intention, choosing the right candle color can help as each has a different spiritual meaning. ... Candle magic is a type of manifestation ritual that is centered around the use of candles to create a desired outcome in a ritual or spell. Those who follow many different spiritual paths use candle magic, including witches. We all know the element of Fire has a powerful, transformative effect, which is one reason so many witches use candle magic. It’s relatively simple, direct, and (usually) fast. Another is that some believe you can use candle magic to connect with deities, guides, and the spirit realm. If you don’t think you’ve ever performed candle magick, think back to your last birthday. When you wished on the candles flickering on your birthday cake then blew them out, that was a spell. You were doing magic! The ritual of blowing out birthday candles actually goes back to the Ancient Greeks. For birthdays, they baked Full Moon cakes in honor of the goddess Artemis and then lit them with candles so they would reflect like the Moon.”

Source: Your Guide to Candle Color Meanings and Candle Magick https://www.pagangrimoire.com/candle-color-meanings/

- “In rituals, they are action-oriented and can be used to set something in motion or call in an energy.”

“There are probably ten zillion candle spells out there, and a dozen good resources on candle spellcraft. Why not, I thought, make a step-by-step cheat sheet on crafting a spell candle for magical use? So, without further ado, here’s my process for candle magic: 1. Choose your Candle. Depending on the spell or the intent, you’ll want to select a color of candle appropriate to your use. Look up the color correspondence for your spell, such as green for prosperity or pink for love, if you need to. ... 2. Mark it Well. Here’s where you inscribe your candle with intent. A simple way to do this is to look up the runes pertaining to your intent, then scratching them into your candle. You can also draw them on in color with a good marker or a natural paint such as ground juniper berries. Some Witches swear by a hot needle. If runes aren’t your thing, you can write in words, use a sigil, or any other demarcation you like. 3. Anoint your Candle. ... 4. Make your Spell. This is my favorite part! Gather any correspondences appropriate to your spell, and arrange them in any way you see fit around the candle. Many Witches like to create a decorative circle. Common items of correspondence you can use in your spell are tarot cards (pick one of the Major Arcana, or perhaps a Court card, that represents your intent), corresponding crystals, corresponding herbs, and corresponding flowers and plants. You can, of course, use any symbol pertaining to your cause that you like! There are several tables, and, of course, searchable resources that you can go through to find the right correspondences, such as the herbs for Athena or the right crystals for protection magic. Then - light your candle at the right magickal time, focus your intent, and enjoy your spellcasting. Simple as that!”
Source: Candle Magic Cheat Sheet
https://theoryofmagick.tumblr.com/post/130068964785/candle-magic-cheat-sheet

Witch Altar Basics (Wicca Tips & Ideas) Baby Witches Set Up your First Pagan Sacred Space
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FnOaJr6-dc0

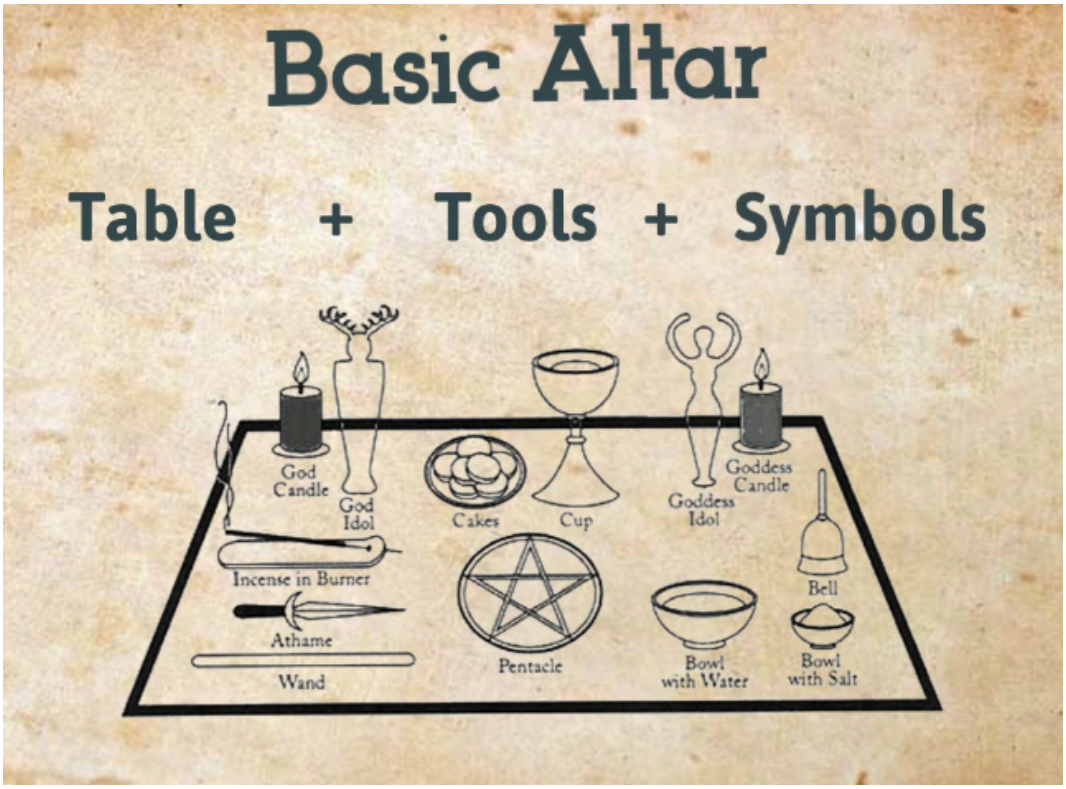

- 0:32 – "When casting spells, we use the word 'altar' to talk about our work table. Actually, it could be any flat surface and even just a mat on the floor. Your altar will be the focal point of your spells or rituals, and it is where most ritual actions and Magical works will be performed. Setting up a basic altar is quite simple, usually it's just a table where you will place the tools you are about to use and any symbols depicting your beliefs. The first rule of your pagan altar is that anything goes."

- 1:51 – "No matter what kind of altar you are creating, it is advisable to cover its surface with a piece of cloth that will act both as an ornament and as protection from liquids, scratching, and wax drippings. Go shopping for an altar cloth and if you see any that you like and have some symbols on it, ask about their meanings. Some witches like to change their altar cloth according to the type of ritual they are doing, or following the Wheel of the Year, having a different one for each season and each pagan holiday. If you're on a budget, simply use any piece of cloth that you have at home."

- 2:27 – "If you are an eclectic practitioner and feel connected to Christianity, Buddhism, Hinduism or anything other spiritual traditions, you can add images or figures that symbolize your beliefs and remind you of who you are. If you are devoted to a specific deity, you could add a statue or drawing of them on your altar."

- 3:08 – "If you plan to work with Candle Magic, you'll need at least one candle holder."

- end of commentary -

Notice the “Goddess Idol” and “Goddess Candle.”

Brooklyn Witch Answers Questions and Debunks Myths About Magic
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sYrm9YZBeqs

Former occultist turned Christian, Bill Schnoebelen, stated the following in a video below in Additional Information: “And I interacted with these people and ... at a certain point, they said, ‘Well, if you want to go any further and become a satanic priest, you need to, you know, sell your soul to the devil.’ And so they took me to this park in Glen Ellyn, Illinois, which is like a suburb of Chicago. I don't know if it's still there or not, but it was a very weird park. This was broad daylight and they said, ‘Don't worry about it.’ You know, ‘The cops are all devil worshipers.’ And in the center of the park, there was this like area where they had these weird Egyptian statues. There was like, there literally was an altar with horns.... Kind of like the pictures you see of the altar in the temple of Solomon, you know, that kind of thing. And they brought out this black book and there were all these names in it; and this one supposed high level Satanist kind of officiated, and I swore an oath to Satan, my allegiance to him, that I would serve him for seven years and he would give me everything I wanted – you know, wine, women, song, power, occult power, whatever. ... So I had to sign my name in blood in this black book. And supposedly, this sounds funny, but I was supposed to go out and find seven people to sell their souls to the devil under me, so to speak, sort of like multi-level marketing, but for the devil, and I did."

Beware the Satanic Bargains: Melyssa Ford Exposes Blood-Signed Contracts!" #exposed #revealed https://youtube.com/shorts/KSjkN3zAa4U?si=GXx5loNyxFHXpa9T
- Alternate sources: 1, 2

Here's an image from a video in Additional Information on the creation of the Order of the Eastern Star, known as female Freemasonry, which was started in the mid to late 1800's. Notice the pillow before the altar.

Here are some screenshots of documents from Delta Sigma Theta taken from videos exposing the org. You can find one of the videos below in The Divine Nine section. They go over this and more in the video.

*The highlighting is not mine.

The Sorority Seal

The Official Seal of the Sorority is a circular engraving with "Delta Sigma Theta – Grand Chapter" surrounding the Crest. Under the Crest is the founding year, "1913." The Grand Chapter was incorporated in 1930.

The Sorority Crest

The Sorority Crest is the official Coat of Arms. It was designed by Soror F. Ailene Marks and Soror Jeannette Triplett Jones, 6th National President, both of Lambda Chapter. It was authorized in 1934 by the National Executive Committee. The official Crest is crimson and cream. The Crest is a composite idea expressing graphically the Sorority's public motto: "Intelligence is the Torch of Wisdom." Minerva (Pallas Athena), the Goddess of Wisdom, is atop the shield which bears the torch, the sword, the staff and the three Greek letters Δ (Delta) Σ (Sigma) Θ (Theta). The sword, representing truth, is a part of Minerva's symbolism. The staff symbolizes intelligent leadership. The laurel wreath is the symbol of achievement as used by the Greeks.

The Sorority Crest must be used in good taste. (Good taste is a reflection of the style and appreciation of beauty that satisfies the Sorority's accepted social and aesthetic standards).

Delta's National Headquarters staff may approve the use of the Crest by vendors upon inspection of the final product, to verify its compliance with Delta's policies and standards. The use of the Crest, symbols and Greek letters are not approved or appropriate for the lining in a casket, on a tombstone, on a funeral program or in an orbituary section of the newspaper.

The Sorority Emblem

The Sorority emblem is the Goddess Minerva (Pallas Athena), Goddess of Wisdom.

The Sorority Colors

Official Sorority Colors

Crimson and cream are the official colors of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated. For practical purposes, the colors red and white are the only recognized substitutes for the official colors.

THE MINERVA CIRCLE

The planning, chapter training and implementation of all intake activities, including the induction and initiation of new members into Delta Sigma Theta, is vested in a committee of active members designated as the Minerva Circle.

It is fitting that the attributes associated with Minerva, the goddess of wisdom, be influential in the minds and spirits of these sorors as they plan and execute their duties. The Minerva Circle is elected to carry out the Sorority's most sacred trust, "The induction of new members into Delta Sigma Theta is the sorority's most sacred trust." The sorors who comprise the Minerva Circle have a major responsibility. It should be recognized as such by the chapter with appropriate appreciation and esteem. Only those sorors who have completed a Membership Intake Workshop by a certified membership intake trainer are eligible to be elected to serve on the Minerva Circle. Collegiate sorors must have the minimum cumulative GPA required for membership in chapters as verified by the chapter advisor in order to be eligible to be elected as a member of the Minerva Circle.

THE MINERVA CIRCLE OF IDENTITY

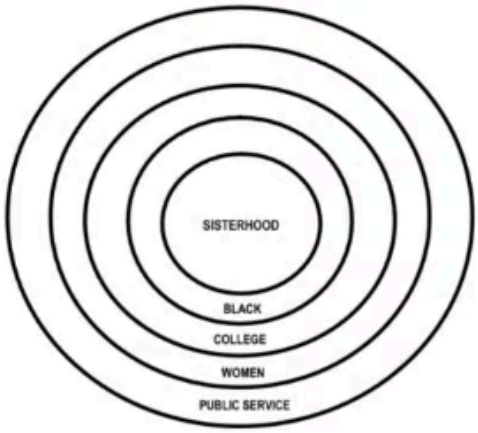

Figure 1

As a re-envisioning of the Founders' mission continued and was tested against current social theories, a corporate identity evolved.

Figure 1 - Illustrates a circle which places Sisterhood at the very core of a corporate identity, with other facets of identity moving further from the core, but all a holistic unit bound in the Minerva Circle.

The Sorority is founded on Christian principles. The Core Identity of the Minerva Circle is Sisterhood, where a deliberate centering of priority identities is intentionally established.

Minerva Circle: a committee of active members.

CANDIDATE: I, (name) _____, do hereby acknowledge that I willingly seek admission to the Pyramid Circle of Delta Sigma Theta, and do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to its goals. I sincerely believe in the ideals of Delta Sigma Theta as they have been explained to me, and I do hereby willingly enter into these initiation activities with the serious intention of achieving the eventual goal of full membership in Delta Sigma Theta.

(Each Candidate signs the Bond and stands. She is pinned by a Soror and given a lighted candle/penlight by the Leader of the Minerva Circle. The Pyramids are seated after the last Pyramid returns to her place.)

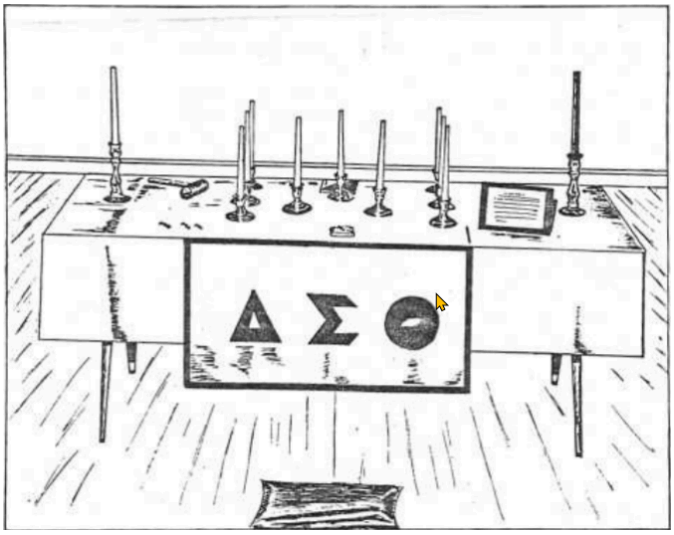

There's also a Pyramid Circle.

MEMBERSHIP IN DELTA SIGMA THETA IS A LIFETIME COMMITMENT

Life's composition is made up of four elements: EARTH, WATER, FIRE and AIR. These are the pertinent conditions in which all human beings live and move and have their being. This has been so since time began, and will forever.

- The physical body is likened to the earth
- The emotional self is like water
- The rational part of us is like air
- The intuitive part of us is fiery

10

Statements of Youtuber La La Jenkins from one of the videos below:
"... and then it kind of goes ... it kind of shifts into these ritual days which is called jewel days. And so there's nine jewels in Delta that they call like nine cardinal jewels. ... So we start doing the jewel days, and when we start doing the jewel days, that's when we start doing rituals. ... So there's ... we're like walking on sand. We're like becoming one with the earth. There's like an altar set up with candles lit. So it's kind of like you're building up. Each jewel day you're doing, you know, different rituals, different demonic rituals. And then it gets to the final ritual, which is the initiation ritual, which is when we, you know, we say vows. And so one of the vows ... the president, she stands before us. ... So we get to the process where we're about to finally get initiated. This is the final ritual that we're doing because we've been doing rituals. This is the final one. And the president is in front of us and she says, 'You are about to take upon yourselves vows and obligations from which you can never be freed.' And she says, 'They will follow you to the final judgment. I charge you that you approach with serious minds as you proceed.' ... Like, the time where she's saying this, we're in all white attire. We're on our knees on this pillow and we're in front of this Delta altar. And of course, as you were asking, at that time, I didn't know it was an altar. I'm just thinking it's just a table. But it has strategic candles. It has the red candle unto Minerva. So I'm just thinking like this is just what we have to do. This is just a part of the process. ..."

The Divine Nine

The Divine Nine (D9) is a name given to nine specific historically Black Greek-letter fraternities and sororities (Black Greek Letter Organizations - BGLOs).

- Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. (1906)
- Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. (1908)
- Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. (1911)
- Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. (1911)
- Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. (1913)
- Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. (1914)
- Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. (1920)
- Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. (1922)
- Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc. (1963)

“The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) serves as the coordinating body for the nine historically Black fraternities and sororities collectively known as the Divine Nine.” (Source: NPHC - About Us)

Take a look at the comment section of this video:

Delta Sigma Theta SPRING 2024 Howard University | Presentation #deltasigmatheta #howarduniversity
https://youtube.com/shorts/8vsEh0kWPKI?si=o15UNVaL2uDsQzTF

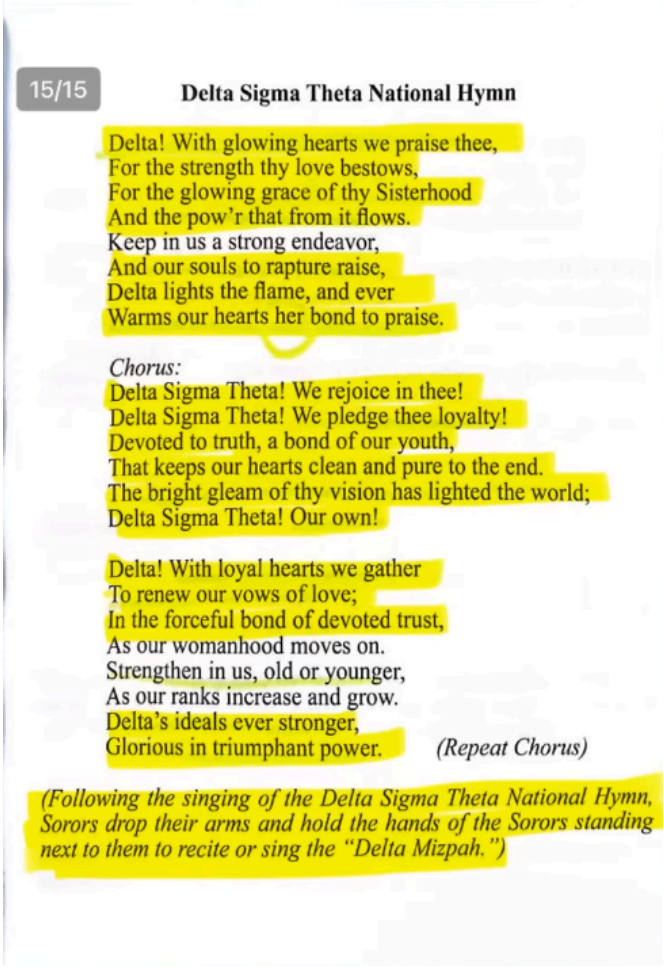

Exposing the True Horrors of Sororities and Fraternities w/ Malissa Blair
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=chKPEIDNbg4

- 1:08:55 – “And we turned around, not even 50 years removed from slavery as Black people, and said, ‘We want to go and look up Greek mythology’ in 1906 and 1913. ‘Oh, you trying to come against Black culture.’ Since when are white deities Black culture anyway? Who told you this was Black culture? ‘Oh, because our founders, they couldn't be a part of the Freemasons and they couldn't....’ You ain't had no business being in it anyway. You ain't had no business messing with that in the first place. 50 years removed from slavery and you telling me these people sent you over to college for you to learn about Minerva? We can't even drink out of a water fountain; you over here learning about Minerva and doing rituals behind the scenes cuz you want to be in a White organization and show them you could do it better than them. You ain't have no business being a part of that in the first place. How is that Black culture? How is that? ‘Oh, they be stealing from us.’ No, you be stealing from them! Black people ain't come up with no Pilates. You up in there talking about Black girl Pilates ... Lululemon.” And yoga, meditation, New Age, the occult, homosexuality, doing porn, celebrity worship, trusting the government, trusting the media, doing “White people drugs,” obsessed with everything rich and luxury, obsessed with looks, and the list goes on. No longer Black but Blackish. Should be called Grey – Black that has taken on so much White that that which once defined it has been lost.

- end of commentary -

Exposing Delta Sigma Theta Rituals! | The Horrors of Sororities and Fraternities | We Need to Talk
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EJasaZx-dv4

- 1:15:04 – “As I wash your hands in pure water, may you feel the energy of a new life force – Delta Sigma Theta.” So, Delta Sigma Theta (Delta) is a life force, or spirit? That would mean that all of those hymns, vows, and so on were directed to this life force. From the previous video: “We had to go give a gift at the altar. Yeah. We had these treasure boxes where we would have a give a gift and at the end we would have a Kwanzaa celebration where it looked like a Ifá table set up, and we would have to light candles; we would have to give gifts at the altar and this was our gift and our sacrifice that we wanted to give of our gift to Delta.”

15/15

Delta Sigma Theta National Hymn

Delta! With glowing hearts we praise thee,
For the strength thy love bestows,
For the glowing grace of thy Sisterhood
And the pow'r that from it flows.
Keep in us a strong endeavor,
And our souls to rapture raise,
Delta lights the flame, and ever
Warms our hearts her bond to praise.

Chorus:
Delta Sigma Theta! We rejoice in thee!
Delta Sigma Theta! We pledge thee loyalty!
Devoted to truth, a bond of our youth,
That keeps our hearts clean and pure to the end.
The bright gleam of thy vision has lighted the world;
Delta Sigma Theta! Our own!

Delta! With loyal hearts we gather
To renew our vows of love;
In the forceful bond of devoted trust,
As our womanhood moves on.
Strengthen in us, old or younger,
As our ranks increase and grow.
Delta's ideals ever stronger,
Glorious in triumphant power. (Repeat Chorus)

(Following the singing of the Delta Sigma Theta National Hymn, Sorors drop their arms and hold the hands of the Sorors standing next to them to recite or sing the "Delta Mizpah.")

- 1:27:42 - 1:30:36 – She's right. That sounds 100% like something these celebrities would be told before selling their soul.

- 1:32:00 - 1:38:31 – It looks like they're using Kwanzaa to trick people into presenting offerings.

- 2:25:11 – "The candidate shall kneel and eat the food prepared by the gods for ALPHA PHI ALPHA men." ... while at an altar.

- end of commentary -

Must Watch! Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Tried to Silence Me! | Denouncing Delta Sigma Theta!
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CDLAPEb17sY

How Millions of College Students Are Tricked Into Entering Pagan Covenants
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qL9XqEjltJs

- 33:11 – See this short video: Passing The Egg: Hazing In Fraternities! "Secret Ritual Of Pledging?"

- end of commentary -

The title of the previous video is correct, and these orgs and HBCUs need to be held accountable.

Watch 25:13 - the end

EXPOSED: Disturbing the Divine 9 & Why I Walked Away! w/Essence Winston https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bzjPHQ7Hcts&t=1513s

- 1:05:35 – “For where I'm getting ready to take you in this next season, AKA cannot go with you.”

- end of commentary -

Watch the beginning - 22:55

Exposing A.K.A Initiation Ritual!! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KdU3cfNzmJE

- 16:39 – "On a table is a huge white candle entwined with ivy, representing our founder Ethel."

- 22:54 – "Candidates bow their heads."

- end of commentary -

Watch 20:38 - 1:29:58

"The REAL Serious Matter" - 5 EX AKAs speak out!
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ra4P17xKtDw&t=1238s
- Alternate source: 5 Ex- AKAs Speak Out: The Real Serious Matter

- 21:34 – Some chapters signed their names in blood in the book. But that's showing you that even without the blood, that's what you're really doing. That's how you sell your soul in Satanism.

- 22:27 – "You've yoked yourself to something else that's not Me, so I can't have all of you."

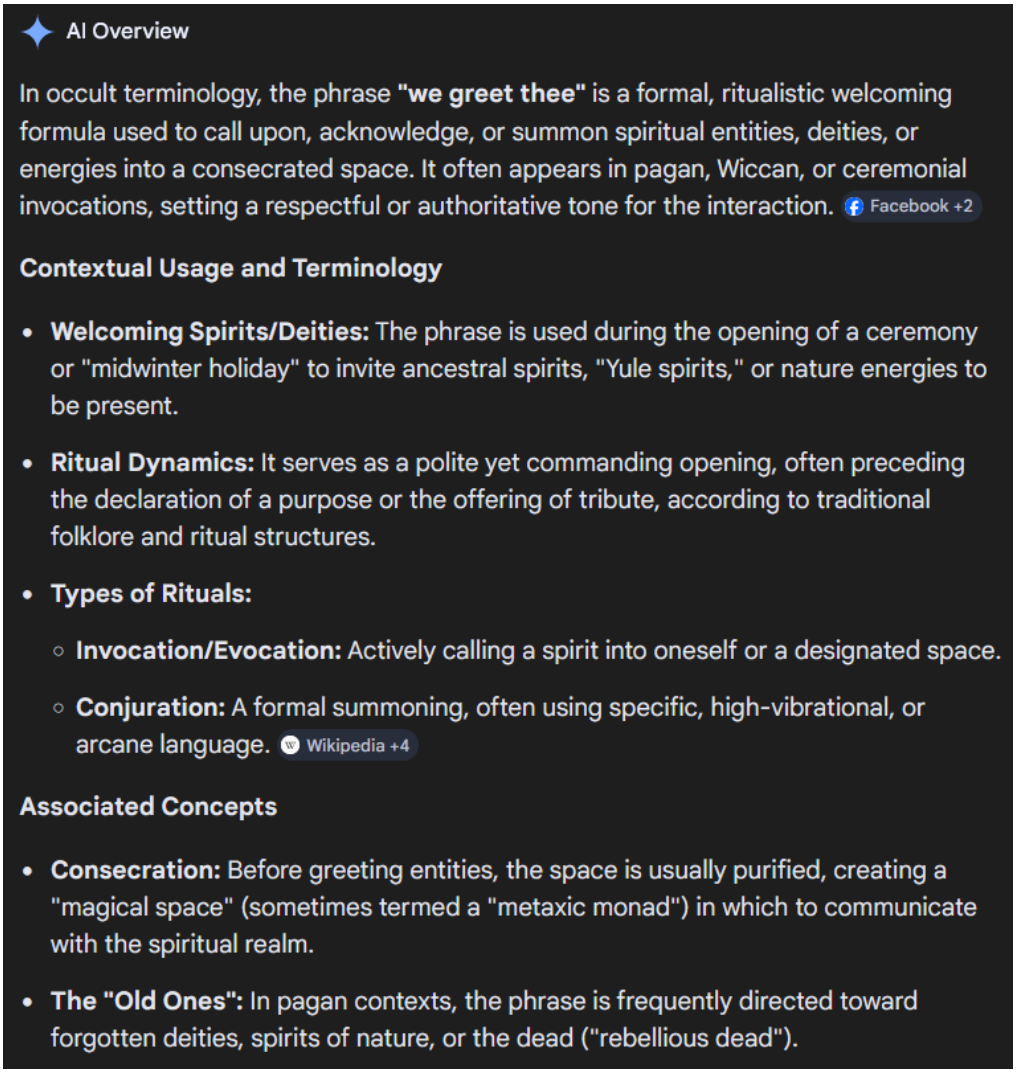

- 29:53 – "... like when we were in the circle ...."

- 31:45 – "I realized that we were low-key participating in necromancy – you know, worshiping these dead founders; saying they name every day; lighting candles for them; praying to them." Correct!

- 32:58 – Ancestor worship repackaged.

- 1:18:32 – "'Oh Alpha Kappa Alpha we greet thee.' ... It's like when you say 'Oh Alpha Kappa Alpha we greet thee' it's like you just invited something." Correct!

The context in which it's being used shows you for what purpose it's being used (no matter what they try to tell you).

AI Overview

In occult terminology, the phrase "we greet thee" is a formal, ritualistic welcoming formula used to call upon, acknowledge, or summon spiritual entities, deities, or energies into a consecrated space. It often appears in pagan, Wiccan, or ceremonial invocations, setting a respectful or authoritative tone for the interaction. Facebook +2

Contextual Usage and Terminology

- Welcoming Spirits/Deities: The phrase is used during the opening of a ceremony or "midwinter holiday" to invite ancestral spirits, "Yule spirits," or nature energies to be present.
- Ritual Dynamics: It serves as a polite yet commanding opening, often preceding the declaration of a purpose or the offering of tribute, according to traditional folklore and ritual structures.
- Types of Rituals:
  - Invocation/Evocation: Actively calling a spirit into oneself or a designated space.
  - Conjuration: A formal summoning, often using specific, high-vibrational, or arcane language. Wikipedia +4

Associated Concepts

- Consecration: Before greeting entities, the space is usually purified, creating a "magical space" (sometimes termed a "metaxic monad") in which to communicate with the spiritual realm.
- The "Old Ones": In pagan contexts, the phrase is frequently directed toward forgotten deities, spirits of nature, or the dead ("rebellious dead").

- 1:19:06 – "But that's um ... the pledge that had to be repeated over and over again."

- 1:23:57 – "I kind of wanted to just read like the first line of the initiation hymn where it kind of speaks for itself; where it says 'Hail Alpha Kappa Alpha dear we greet thee here tonight and may this noble sisterhood be always our delight.' And it's just like that kind of speaks for itself. It's letting you know we're greeting the spirit of AKA. And it's just like we're always inviting these spirits in."

- 1:26:21 – “We would come together and sing in a circle ....”

- 1:26:49 – “The poses that we did ....”

- 1:28:27 – “May you always remember you are not only joining with individuals but you are uniting with the Alpha Kappa Alpha.”

- end of commentary -

Watch the beginning - 1:02:02

Omega Psi Phi and Freemasonry [LIVESTREAM Discussion]
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=E7wO7MxGkp8

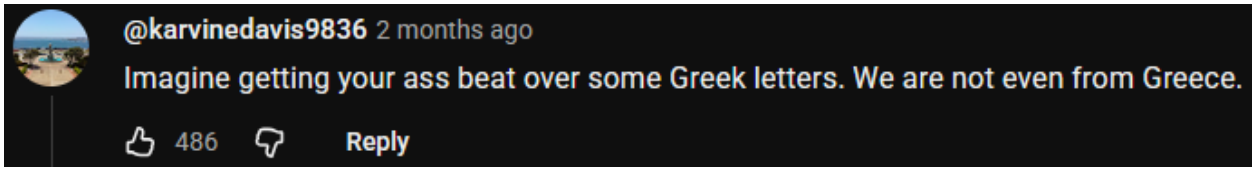

I don’t agree with everything this next person is saying, but he has the video clip....

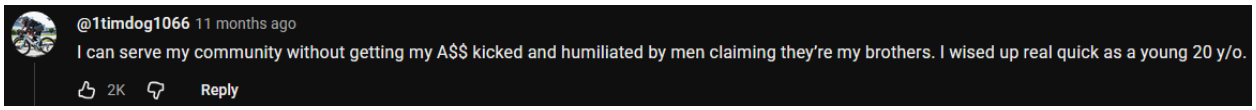

Is pledging in a fraternity or sorority really worth it? Many are called but few are chosen.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XwcFFBSJn-Q
- Hazing - PBS

- 21:30 – “Brent filed a lawsuit against Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity for his injuries, and settled out of court for two million dollars.” What? He did that voluntarily!

- end commentary -

Hazing in Black Fraternities: The Real Story
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3qT2RYDAuW4

Bowing Down and Participating in Food Rituals in Alpha's Fraternity Initiation
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tRkfVVWK9SY

- 0:15 – "... when we were literally being inducted into the organization, they have you kneel. They have you basically submit yourself on knees basically towards the organization that you're pledging. ... And we were blindfolded at the time, so we could not see who was in the room. And they had a bowl of noodles, which I found out afterward that they had us eat when we had knelt and say like, 'Eat the fruit of the gods. Eat the fruit of the gods. Eat the fruit of Alpha.'"

- end of commentary -

If the orgs are the drugs; the HBCUs are the drug dealers.

HBCU Life Influenced Me to Join Alpha Phi Alpha at a PWI
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ETB1Wl48HFM

When you go into a store and see all of the items for sale displayed all around you, who is responsible for what's there on display? Whoever is in control of the store, right? So, when you go to an HBCU and see all these Greek organizations.... In another video, a lady stated: "And at those institutions, Greek life is such a big deal. ... It's not 'if you're going to pledge,' it's 'what are you going to pledge'."

How to Renounce (the right way)

Note: If you're looking to sever ties with a fraternal order, then what you're looking to do is "renounce." Some orgs may call it "disaffiliate." "Denouncing" is something different. It basically means to condemn publically. Watching videos on this topic you'll find that a lot of people are using these terms interchangeably and it's causing confusion.

Denouncing a Sorority or Fraternity | Step-by-Step| Renouncing & Denouncing Greek Organizations
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xq4kzpsB1Mc

- Out From Among Them Facebook Group

It is not generally known that God is dead serious, EXTREMELY SERIOUS, when it comes to vows/your word/covenants/contracts. People take it lightly, while He is out-of-this-world extreme with it. It's a fire that shouldn't be played with, and yet many still do. The only reason they don't get burned is His grace, along with, in some instances, their ignorance of Him and the Bible (their ignorance).

Because He is so serious about it, He honors the vows/the word/the covenants/the contracts you make. You can even see this throughout the Bible. You can also see throughout the Bible that when the Israelites entered into a bad contract they were stuck, and had to deal with it; even if they were tricked into it. So, this idea that He is going to release a person from a vow/a word/a covenant/a contract they have with someone or something else just because they renounced it goes against the normal operation of life, and how He personally operates. It's actually like asking Him to do something wrong. It's almost on the level of being blasphemous (... asking Him to break a covenant).

You can't, and He won't, replace a covenant made with someone/something else with another one ... unless you go from not being born-again to being TRULY born-again (not just saying some words and thinking you are). This is because it is considered, actually accounted as, a death, with a new person being born. But you "being born-again" because you want out of a covenant you made with someone/something else is most likely going to result in a false conversion – you won't TRULY be born-again, so won't be freed.

You also have to understand, you didn't make the covenant with Him, so you're at the mercy of the organization, people and/or spirits you vowed to. That's who has to let you out. But where in the contract did it state that renouncing freed you from each individual vow you made? If the organization acknowledges and honors your notice of separation, that's fine, you're free from them. But did you vow to anyone else or anything else?

Witchcraft for Beginners: Oaths & Magical Partnerships
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=az0PQ6Td29U

- 10:04 – "... for instance with Apollo when I first started working with him it was kind of a dance like I've said we didn't quite come together, but once I set up an altar and then decided that I wanted to swear a year and a day to work with him, formalizing that took things to the next level."

- end of commentary -

Can't back out of an oath #leewjohnson #occult #spiritwork #pact
https://youtube.com/shorts/N_MOGB-K9tM?si=loiTwLxtRjAmFSRt

Watch 14:16 - 15:01

What is Hellenic Polytheism? | Hellenism 101
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6y-uL69I_QI&t=856s

There is another issue. At the very least, after breaking the contract you will have lied and become a liar at that moment (even though the overall act is toward righteousness). And that sin needs to be atoned for (through the new covenant method of atonement). In addition to lying, you will have also become a covenant-breaker, which is definitely not good. And that sin needs to be atoned for (through the new covenant method of atonement). These are just the facts.

I saw a video where a guy brought up Leviticus 5:4-5 and correctly stated how people who joined these organizations are guilty when they realize their sin. But I want to add to that just in case you believe these verses are saying that you can just confess your sins and everything will be alright. These verses are talking about a person who utters an oath recklessly without knowing. But were all of your oaths/vows like this? Or did you make vows during, and as a part of, an official ceremony, like a wedding? If so, that's not the same, unless there were circumstances that made it the same. As stated, each person's situation is different. Did you hear what was said? Did they ask you if you heard or agreed? Factors such as these may change how binding your oath is.

When it's all said and done, it may be that you end up separated but not legally (in God's eyes) divorced from the person, organization or spirit you vowed to.

Prescription
1. Get rid of all of the paraphernalia you have.
2. Renounce, contacting the organization and asking for an official release. Follow up.
3. Approach God humbly and shamefully, and ask (with emotion and deep down from the heart ... like a person who's done something horribly wrong) for forgiveness in the name of Jesus (or whatever name you call the sacrificial lamb ...

Yahshua, Yahusha, etc.) for [name off the things you did wrong, including lying and not honoring vows and covenants].
4. Ask to be released from all vows and covenants made in association with the organization, including, but not limited to, those made with people and spirits. [You can try this, but this is not guaranteed to work/be done on your behalf.]
5. Explain yourself – why you did it, and shouldn't have done it.
6. Ask for protection from harm to your physical and spiritual self, your life/the life you live, and all others, related or not, who can potentially be impacted by what you've done.
7. Depending on what you may have said and done at your particular organization, you may also want to consider going through a spiritual deliverance, performed by people who are truly experienced in this area (not just someone you think seems cool or is popular on social media).

Do that, and as long as your intentions are righteous, and you're someone who is in good standing with God, someone who's prayers He would even answer, you'll be fine.

FYI: Of course He loves the fact that you see your wrong and are trying to correct it, and that's taken into consideration when He makes His decisions.

Here's something from Out From Among Them Ministries that's "done-for-you." Read over it first and make sure you're going to mean it when you say it. Copy and paste it into another doc, then alter it to fit your needs. Use the following to condense statements: "... all _____, including, but not limited to, _____, _____, and _____."

SECRET SOCIETY RENUNCIATION PRAYER
https://88573ce5-3109-4338-9a2d-e9233d52bf6d.filesusr.com/ugd/7c46f4_602e401baa954a35bfc10b678fb7af0d.pdf

Additional Information (if you want it)

List of African-American fraternities and sororities
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_African-American_fraternities_and_sororities

To view the secret rituals of some of these fraternities and sororities go here: Category:Cults and religious organizations. Most are located under "The secret ritual..." and "Secret ritual..."

All That Coin
https://www.youtube.com/@AllThatCoin

Jamal Bryant And Roland Martin MOCK Jesus In Blasphemous Rant About THIS!
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=81zROsTL2hk

Secret Vows in a Public Church? Christ or Greek Letters? Let's talk!!
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ikPjY1C7JAE

Morehouse College just showed you the future of the Black Church
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xYqMk69jChw

Are Sororities/Fraternities actually spiritual contracts with Greek deities and demons.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MV2qp0Jpr48

Damage Control

Here are some weak attempts to counter all of the videos that have been coming out over the years against Greek organizations.

Conspiracy theories: Are sororities and fraternities demonic?
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b-qzLK8RS3k

The super-fraud is working his magic again. This time it's with fraternities.

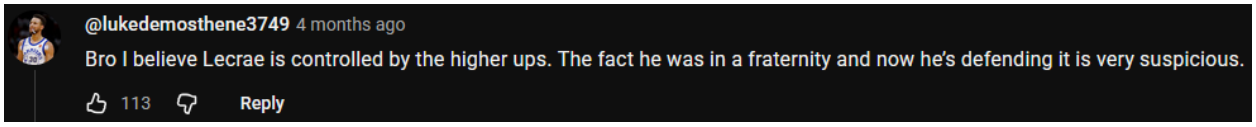

The Truth About Fraternities.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=k4E5Es33nUM

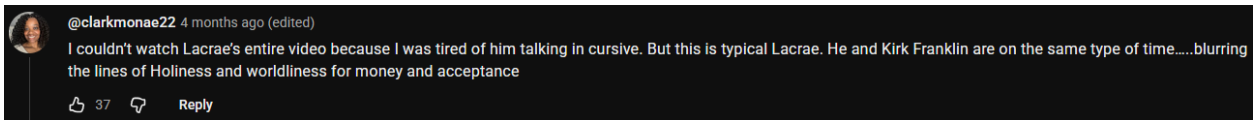

I found a document that claims to contain the rituals of Kappa Alpha Psi. I can't confirm that it's correct but here it is:

Kappa Alpha Psi Initiation Ritual
https://truthunedited.com/wp-content/uploads/2025/02/Kappa-Alpha-Psi.pdf

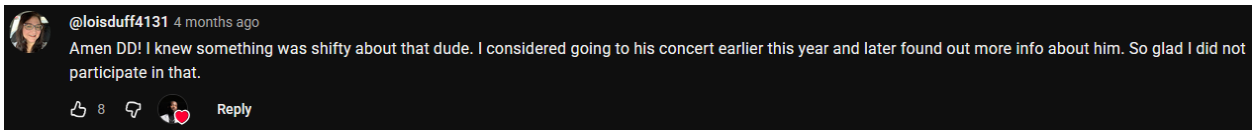

My Response To Gospel Rapper Lecrae Debunking My Video About Fraternities
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=U7TGbfE5goc

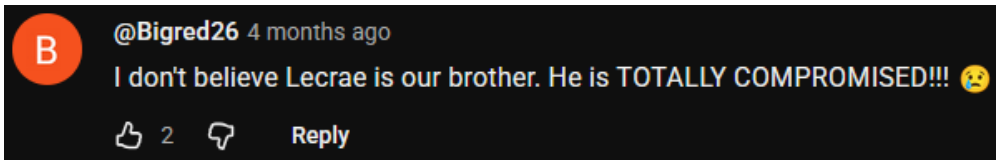

Here are some of the comments I agree with:

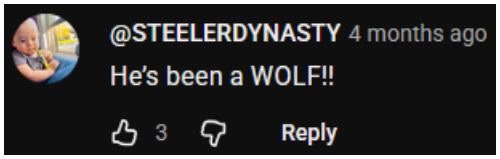

We got another one! Like Lecrae, I already knew Judge Joe Brown was working for the other side before this.

Judge Joe Brown Rebukes Ex-Greek Denouncers
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=drogKOtMJAs

- 19:15 - 19:50 – He named off some names then said it was the way to go to be a part of the revolution that overthrew American apartheid. He basically called the fight for equality a movement of fraternities, and that's why they joined. What? And at the end she caught how he didn't answer the question.

- 19:27 – “Martin Luther King was an Alpha.” MLK stated publicly that he was a member of several organizations. He also stated publicly that the fraternities were not doing enough to help the movement (they may have helped a little at the beginning but...). In other words, he called them out publically. And MLK was brought into an already existing Civil Rights Movement which he didn’t plan on being a part of; and he being an Alpha had nothing to do with it.

- 21:12 – “So, is it because that was the reason, one of the main reasons, of joining a sorority or fraternity, Black one, is to get involved politically?” “Yes. In other words, one of the main problems that came out in the late sixties was the fact that you couldn't trust anybody and too many of the people that nominally were supporting what you were trying to do....” He then went on to say that there were a bunch of people who were snitching and being turned, but when we had the sororities and fraternities that made people hard, we had a cadre of folk who had been through similar tough hazing, and this built a brotherhood of trust that carried over into politics. Negro what? That doesn’t even make sense! And who are these Black people in politics that formed a brotherhood? And what have they done for us?

- 25:56 - 26:10 – “So the main thing though was this organizational base that Black America used for purposes of advancing what was known as the acquisition of civil rights and ending segregation.” So it wasn’t the Black churches?

- 26:11 - 26:13 – “It wasn't integration. It was ending segregation.” This is off-topic, but I had to comment. This is actually true, and something I’ve been stating online for years. Dismantling American apartheid/“Jim Crow” was labeled “integration,” and integration was stated like it was assimilation. This has been used for the past couple of decades to smear MLK’s name as part of a larger smear campaign against him.

- end of commentary -

A

@allofchristforalloflife8437 2 days ago

Judge Brown with all do respect, did not address the following issues based on the video.
1. Biblical
A. Idolatry
B. Syncretism
C. Misusing the bible
D. Elitism
E. Understanding why "Invictus" is the most self centered poem ever made
2. Breaking the law
A. Assaults
B. Deaths
C. Lying to law enforcement
3. Mental Health
A. Gang induction

Show less

4  Reply

A Deeper Look at the Problem

From the News interview to Lecrae to Judge Joe Brown, these people just proved what one of the major problems is – allegiance. When their org, this over here, says or does something wrong against God, that over there, what do they do? They choose the org. They lie and deceive for their org. And when their org, this over here, says or does something harmful to Black people, that over there, what do you think they'll do? The same. It's similar to Democrats putting the party over Blacks – let the right circumstance come about, like immigration/immigrants, and you'll see where their heart truly lies. It's with the party. So basically you're just waiting for the right moment to be stabbed in the back by these people.

Most Blacks are concerned about atheists and followers of other religions, but atheists and followers of other religions don't take oaths/vows to orgs. Unbeknownst to them they may be yoked spiritually, but they are not doing an official marriage ceremony with vows that bind them to that organization stronger than anything else, or that prioritize the org over everything else. The people that do the latter are in another league. True or false, they would be angrier at a person who disrespected their org than a person who did the same to God, His son, the Bible, or Black people? That's a problem.

Black celebrities are under contracts or other circumstances, like fear, that act as puppet strings attached to different parts of their body. This renders them to a status of a robot that takes and carries out orders from the Jewish and non-Jewish Whites in power above them. For this reason, and others, I tell people all the time that Black celebrities are really outsiders who should never be trusted (House Negroes). But when you look at it, who else is in the very same position as these sellout Black celebrities? It's these members of fraternal orders (on and off campus). For example, in secret societies like Freemasonry, membership is composed of regular people from all walks of life; from those who work a 9-5 to those in high-ranking government and corporate positions. These people can be called on at any time to make a decision the higher-ups want made. It's a hidden network, similar to hidden communication wires, they can work through to accomplish their desires. When they need a judge to make a certain decision, they contact him/her. When they need a doctor to make a certain decision, they contact him/her. Think of the Black people who are members of fraternal orders. These people are among us like FBI informants or sleeper cells. So what happens when they get "activated"/called on?

[This same type of network exists in the spiritual realm, made up of spirits loyal to the fallen angels the Elite and some practitioners of magic deal with; spirits dwelling in, attached to and assigned to regular everyday people. This is a part of what you might call Satan's spiritual kingdom, and it is how the law of attraction works. In the 1st century the Holy Spirit enabled believers to cast out these spirits, destroying his kingdom. Fast forward to recent times and the powers-that-be created the New Age Movement as a Christian replacement and way to trick people into letting spirits into themselves and their environment, mostly through meditation. This is rebuilding Satan's kingdom. And now we see these fraternal orders have been tricking people into doing the same thing for even longer.]

And who are the people who will be "activating" them/giving them orders to carry out? It's their higher-ups. When it comes to fraternal orders that have levels like Freemasonry, most members stay in the lower levels, but above that, in the higher levels, is where things get, what most would call, Satanic. But it's these people in these higher levels who will be contacting the members in the lower levels and having them do their will, or someone else's will. And yet you believe this is not a big deal?

"Now more than a century old, Black Greek Letter Organizations – fraternities – have more than 800,000 members. But are such organizations an asset or do they work against African American culture? Ali Chambers argues that rather than unifying the Black community against the effects of racial prejudice, they have merely become a vehicle for Blacks to assimilate into White culture and society, and a means to create a self-perpetuating Black oligarchy." (Source: How Black fraternities are actually harmful to Black culture in the US) They are House Negro factories. Many of these Blacks in these orgs, and at HBCUs in general, are the types of Blacks who only associate with other Blacks who are educated and/or wealthy. And since they associate with other Blacks, though only from specific segments of the Black population, they actually believe themselves to be pro-Black. And they go off and live their best life instead of helping the rest of Blacks, who are poor and undereducated. This is why the rest of us don't benefit. Now think about this: How crazy is it that the brightest of Blacks are sucked into these groups, plucked out from among the rest of us, made to take oaths, and made to take orders of higher-ups who are most likely controlled by non-Blacks? This is clearly a setup.

Every non-Greek Black organization that portrays itself as being pro-Black has been turned into a tool that gives the illusion that we have representation and something of our own – the N.A.A.C.P., Congressional Black Caucus, the National Urban League, B.E.T., Essence, etc. And this was all done intentionally while you slept (consumed music, TV, Netflix...). So, why wouldn't it be the same with these fraternal orders (and HBCUs)? I happened to look on the website of the National Pan-Hellenic Council again and noticed that it stated "Trusted Partnerships & Affiliations You Can Count On." And whose logos did I see? The N.A.A.C.P., the National Urban League, and the Congressional Black Caucus.

* From now on everyone needs to be questioned about their memberships and affiliations with fraternal orders. No one should be accepted into any group without these questions being answered.

Joshua 7:10-15

10 The Lord said to Joshua, "Get up! Why have you fallen on your face? 11 Israel has sinned; they have transgressed my covenant that I commanded them; they have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen and lied and put them among their own belongings. 12 Therefore the people of Israel cannot stand before their enemies. They turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become devoted for destruction.[a] I will be with you no more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you. 13 Get up! Consecrate the people and say, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow; for thus says the Lord, God of Israel, "There are devoted things in your midst, O Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted things from among you." 14 In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes. And the tribe that the Lord takes by lot shall come near by clans. And the clan that the Lord takes shall come near by households. And the household that the Lord takes shall come near man by man. 15 And he who is taken with the devoted things shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the Lord, and because he has done an outrageous thing in Israel.'"

"... And He brought them out that He might bring them in—and He made them the executioners of His wrath against the idolaters. They must have no other gods but Him, and they must not treat the things that had been defiled by association with idolatry as their own spoil. The words which specially apply to this case are to be found in Deuteronomy 7:25-26 : 'The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire (see Joshua 7:21) the silver or gold that is on them. . . . Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it.' The whole spoil of Canaan was not so treated; but concerning that of Jericho there had been express orders, possibly because the city was especially defiled with idolatry. God had proclaimed it abomination. It was ahêrem—devoted or accursed—and no Israelite was to appropriate any of it, under penalty of becoming chêrem himself, and making his household chêrem. This Achan had done."
Source: Ellicott's Commentary for English Readers

Let's take a look at the word in Joshua chapter 7 translated to "devoted" or "accursed" in most Bible translations.

"devoted": cherem

Brown-Driver-Briggs

I. חֵרֶם noun masculine Leviticus 27:28

1 devoted thing.

2 devotion, ban; – ח׳ absolute Joshua 6:17 24t. (most read חֶרֶם Zechariah 14:11, Baer חֵרֶם); חֵרֶם Joshua 7:1; suffix 1 חֶרְמִי Kings 20:42; Isaiah 34:5; – thing devoted to ר׳:

Topical Lexicon

Concept and Range of Meaning

חֵרֶם (cherem) denotes that which is irrevocably set apart—either for sacred use or for complete destruction. The underlying idea is exclusivity: once something or someone is placed under cherem, it is removed from ordinary human claim and belongs wholly to the LORD, whether by consecration or by judgment.

Source: 2764. cherem

The children of Israel couldn't stand before their enemies or move forward because there were things already devoted to utter destruction in their midst – things that were set apart and designated as being off-limits. In this fraternal order situation we're looking at, you would be correct in applying this to idols or maybe even paraphernalia, but it actually goes further than that because it is also true of the people themselves – the people who have engaged in witchcraft and taken vows to gods or fraternal orders dedicated to gods. There are cherem people in your midst and you cannot move forward until you remove them, or they are removed. So, either you're going to have to do something about it, or you'll be watching these people get separated from you, probably through mass death since America's judgment is coming.

Benefits of Greek Life

Now that you know the answer to the question, "What is Greek life?" you're probably wondering why you should get involved. While sorority and fraternity life isn't for everyone, there are plenty of good reasons to join a house.

- As any Greek life devotee will tell you, the friends you make at your house are strong, lifelong connections. The words "brother" and "sister" are not taken lightly, and fellow Greeks take care of each other whenever possible, whether socially or professionally.

Source: What is Greek Life?

Numbers 25:1-5

[1]While Israel lived in Shittim, the people began to whore with the daughters of Moab. [2]These invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods. [3]So Israel yoked himself to Baal of Peor. And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel. [4]And the Lord said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people and hang them in the sun before the Lord, that the fierce anger of the Lord may turn away from Israel." [5]And Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Each of you kill those of his men who have yoked themselves to Baal of Peor."

A group of people had their own gods, different gods, and invited the Israelites to the sacrifices they were making to their gods. The Israelites ate and bowed down to their gods. And these acts caused a condition similar to that of being in a contract.

"yoked" (or in some translations "joined"): tsamad

Brown-Driver-Briggs

[צָמַד] verb bind, join (Arabic ضَمَدَ bind, wind, specifically of girl with two lovers We[GGN 1893, 470]; fasten (cattle) to yoke Dozy, مِضْمَد yoke, Id.; Assyrian fmâdu, bind, harness, so Ethiopic ፀመደ and III. be attached, attach oneself, specifically be (religiously) devoted; Aramaic צְמַד, ضمد , bind); —

Source: 6775. tsamad

Gesenius' Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon [?]

צָמַד not used in KAL, Arab. ضمد Syr. ܨܡܕ TO BIND, TO FASTEN, kindred to the root צָמַם (compare עָמַד and עָמַם).

NIPHAL, to be fastened, i. e. to adhere; in this phrase, נִצְמַד לְבַעַל־פְּעוֹר "he adhered to Baal-Peor," devoted himself to his worship, Num. 25:3, 5; Psa. 106:28.

PUAL, to be fastened, 2 Sa. 20:8.

HIPHIL, with the addition of מִרְמָה to frame deceit, Ps. 50:19.

Derivatives, צְמִיד and —

Source: Strong's H6775 - sāmad

I wonder how many times throughout our history in America these people were the spiritual reason for curses that manifested in the physical as intentional acts of destruction of Black progress. Yeah, all of yall who have vows to "other gods," oaths to organizations and the like, yall gotta go. Miss me with that friends, family, and "my people" stuff. You are not coming with us. You will not be around us.

The Masonic Connection

Anyone who knows about secret societies knows that these fraternities and sororities were modeled after them just by simply looking at their initiation rituals.

“Most fraternities and sororities are secret societies. While the identity of members or officers is rarely concealed, fraternities and sororities initiate members following the pledge period through sometimes elaborate private rituals, frequently drawn or adopted from Masonic ritual practice or that of the Greek mysteries. After an initiation ritual, the organization's secret motto, secret purpose, and secret identification signs, such as handshakes and passwords, are usually revealed to its new members. Some fraternities also teach initiates an identity search device used to confirm fellow fraternity members. Julian Hawthorne, the son of Nathaniel Hawthorne, wrote in his posthumously published Memoirs of his initiation into Delta Kappa Epsilon: ‘I was initiated into a college secret society—a couple of hours of grotesque and good-humored rodomontade and horseplay, in which I cooperated as in a kind of pleasant nightmare, confident, even when branded with a red-hot iron or doused head-over-heels in boiling oil, that it would come out all right. The neophyte is effectively blindfolded during the proceedings, and at last, still sightless, I was led down flights of steps into a silent crypt and helped into a coffin, where I was to stay until the Resurrection...Thus it was that just as my father passed from this earth, I was lying in a coffin during my initiation into Delta Kappa Epsilon.’ Meetings and rituals are sometimes conducted in what is known as a chapter room located inside the fraternity's house. Entry into chapter rooms is often prohibited to all but the initiated. In one extreme case, the response of firefighters to a blaze signaled by an automated alarm at the Sigma Phi chapter house at the University of Wisconsin in 2003 was hampered in part because fraternity members refused to disclose to emergency responders the location of the hidden chapter room, where the conflagration had erupted. ... Critics of Greek-letter organizations assert that they create a culture of nepotism in later life, while supporters have applauded them for creating networking opportunities for members after graduation. A 2013 report by Bloomberg found that fraternity connections are influential in obtaining lucrative employment positions at top Wall Street brokerages. According to the report, recent graduates have been known to exchange the secret handshakes of their fraternities with executives whom they know are also members to obtain access to competitive appointments."

Source: College fraternities and sororities
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/College_fraternities_and_sororities

You can read the rituals of the Greek orgs, or listen to someone explain them on the web, and you'll see how much they match Masonic rituals. Here are some Masonic rituals for reference (you don't have to watch the entire video):

Real Satanic Illuminati Freemason Initiation Rituals Embrassment get a good laugh at this https://www.bitchute.com/video/beLzA5QX1I1r

FREEMASON WHISTLEBLOWER RELEASED A SECRET TAPE OF AN INITIATION OF A MASTER MASON 😂
https://www.bitchute.com/video/IIhLkY1W265y

Freemason oaths and curses
https://www.youtube.com/shorts/nppBBMdM4Ao

The Time I Walked In On A Masonic Ritual...Here's What I Saw!!
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_Ct0PoygrWY

- 10:53 – "What if I'm asked to do something that I don't want to do?"

- end of commentary -

Watch the beginning - 18:08

The Luciferian Philosophy/Religion vs. The Truth
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mARrtQxUQTY

- 13:07 – They use "Lucifer" in different ways: to speak of an energy, intellectual enlightenment, and an angel. When you start asking questions about them worshipping the angel, they're going to claim they're only speaking of an energy or intellectual enlightenment.

- end of commentary -

Former 33rd Degree Mason Reveals the Darkest Secrets of Freemasonry
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IkR3iANDA78
*If you want further information on Freemasonry see Bill Schnoebelen's videos online. You can start with the presentations he did on the Prophecy Club (look on Bitchute.com or Odysee.com).

The following video will provide you with a deeper understanding of Freemasonry, but in particular, the Order of the Eastern Star. After the video, and commentary, I'll show you how it all connects.

Watch the beginning - 34:46 and 2:27:48 - 2:35:04

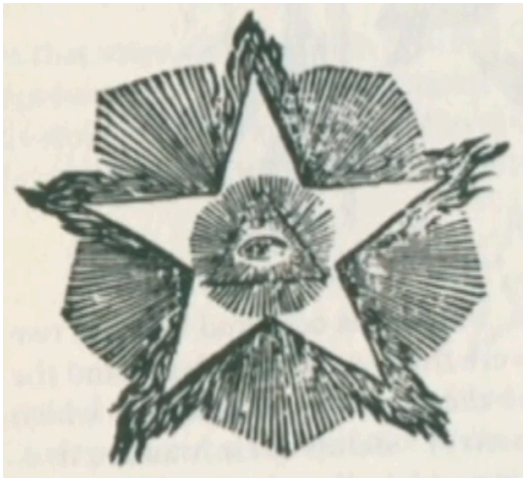

Secret Mysteries of America's Beginnings Volume 2: Riddles in Stone | Full Movie
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oaEKBBsncng

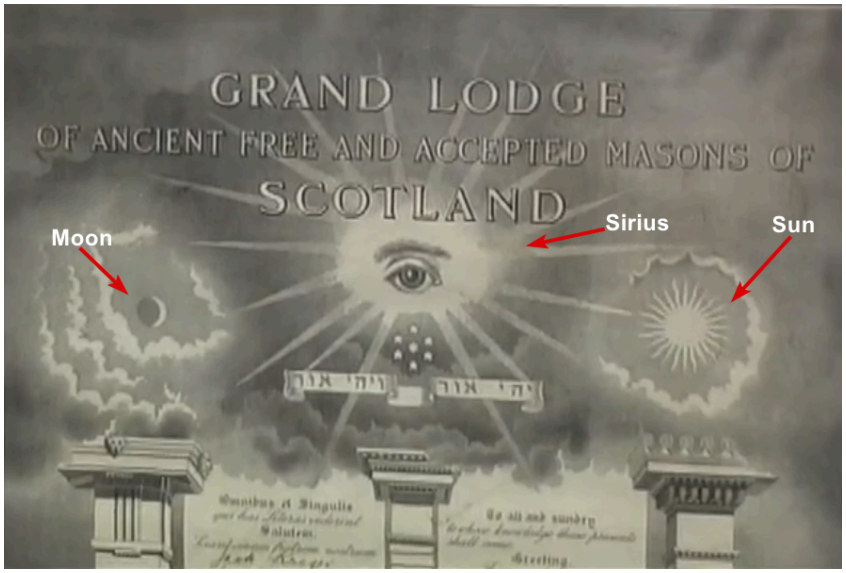

- 29:21 - 29:37 – “Masons teach that at the center of every Masonic lodge there’s a five-pointed star right underneath the altar upon which the candidate is obligated. But the thing is, what they don't tell you is that five-pointed star represents Sirius, which is regarded as a satanic symbol.”

- 29:40 – “There is perhaps no symbol that evokes occult suspicion like the figure of the pentagram, which from ancient times was associated with the Dog Star Sirius. Masonic philosopher Albert Pike wrote that ‘Sirius still glitters in our lodges as the Blazing Star.’ ‘The Blazing Star’ is an ancient Gnostic term for Sirius, and as shown here, is symbolized in freemasonry by the five-pointed star or pentagram. According to Pike, this symbol in Masonry dates back to the pentalpha of the Greek philosopher Pythagoras. The pentalpha gets its name for the five alphas, or Greek letter a's, which make up its composition. Typically, in Freemasonry you see the five-pointed star with the nose point down. Now there’s even a division in Masonry which considers this the evil side of Freemasonry as opposed to the non-evil side. For example, Freemasonic lodges in New York do not use the nose side down star, they turn it around so the nose is pointing up. And they consider that a good variety of Freemasonry.”

- 31:34 – “Because Sirius is said to arise in the east, it also became known as the Eastern Star. To the Egyptians, Sirius was identified with the dog god Anubis, which is where the name Dog Star comes from. Anubis was said to have guarded the gates of death, and was the protector of mysteries. Meanwhile, the Romans recognized Sirius as Janitor Lethaeus, or ‘the keeper of hell.’”

- 33:42 - 34:46 – “According to occult philosophers, the light which illuminates the eye comes not from the sun but from the Dog Star, Sirius; as is demonstrated by this illustration of the blazing star of Masonry centered by an all-seeing eye. ... Notice this image with the sun on one side and the moon on the other while the all-seeing eye sits in between with light blazing behind it. Pike writes that “The Sun and Moon ... represent the two grand principles ... the male and the female ... both shed their light upon their offspring, the Blazing Star, or Horus ....”

- 2:28:09 – “The use of that is actually deceptive ....”

- 2:32:52 – “Meanwhile, placing a goat's head in the center of it is most often blamed on 19th century French occultist Eliphas Levi.” Though blamed, he might not have been the first. See Sigil of Baphomet.

- 2:33:26 - 2:33:48 – “His writings inspired every major occult leader including Madam H.P. Blavatsky, Aleister Crowley, Manly P. Hall and Albert Pike.”

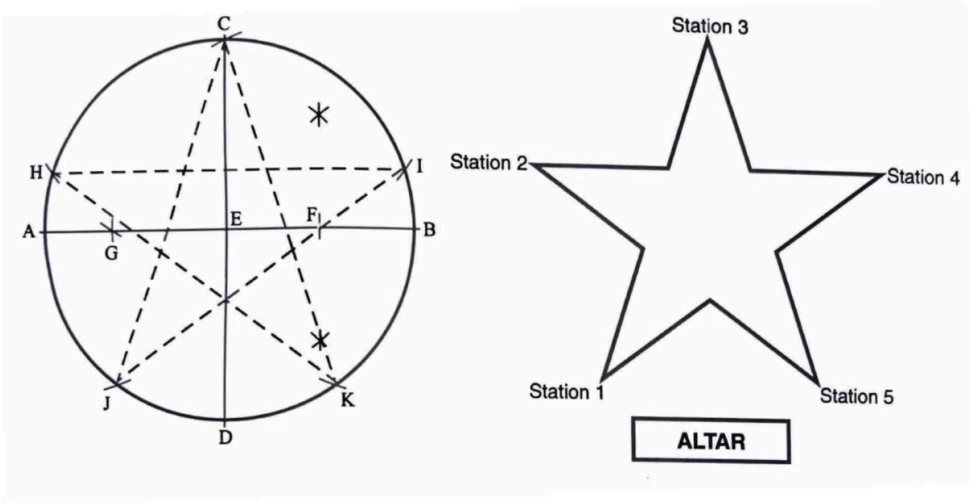

- end of commentary -

Watch the beginning - 54:48

Denouncing Kappa Kappa Psi....MOST Fraternities and Sororities are the same.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2K3jJgpZr0c

- 14:41 – "... a Great Spirit, the Spirit of Masonry." Don't the Greek orgs say something similar?

- 48:14 - 48:47 – This is not from Wicca, but Wiccans use it also. Drawing a circle on the ground and then drawing a pentagram inside (making a pentacle) is usually associated with ceremonial magic, or in other words, the practice of conjuring up spirits. This is what they do in the higher levels of Freemasonry.

Exposing Marching Band Culture! | The Demonic Truth About the Band | Denouncing Kappa Kappa Psi Frat
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yPKnGks_X5U
- Full video here.

- end of commentary -

Black Greek Letter Organizations

"It is important to keep in mind that fraternities and sororities have a much longer history than most of their critics realize, and are part of a larger group that can be described secret and ritualistic societies, many of which trace their origins to Freemasonry. ... Dr. Elizabeth Fine in her new book Soulstepping: Development and Transformation of African American Step Show, has an anecdote about the African American fraternity Alpha Phi Alpha, who had their first initiation in a Masonic lodge hall. The brothers opened some of the lockers and used lodge attire to enhance the rites.[4] African American fraternities, indeed almost all fraternities, were indeed influenced by Freemasonry. ... the Phi Beta Sigma history remarks that 'Of course many practices are based upon the Masonic influence…'[21]"
Source: Freemasonry, The Greeks, and Stepping

"Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. (ΑΦΑ) is the oldest intercollegiate historically African American fraternity. It was initially a literary and social studies club organized in the 1905–1906 school year at Cornell University but later evolved into a fraternity with a founding date of December 4, 1906. It employs an icon from Ancient Egypt, the Great Sphinx of Giza, as its symbol. Its aims or pillars are 'Manly Deeds, Scholarship, and Love For All Mankind,' and its motto is 'First of All, Servants of All, We Shall Transcend All.' Its archives are preserved at the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center. Chapters were chartered at Howard University and Virginia Union University in 1907." According to the official story, Charles Cardoza Poindexter decided the club should be changed into a fraternity after reading about Pi Gamma Omicron, a Black fraternity at Ohio State University (whose existence could not later be verified). "The divisive issue of whether the terms 'club' or 'fraternity' should be used was still debated.[11] A vote again confirmed the name Alpha Phi Alpha with the colors of old gold and black.[10] The initiation of new members Eugene Kinckle Jones, Lemuel Graves, and Gordon Jones took place on October 30, 1906, at a Masonic Hall including[10] James Morton was considered and selected, but at the time he was not registered at the university.[5] Two founding members learned about fraternity rituals from other fraternal organizations: Henry A. Callis worked in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity House, and Kelly worked at Beta Theta Pi fraternity house.[4] ... Callis said that these fraternities, SAE and BTP, were the source of the fraternity rituals.[4]" Source: Alpha Phi Alpha

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Alpha_Phi_Alpha

So, White fraternities were the source of their rituals.

"Eugene Kinckle Jones ... A versatile leader, he organized the first three fraternity chapters that branched out from Cornell—Beta at Howard, Gamma at Virginia Union University, and the original Delta at the University of Toronto in Canada. In addition to becoming Alpha Chapter's second president and joining with Callis in creating the fraternity name, Jones was a member of the first Committees on Constitution and Organization and helped write the fraternity ritual. ... George Biddle Kelley ... Not only was he the strongest proponent of the fraternity idea among the organization's founders, the civil engineering student also became Alpha Chapter's first president. In addition, he served on committees that worked out the handshake and ritual. Kelley was popular with the brotherhood. ... Nathaniel Allison Murray ... He was a member of Alpha Chapter's first committee on organization of the new fraternal group, as well as the Committee on the Grip. ... Robert Harold Ogle ... Ogle joined Kelley in working out the first ritual and later became a charter member of Washington's Mu Lambda Chapter."
Source: Alpha Phi Alpha – Our History
https://apa1906.net/our-history/

"In the school years of 1910-11, a small group of Black students attended Indiana University. Most of them were working their way through school. The number of places where they might assemble was limited. Realizing that they had no part in the university's social life and were drawn together by common interests, they decided that a Greek letter fraternity would do much to fill the missing link in their college existence. ... Two of these men, Elder Watson Diggs and Byron Kenneth Armstrong, had previously attended Howard University and had come into contact with men belonging to the only national Black Greek letter fraternity currently in existence. Their experiences at Howard gave rise to the chief motivating spirits that sowed the seed for a fraternity at Indiana University and crystallized the idea of establishing an independent Greek letter organization. Consequently, eight other men met with Diggs and Armstrong for the purpose of organizing such a fraternity. The charter members were Elder Watson Diggs, Byron K. Armstrong, John M. Lee, Henry T. Asher, Marcus P. Blakemore, Guy L. Grant, Paul W. Caine, George W. Edmonds, Ezra D. Alexander, and Edward G. Irvin."

Source: Kappa Alpha Psi – History
https://www.kappaalphapsi1911.com/history/

"Founder Elder Watson Diggs was a quiet, polished, scholarly, and prolific writer. Initially referred to as 'the Father of Kappa,' he became affectionately known as 'the Dreamer' due to his profound vision to create the fraternity. ... Based on the hostile attitude and circumstances facing Black people at Indiana University, Diggs established a fraternity on campus to give African Americans support and sanctuary based on high Christian ideals and the purpose of achievement. Diggs assisted Byron & Irven Armstrong in designing the fraternity's Coat of Arms, assumed responsibility for preparing the initiation ceremonial forms, completed the fraternity's Constitution, and took a course in Greek heraldry and mythology to ensure the fraternity was rooted in authenticity. He was one of two Founders who pawned his watch to pay for the Fraternity's incorporation fee. Diggs wrote the lyrics to the Kappa Hymn. Additionally, he established The Kappa Alpha Nu Journal, the second periodical of any national Black college fraternity. He is the fraternity's longest-serving Grand Polemarch; his tenure was during the first six years of the fraternity's existence. He also served as a Grand Board Member and as Grand Historian. He also established nine of the initial undergraduate chapters in addition to the Indianapolis (IN) Alumni Chapter. Diggs was awarded the first Past Grand Polemarch's medal and the first Laurel Wreath. He also assisted in writing The 1928 Handbook of Kappa Alpha Psi®®."

Source: Elder Watson Diggs
https://www.kappaalphapsi1911.com/elder-watson-diggs/

"Central Lodge Number 1 has been a rule and guide for the greater Indianapolis area since our arrival in September of 1856, Indiana in 1856. The members of our bond have been the leaders in all fields of achievement within the city, let alone the country. Our members have always reached for the stars. As such, we have been blessed to name amongst our rolls several outstanding members of the Black Greek Letter Community. Of these, Central Lodge Number 1 has enjoyed a relationship with Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated. ... Two of the founders of the fraternity (Elder Watson Diggs and Ezra Alexander), as well as the first two Grand Polemarchs of Kappa Alpha Psi (Diggs and Irven Armstrong) were initiated into Central. Alexander was also a member of Constantine Consistory 25 and a shriner within Persian Temple 46 (Indianapolis, IN). Central lodge is proud of the achievements of our members. We continue this tradition with Kappa today, as recently Kappa Brother and Past Master WIlliam Wilson, 33rd served as the Grand Worthy Patron of Order of Eastern Star, Indiana. As the record of Kappa Brothers are unearthed in our vast rolls, we will continue to share that treasure with the viewing public."
Source: The Kappa Alpha Psi Connection
https://www.centrallodge1.org/copy-of-about

The Order of the Eastern Star

"The origins of the Order of the Eastern Star dates back to the mid-19th century. Dr. Rob Morris was a Freemason, Master Mason and Poet Laureate of Masonry, who made it his mission to share the principles of Masonry with women. He and his wife, Charlotte Mendenhall Morris, developed the concepts and beliefs that formed the foundation for the Order of the Eastern Star."
Source: Order of the Eastern Star – history

https://easternstar.org/about/history/

Q&A: Order of the Eastern Star
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QoY7yGXI43A

Note: This next piece is not as long as it appears to be. Nearly all of the page length is actually due to comments.

Dark matters in the Eastern Star https://sunandshield.wordpress.com/2010/03/27/dark-matters-in-the-eastern-star/
- Archived here.

If Freemasonry is bad, then the Order of the Eastern Star acting as its wife or sister – the cheerleader, supporter, sidekick, etc. – must also be bad for just that role alone. But aside from that, in this organization you still have the network of willing slaves ready to do the bidding of higher-ups, along with other issues.

Watch 19:06 - 23:00

Testimony Of A Former Eastern Star (Worthy Matron)
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B0rk5V2HGCs&t=1146s

CHAPTER ROOM.

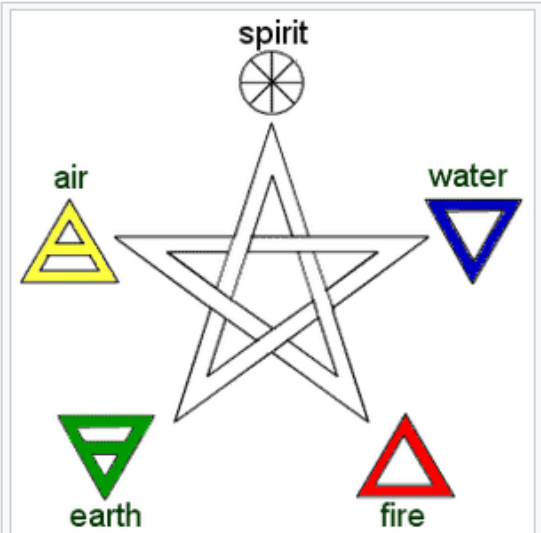

How many of the members really know what's going on? Do they understand, or imagine that they understand?

Elemental attribution of the points of the pentagram

Source: Lesser ritual of the pentagram

"Many traditions hold a belief in the five classical elements, although they are seen as symbolic representations of the phases of matter. These five elements are invoked during many magical rituals, notably when consecrating a magic circle. The five elements are air, fire, water, earth, and aether (or spirit), where aether unites the other four elements.[97]"
Source: Wicca

So, we can already see that something else is going on here. In some occult religions the points of the star also represent planets, and those planets, spirits or angels. So what spirits, angels, or gods do the five women actually represent? I'm sure the higher-ups know.

"Masonry, like all the religions, all the mysteries, Hermericism and alchemy conceals its secrets from all but the adepts and sages, or the elect,
and uses false explanations and misinterpretations of its symbols to mislead those who deserve to be misled, to conceal the truth, which it calls light,
from them and to draw them away from it"

Albert Pike 'Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry' pg.104

Selections from their ritual book

- “6. That the obligation of our Order, voluntarily assumed, is perpetual, from the force of which there is no release. ... Membership can only be forfeited by dimission, suspension, or expulsion from a Chapter, excepting that the suspension or expulsion of a brother from a Masonic Lodge, for any other cause than non-payment of dues, deprives him of all the rights of membership in this Order until reinstated by the Masonic body.”

- “In the center of the Chapter room there should be an Altar, standing upon the center of a Five-pointed Star, having the five colors of the Order, with the white point towards the west. Upon the Altar should be an open Bible. In the East, there should be a pedestal with a Gavel thereon for the use of the presiding officer. Each Chapter should have a Seal, Signet, and one or more small Bibles, a Sword and Veil for Adah, Culms of Barley for Ruth, a Crown and Scepter for Esther, a Broken Column for Martha, and a Cup for Electa; they may also have banners with appropriate emblems thereon.”

- “You have doubtless well considered the step you have taken in seeking admission to this Order, dedicated to Charity, Truth, and Loving-kindness. You came here of your own free choice. Complain not, therefore, at any trial. A seal is here set upon your lips. Let it warn you to be ever silent and secret, as to all that may be made known to you here. Be not weary in well-doing. Woe unto those who seek to take upon themselves burdens which they cannot bear. Woe unto the faithless and insincere, who assume obligations lightly and forthwith forget them. ‘Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct thy paths.’”
Source: Ritual of The Order of the Eastern Star
https://www.gutenberg.org/files/61130/61130-h/61130-h.htm

N.M.G.T.M. – Not me, God through me