RULES

DISCLAIMER. writer does not equal muse . whatever heinous actions my muse do are not a reflection of me. as bungou stray dogs' cast have names of famous writers : this is not a portrayal of the female black poet, frances ellen watkins harper. i am doing my research on psychologist so my portrayal maybe off but i am doing my research.

SELECTIVITY. will only roleplay with people that i follow and vice versa. if you react to any interaction post and do not follow me : you will be ignored. i can and will soft block or hard block people that make me uncomfortable.

WRITER . if you read my writer information in my pinned : i am a minor. if you're account clearly says you're minor do not interact, i expect you to not interact with my account and vice versa.

SHIPPING. multiship with one spot for main ship. heavy chemistry is needed before we start planning out plots for our muses. if wanted, pre—established relationships can be plotted out in twitter dms or discord. platonic and enemies are the main focus.

WRITING. i sometimes change up my writing style so it's more fitting for people i roleplay with. i know everyone has their own writing style and i shouldn't be a copy cat, but i sometimes get insecure, so sorry in advance.

BANTER. i prioritize serious and regular banter above crack. i have nothing against crack banter but i like to focus on developing frances and her relationship with other people.

ACTIVITY. .

VERSES

BUNGOU STRAY DOGS. frances is commonly seen in counseling centers, helping her patients. sometimes, she is pulled away from work to be an government agent, to find weak spots on people of interest.
