Using KeepVid for downloading YouTube... videos to your Drive

Copy the URL of the video you want to download (YouTube, Facebook, etc.)
Go to the KeepVid website - keepvid.com

Paste the URL into the search box THEN click on the Download button

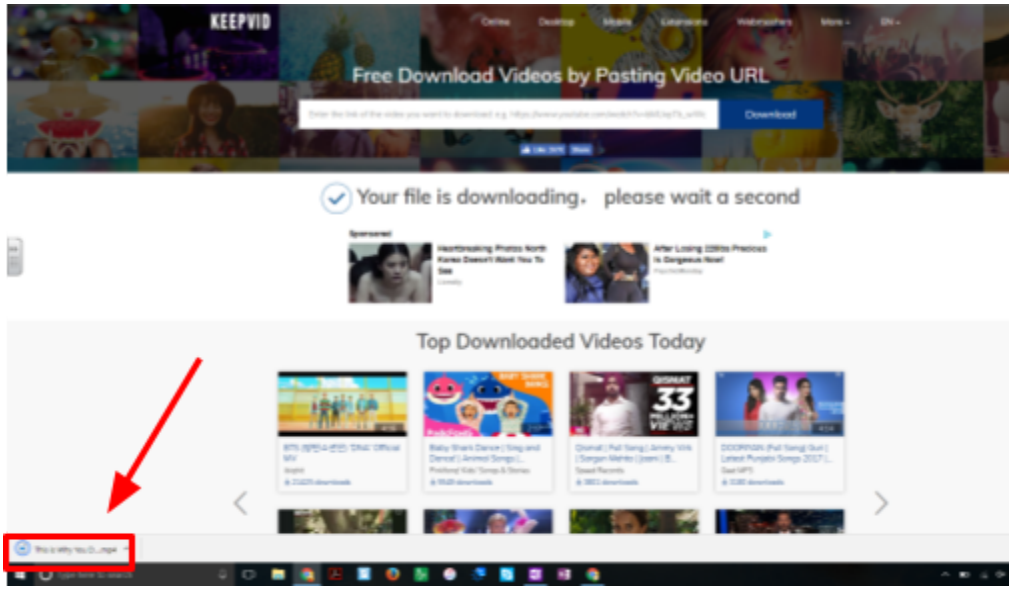

Choose which format to download the video in.

or

When your download is complete you will see it appear in the bottom left hand corner of your computer screen

You can choose to upload the video to your Google Drive.

Open Google Drive
New - File Upload
Choose the video (probably under “Downloads”)
Select

Once the video is on your Drive you can change the Sharing setting and link to the video on Google Sites, in Google Doc and Slides or share through Google Classroom.

IMPORTANT NOTE: When using KeepVid to download and store videos, be sure to follow copyright rules and properly cite your sources for the video when you use it on sites, docs and slides.